Arson Probe Launched Into Mill Valley Blaze

ARSON SUSPECTED—County firemen and volunteers survey remains of summer cottage at 22 Washington Park Avenue, above Mill Valley, after it was swept by fire yesterday. Firemen were hampered by lack of water. Report that a man was seen to throw something into a pile of scrap under the house was being investigated today. Object on collapsed upper floor is a large floor mat. (Sheriff's office photo)

Someone Reported At Scene

An arson probe was launched today in a fire that destroyed a 50-year-old wood frame summer house at 22 Washington Park Avenue above Mill Valley yesterday and threatened to burn through a forest of redwood and eucalyptus trees to other mounttainside homes.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said today that a young man was seen near the home by a neighbor just after the fire broke out in a storage area under the building on the slope of Mount Tamalpais, owned by Sausalito realty broker Sally Hettrich.

The youth was seen throwing something into a pile of lumber, rags and papers under the house before he disappeared into the home, a witness told Bloom.

ARTIST GONE

The building had been rented last Dec. 1 by Patrick Fitzsimon, an artist. There was no sign of him at the scene yesterday, and his whereabouts remained unknown today.

The blaze, reported at 2:29 p.m., threatened the surrounding heavy growth of redwood and eucalyptus trees while firemen were forced to stand by, nearly helpless, for lack of water pressure to feed fire hoses from four pumper trucks.

"We had the fire pretty well under control three times but were unable to keep it down without water," Bloom said.

"We were fortunate that there was no strong wind or else we might have had a swift-burning inferno on our hands."

VOLUNTEER GROUP

Seven members of the Throckmorton Ridge Fire Brigade, a newly organized volunteer group, and nine county firemen fought the blaze for nearly five hours.

Damage was estimated at $12,500 to the structure and $8,000 to its contents.

Bloom said the electricity and gas service to the house had been disconnected a month ago, and kerosene lamps and a coal stove had apparently been used by the resident since the utilities were turned off.

A kerosene lantern was found 100 feet down the road from the house, its badly smoked chimney lying broken beside it and its fuel supply three-fourths gone.

The lack of sufficient water supply to fight the blaze was similar to the circumstances two years ago, Chief Bloom said, when two homes in the same area were burned to the ground during the Fourth of July holiday as firemen stood by helplessly.

GOP STRATEGY PLAN

Republicans Are Hoping To Attract Big-City Vote

By JULES WITCOVER
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Lost in the shuffle of Sen. Barry Goldwater's celebrated "southern strategy" for the presidency is a Republican National Committee plan, three years in the making, to win by whittling down the Democratic big-city vote.

The scheme, focusing on 10 big cities with heavy ethnic populations, takes on new potential in light of the "white backlash" reaction to the Negro revolution and Goldwater's get-tough-with-Russia posture.

Post-convention speculation has suggested that Goldwater's chances rest on his ability to string together enough smaller states outside the industrial east to give him an electoral edge in November. But his strategists actually are counting on big-state strength to put him over.

The plan is to boost GOP strength among ethnic groups just enough to enable traditionally heavy Republican rural leads to overcome large Democratic big-city margins.

Prior to the 1960 Kennedy-Nixon campaign, most nationality and ethnic groups voted 60 per cent Democratic, 40 per cent Republican. In 1960, with an Irish Catholic heading the Democratic ticket, the ratio jumped to 80-20. The Republicans think they can win this year if they can restore the 60-40 split.

Goldwater's nomination offers two weapons with which to accomplish this more favorable ratio. Ethnic groups, particularly concerned about Negro unrest and social gains, may well be attracted by the senator's strong statements against street violence and his restrained civil rights position.

Also, Goldwater's hard line anti-Communism is expected to appeal to ethnic groups tied to Soviet satellites.

Four of the 10 cities on the GOP list are in the east—Newark, N. J., Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Baltimore—and five are in the midwest — Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis. The 10th in Los Angeles, a Goldwater stronghold in last month's California primary.

Of the 10, seven are in states that went to the Democrats in 1960. This rundown shows the GOP possibilities this year in pressuring the big-city ethnic groups (figures based on 1960 census).

Illinois—Kennedy won its 27 electorial votes by less than 8,000 popular votes, with Cook County (Chicago) delivering a 319,000 edge after Nixon had piled up a 310,000 downstate lead. Chicago has 1,237,000 residents of foreign stock, including 258,600 Polish, 24,200 Hungarian, 31,958 Yugoslavian, 50,000 Czech, 96,600 Russian, 47,634 Lithuanian.

New Jersey—Kennedy won its 16 electorial votes with a popular-vote edge of 22,000, with Essex County (Newark) delivering a margin of 50,000. Newark has 137,000 residents of foreign stock, including 47,105 Italian, 16,000 Russian, and 15,000 Polish.

Pennsylvania—Its 32 electorial votes went to Kennedy by 116,000 popular votes, with Philadelphia delivering an edge of 331,000 and Alleghney County (Pittsburgh) a 108,000 lead. Philadelphia has 582,400 residents of foreign stock, including 58,000 Irish, 55,000 German, 56,000 Polish and 128,000 Italian; Pittsburgh has a total of 183,000, including 33,000 Italian, 25,000 German and 24,000 Polish.

Restaurant Loses $1,600 To Burglar

An agile burglar climbed through a transom window of the Kettle in Sausalito sometime between 4 and 7 a.m. today, broke open a locked compartment behind the meat counter, and made off with $1,600 in cash.

Lt. David Cooper of Sausalito police, said the culprit apparently climbed on top of the five-foot-tall, painted wooden Indian at the entrance to the restaurant at 633 Bridgeway. A screen covering the four-foot by 20-inch transom was cut.

The money was taken from two drawers in the compartment which Cooper said is used as a safe. Each drawer was locked, the burglar breaking the locks by prying.

Allen Wong of San Francisco, manager of the restaurant, reported the loss. The burglar, said Cooper, left by way of the back door.

Lime Quarry Cave-In Traps 13 Frenchmen

CHAMPAGNOLE, France (UPI) —A lime quarry caved in near here today, trapping miners in an underground tunnel several miles long.

The fate of 13 miners believed to be buried under tons of fallen lime was not known immediately. Rescuers said it might be difficult to reach the men.

Fight By Two Men Leads To Gun Display

A 2 a.m. brawl at a San Rafael service station, during which one participant brandished a gun, resulted in charges against two men and a woman.

Richard L. Strong, 22, of 830 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, was charged with exhibiting a firearm in a threatening manner; Richard Elliott Blair, 18, of 597 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, with disturbing the peace, and Kay Branton Collette, 23, of 497 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, with obstructing a police officer.

San Rafael police gave this account:

Kenneth Anthony Cavillo, 21, of 151 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, drove into the Standard Station at 729 Fourth Street at 2 a.m. With him were Strong, Miss Collette, and two others.

Blair was sitting behind the gas station in his car with two other youths.

Cavillo and Blair took up an old argument, Blair challenged Cavillo to a fight.

As the ruckus started, Strong pulled a .22-caliber automatic pistol from the glove compartment of Cavillo's car and yelled, "I've got a gun; you'd better stop fighting."

Police Officers David H. Jones, Bart Stinton, Robert Larrison and Kenneth Homen arrived to break up the fight.

They stopped the fighting, but no one could find the gun until Miss Collette was asked to get out of the car. She had been sitting on the gun, police said.

No arrest was made immediately, but warrants against the three were issued subsequently by the district attorney's office.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Reclamation subcommittee approved today a bill to authorize the Central Arizona Project and supplemental works — a package estimated to cost 1.3 billion dollars.

Policeman Halts 'Weed' Trimming

L. P. Van Atta was just trying to improve Mill Valley's appearance by "trimming some weeds" on city property near his home at 18 Tamalpais Avenue, he told Police Officer Herbert Aceret yesterday.

But the "weeds," said Officer Aceret, looked like shrubs or small trees. He ordered Van Atta to desist unless he gets a tree-cutting permit.

"The city will do nothing to improve the area, so I thought I'd do it myself," said Van Atta.

Penalty Phase Trial To Continue

Testimony in the penalty phase of the Donald G. Corbett Jr. murder trial in Marin Superior Court is scheduled to resume at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Robert Lee Jones and John Lee King, defendants, were convicted of the March 27 slaying of Corbett last Tuesday. The penalty session, in which a verdict of death in the gas chamber or life imprisonment is the issue, started Thursday.

U.S. To Send More Men To Vietnam

SAIGON (UPI)—Premier Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh announced today after a conference with U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor that the United States would increase the number of military advisers in Viet Nam and send more war equipment.

Khanh announced no figures, but Washington reports in mid July said at least 600 more Americans would be sent to South Vietnam. A Washington report today said the 600 would be only the first contingent and that more American soldiers would follow as needed.

The Washington dispatch said President Lyndon B. Johnson was prepared to go as high as necessary in the assisstance program to bring final victory to South Viet Nam. The reports followed evidence communist North Viet Nam was flooding border areas of South Viet Nam with Vietminh troops.

There are about 16,500 U.S. advisers here now.

Khanh's announcement followed a series of spectacular Communist victories in a series of ambushes in the south and increased threats to South Viet Nam's four northernmost provinces. But it came as the government itself announced a successful major offensive in Phu

Truck Drivers Strike At New York Fair

NEW YORK (UPI)— Truckdrivers angered by lay-offs staged an 11-hour wildcat strike at the New York World's Fair today, cutting off deliveries of food, fuel and maintenance supplies and disposal of garbage.

The drivers, members of the Teamsters Union, returned to their jobs shortly before noon after union leaders and the Allied Maintenance Corp. agreed to continue negotiations on the layoff of 40 drivers last Wednesday. The company retained 106 drivers described as "adequate for our present needs."

U.S. Rejects Soviet Bid For Global Laos Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States rejected today a new Soviet bid for an international conference on Laos, saying it would be useless unless Communist forces in the Southeast Asian kingdom first stop shooting and give up territory conquered since Mid-May.

The Soviet proposal in the form of a declaration was delivered to the State Department yesterday by the ranking Soviet diplomat here, Minister-Counselor Georgi M. Kornienko. It had been delivered to the British a day earlier.

A State Department spokesman declared that "no useful purpose would be served" by a new conference on Laos—following up the Lao neutrality conference of 1962—unless conditions demanded by neutralist Premier

OAS Nations Sign Accord Against Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American republics yesterday signed a historic declaration condemning Communist Cuba for aggression and approving strong economic and diplomatic sanctions against the Fidel Castro regime.

The document also clears the way for the American nations, alone or in a group, to use armed force against Cuba if it continues what the ministers officially described as aggression and subversion against other hemisphere republics.

The specific condemnation was of Cuban efforts to overthrow the government of Venezuela.

The resolution calls for diplomatic and trade sanctions, directing that no American nation maintain diplomatic or trade ties with Havana but giving no deadline for the severing of such ties.

In each of three years, 1954, 1933 and 1916, the Atlantic coast was raked by four hurricanes.

The victim was patrolman Henry Walburger, 24.

Laos Forces Hit At Reds

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Government forces squeezed a pincers offensive today on communist outposts blocking a highway which connects the administrative capital of Vientiane with the royal capital of Luang Prabang 180 miles north.

Patrol Cut In Harlem, Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP) — Police patrols have been sharply reduced in Harlem and Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant section as peace prevailed in the areas over the weekend.

As police patrolled yesterday in pairs, instead of in groups, a department spokesman said: "We hope this will return the situation to normal."

At various spots in Brooklyn last night, three kerosene-filled bottles were thrown, one into a real estate office doorway, another into the entrance of a tavern, while a third burned in the street. A man in the tavern was reported burned on the right arm and neck.

Damage was slight and there were no disturbances on the streets at the time, police said.

City Councilman Arthur J. Katzman said he will ask the council to seek Mayor Robert F. Wagner's support in creating a citizens committee to investigate the July 16 shooting of a Negro boy by a white policeman. The boy's death sparked last week's riots.

Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy has consistently opposed creation of a citizens review board to investigate charges of brutality and other complaints against police.

Carolina Auto Crash Kills 10, Injures Two

KINSTON, N.C. (AP)—Ten persons were killed early yesterday in the worst highway accident in North Carolina since 22 migrant farm laborers died in a two-truck collision near Fayetteville seven years ago.

Uneasy Peace Hangs Over Riot-Scarred Rochester

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — This riot-scarred city emerged today from a bloody weekend of racial violence with four dead, hundreds of injured and massive property damage. An uneasy peace was backed by a combat-ready force of National Guardsmen.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller activated 1,000 guardsmen and ordered them into Rochester to stand by for anti-riot duty if needed.

"Law and order will be maintained in the city of Rochester," the governor declared.

A detachment of 12 open trucks with 18 guardsmen each toured the city's trouble areas in a show of force shortly after the arrival of the guard last night. The men carried rifles with bayonets fixed but had no ammunition.

Three persons were killed and a county official was injured critically yesterday when a helicopter surveying a potential trouble spot smashed into a three-story house and set it afire.

A man was killed by an automobile when he was struck during wild rioting Saturday night, in the height of the racial explosion, and staggered into the street. Two men were shot. One was in critical condition.

More than 600 persons, nearly all Negroes, were arrested. More than 300 other persons were injured, including 35 police officers and several firemen. Thousands of Negroes participated in rioting throughout the weekend, but police had no estimate of the exact number.

Looters ran wild, pillaging and smashing, especially Saturday night.

Many rioters were "all fired up on stolen booze," a police official said.

State and local police, working with little rest, were targets of bricks, rocks, bottles, full beer cans, fire bombs and sheets of glass in one outbreak after another.

They answered with tear gas, high-pressure streams from fire hoses and warning shots from their guns. Several individual rioters were clubbed into submission when seized.

The Rochester jail was jammed and a clerk said the property room was filled with "everything you can think of" in recovered loot.

A dawn-to-dusk curfew was imposed, although there was widespread defiance in the Negro sections.

The sale of all liquor, guns and ammunition was halted indefinitely.

The peak of the rioting occurred Saturday night in the Jefferson Avenue area on the city's west side, a well-kept section populated by the city's more prosperous Negroes.

The area is across town from Joseph Avenue, where the racial violence broke out late Friday night when police sought to arrest a drunken youth at a street dance.

Man, 43, Booked On Sex Charges

Thomas Fred Spang, 43, of 62 Wreden Avenue, Fairfax, was booked by Fairfax police yesterday on a charge of having sexually molested four boys.

Police said Spang's arrest followed a long investigation, triggered by the compiaint of one parent several weeks ago.

Four boys, all 12 and 13, are known to have taken part in perverse acts with Spang, police said.

He was arrested in his automobile near his home at 11:30 a.m., and held on $3,300 bail.

It's HUGH TURNER'S turn this week to do microphone interviews at the Northgate Luncheon on Wednesday at the Marin Art and Garden Center... These talks are recorded and then broadcast over KTIM at 6 that same evening. Our sales manager CHUCK PENDLETON opened the series last Wednesday. All six luncheons will be on the air...

AND IT'S a big week for Little League Championship playoffs in the county. JOHN PAGLIARO and JOE BEHN will be on the air from Twin Cities at 6 o'clock Tuesday—and again with the semifinals on Thursday. Saturday at 3 p.m. both boys will broadcast the last of Marin County championship events from the Twin Cities ball park...

FINAL PLAYOFFS are a sad feature of the summer season at KTIMarin, because Little League Broadcasting every night can really get you. But we don't have much time to worry about it, for next comes Pop Warner Football and the fall high school and College of Marin football season. This year we're going to have more live sports programming on KTIM-FM—on Friday Nights, for example...

REMEMBER the College of Marin broadcasts on KTIM-FM last spring? The series was so successful that now the college is planning a 20-week series during the winter school term. Not all panels this time—there will also be musicals... What we're saying is—better buy your FM set now to hear them!

Satellites May Control Insects

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — The uses of waether satellites will gradually expand to cover a wide range of activity on earth: From keeping track of clouds of desert locusts swarming across Africa to computing the distribution of fish in the earth's oceans.

These, and many other economically important uses are envisioned by Dr. S. Fred Singer, dean of the School of Environmental and Planetary Sciences at University of Miami. Dr. Singer was formerly director of the U.S. Weather Bureau's national weather satellite center here.

Twenty years from now, a world weather satellite system, as seen by Dr. Singer, will emerge into an economically important device encompassing not only the atmosphere but also the earth, the oceans and space. Here's the way he believes it will work:

Three large satellites circling the earth in polar orbits at 2,000 miles will be equipped with advanced television cameras able to observe clouds day or night. In addition to supplying weather data they will spot forest fires and alert fire fighters, observe drought and flood ocnditions, areas of the world under cultivation, and "even the state of crops." This would make possible more efficient planning and use of the world's food supply.

Satellites would keep track of ocean ice packs for ships and direct icebreakers. They would measure distribution of snowfall and precipitation. The amount of meltable snow would be calculated from and hydrological forecasts prepared for managers of flood control projects and irrigation reservoirs, and agricultural planners.

"The infrared sensors will monitor the world's oceans and the meandering of ocean currents," Dr. Singer says. "A technique for computing the distribution of fish will have been developed and will make possible more effective utilization of the oceans' resources. Scientific 'farming' of the oceans will become practical."

The satellites' eyes should be able to spot quickly not only forest fires but other conflagrations in time to prevent economic losses. Even activity of volcanoes can be monitored, Dr. Singer predicts. When the satellites sight swarms of locusts, spraying and other measures can be taken to protect crops.

When data gathered by the weather satellites are melded with refined astronomical observations, man may even learn what caused the ice ages. With this new knowledge of extreme fluctuations in the climate, the way may be opened for what he calls "planetary engineering," or climate control.

To fill out the weather picture in remote sections of the world, the satellites would relay to ground stations information assembled by thousands of unmanned measuring units and ocean buoys.

"Every weather station in the world would receive from a satellite a picture of the cloud distribution and other important data covering its own area in additoin to the global analysis," says Dr. Singer.

A forerunner of this system of advanced weather satellites is a nimbus spacecraft scheduled to be launched into a polar orbit on Aug. 6, about a year later than planned.

In late 1965, the weather bureau and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration plan to inaugurate the Tiros operational satellite system. Two weather satellites will be launched into near-polar orbits and will then be turned so that they roll along their orbits like cartwheels.

Tiros cameras will operate when pointed directly at the earth below. The satellites are expected to photograpn the cloud cover over the entire earth every day and will also make infrared observations.

Assessment Protests Not Near Record

Sausalito residents have been protesting their property tax assessments, but not in record numbers.

There have been 269 protests filed so far, with the filing deadline at 5 p.m. today, County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel reported. He said the number of protests is higher than last year and the year before, but not as high as 1959, when more than 300 were filed.

"I haven't kept count, but about eight out of 10 protests have been from Sausalito," Broemmel said.

A flood of protests was expected from Sausalito this year after the assessed valuation was raised 54.9 per cent.

The Marin County board of supervisors, sitting as a board of equalization, has been hearing protests since July 15. More than 100 persons have been heard. The hearings are scheduled to continue until Aug. 10.

Frank A. Buffi, 58, of Santa Rosa, father of Ronald F. Buffi of San Rafael, drowned Saturday when his boat tipped over as he was fishing.

Buffi was fishing in a small pond in Healdsburg when he apparently caught a fish, moved to land it, and the boat tipped, throwing him and a companion into the water. His fishing pole was recovered, with a fish still hooked. His companion swam to shore.

Buffi owned Buffi's Tavern in Santa Rosa, and previously operated a restaurant and tavern in Healdsburg.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary C. Buffi, Santa Rosa; two daughters, Mrs. Flora Blackwell, Los Gatos, and Dawn Buffi, Santa Rosa, and his son, Ronald.

Court Ruling Puts Woman In U.S. Race

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Genevieve Blatt today became the Democratic Party's nominee for the U.S. Senate, more than three months after the Pennsylvania primary, when the State Supreme Court decided against counting about 6,000 so-called "wrong-line" ballots in Philadelphia.

She will meet incumbent Hugh Scott, Republican, in the fall.

Miss Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, had a lead of 460 votes, out of more than a million cast, over Justice Michael Musmanno of the Supreme Court before today's ruling.

Musmanno had a 1,200-vote edge in the "wrong-line" ballots, so the decision of his fellow justices—the justice himself did not participate—decided the question. The vote was 3-2.

The court merely handed down an order upholding a lower court decision not to count the ballots, saying an opinion would follow later.

Brawler Chooses Wrong Place To Start Fighting

Junior Edward Harris, 42, of Mountain View picked a poor place to start a ruckus last night and wound up in county jail because of it.

San Rafael police said Harris got into a fight with Kenneth Robert Calkins of 321-A Bay View Avenue, San Rafael, at the Mission Inn at 720 B Street — just 15 feet from where Officers Jack Loane and Arthur Myers were eating dinner.

The officers broke up the fight and arrested Harris for disturbing the peace.

He added to the charge before he could be booked into county jail by hitting Wyers twice and elbowing Loane, according to police reports. He landed behind bars booked for assaulting an officer as well as disturbance. Bail was set at $660.

Sheriff Named In Suit For Unlawful Arrest

The Marin County sheriff and a deputy sheriff have been named defendants in a $25,000 damage suit filed in Marin Superior Court and alleging unlawful arrest.

Vern L. Phillips, 39, of 38 Valley Road, Tomales, alleges he was arrested July 24, 1963, without warrant and without "probable cause" and detained 24 hours in the county jail.

Sheriff's records show Phillips was arrested for allegedly striking and stomping Louis L. Sanguinetti, a neighbor on Valley Road, after the latter told Phillips he was making too much noise with his motorcycle.

Defendants are Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Deputy William Christensen. The suit was filed Friday by attorney Arthur L. Lafranchi of Petaluma, representing Phillips.

Yen province in central Viet Nam.

A U.S. military spokesman said Vietnamese troops had killed 36 Viet Cong guerrillas and captured another in only one phase of the battle. The battle was fought seven miles northwest of the provincial capital town of Tuy Hoa, 235 miles northwest of Saigon.

Phu Yen was one of the quietest provinces until the Reds appeared in the coastal lowlands July 15, attacking in six places. The operation against them entered its second day today.

Khanh said the fresh American troops would be used as additional advisers on the battlefield together with local government and U.S. Army Special Forces troops. He said additional civilian advisers also had been promised.

Khanh said there would be an increase of equipment, such as transport planes and technicians for maintenance and communications.

Taylor and Deputy Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson flew to the mountain resort of Dalat for talks with the Vietnamese strongman. Khanh has been meeting there with his chief advisers for the last two days without announcing any reasons for the talks.

Who Can Relax After Being Hit By Flying Tires?

A funny thing happened to Dr. Adelaide Wyneken of 3 Manor Road, Kentfield, as she was driving to San Jose yesterday to attend a lecture on relaxation.

A huge balloon tire from a souped-up 1948-model car flew through her windshield and bounced out of her slow moving car through the open right-hand window, onto the highway. She was not hurt.

"I have been laughing about it today, but I am still shaking in my boots," she said.

The youthful driver of the car that threw its spare tire "was so apologetic after my harrowing experience," she said.

electorial votes by 67,000 popular votes, with Wayne County (Detroit) providing a margin of 379,000 edge. Detroit has 537,000 foreign-stock residents, including 106,700 Polish, 54,200 German and 33,000 Russian.

Maryland—Kennedy captured the state's nine electorial votes by 76,000, with Baltimore delivering a lead of 88,000. Baltimore has 139,000 foreign-stock residents, including 25,000 Russian, 23,000 German and 21,000 Polish.

Missouri—Kennedy won its 13 electorial votes by just under 10,000, with St. Louis providing a lead of 101,000. St. Louis has 105,700 foreign-stock residents, including 35,000 German, 13,000 Italian and 7,800 Irish.

Of the three target cities in states won by Nixon last time—Cleveland, Milwaukee and Los Angeles—the last-named is the most critical. Nixon barely won California's 32 electorial votes by 35,000 ballots. A key factor was the closeness in Democratic Los Angeles, where Kennedy won by only 21,000 Los Angeles has 807,000 residents of foreign ancestry.

The ethnic populations in each of the 10 cities have been under close study by the GOP national committee since 1961, when Ray Bliss, state chairman from Ohio, was asked to write a special report on the party's big-city problem.

Earlier this year, Rep. William E. Miller, then the GOP national chairman and now Goldwater's running mate, dusted off the Bliss report and circulated it among state and local GOP leaders. In an accompanying memo, Miller pointed out that New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Newark and Philadelphia can deliver as many electorial votes—156—as 13 southern states plus Oklahoma.

It is interesting to note that although Miller fed New York City into these equations, current thinking does not include New York as a main target city, in spite of the considerable unrest over the Harlem roits. The Democratic edge in 1960 in the city was a whopping 501,000, not counting Kennedy votes on the liberal party ticket.

Goldwater's ballyhooed "southern strategy" — which really is a Southern, Midwest, Rocky Mountain strategy — assumes that the senator can nibble Presidents Lyndon B. Johnson out of the White House by picking up 25 smaller states plus California, Illinois and Ohio.

But Republican strategists who have been working with the Bliss report are hopeful that their big-city strategy, plus the backlash and captive-nations issues, can also deliver Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Michigan and Missouri.

Admittedly not pictured in this rosy formula is the split in GOP ranks this year, a problem Nixon did not have. In the big Eastern states at least, failure to heal the liberal-conservative breach could hurt the Republican vote outside the big cities as well as in them, thus negating any gains among the ethnic groups.

Also, all these 10 big cities have significant Negro populations, and the GOP strategists realistically are not very hopeful in this area. But they seldom have gotten much more than 20 per cent of the Negro vote, and in 1960 that figure only dropped to 15 per cent. A hold-the-line effort is the hope here.

NOT LAUGHING—Teamster's Union boss James R. Hoffa, left, gets a reassuring pat on the arm from an aide as he leaves U.S. District Court in Chicago. There he and six co-defendants were convicted yesterday on charges of fraud in arranging loans from the union pension fund. Hoffa had little to say to reporters. (AP Wirephoto)

Hoffa, Aides Convicted In Union Fraud Trial

CHICAGO (AP) — A jury out for three days found Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa and six others guilty yesterday of a massive scheme to defraud a 280-million-dollar union pension fund.

Hoffa, a trustee of the pension fund, was convicted in U.S. District Court on four counts of fraud and conspiracy and faces 20 years in prison and an $11,000 fine.

Each codefendant was found guilty of at least one fraud charge and one of conspiracy.

The indictment included 20 mail fraud charges and one conspiracy charge.

The men specifically were convicted of fraudulently arranging more than 20 million dollars in loans from the pension fund and diverting more than 1 million dollars to their own use.

Atty. Geo. Robert F. Kennedy hailed the decision and complimented the jury and prosecutors in a statement from his summer home in Hyannis Port, Mass.

Hoffa faces a maximum sentence of $1,000 fine and five years of each of the fraud counts and $10,000 and five years on the conspiracy count.

It was Hoffa's fifth federal prosecution since 1957—and his second loss in six months. In February he was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $10,000 at Chattanooga, Tenn., for attempting to bribe a jury. He has appealed that conviction.

Judge Richard B. Austin set Aug. 17 for rulings on motions made immediately by defense attorneys for arrest of judgment, a directed verdict of acquittal despite the jury's findings, or a new trial.

One defendant, Benjamin Dranow, 56, a former Minneapolis businessman now serving a prison term for tax fraud, was returned to jail.

Besides Hoffa and Dranow, the defendants are: Samuel Hyman, Calvin Kevens and Abe I. Weinblatt of Miami Beach; Zachard Strate Jr. of New Orleans and S. George Burris of New York.

Herbert Burris of New York, son of George, was freed on a directed verdict during the trial.

Fairfax School Trustees Seeking Two New Sites

Members of the Fairfax School District board Saturday toured two prospective sites for the district's next two schools, then agreed it will take more than just a tour to decide where to build them.

They authorized Supt. Homer Sisk to conduct engineering studies of both sites, as well as a third which was not included in the tour because the board had not secured owners' permission to inspect it.

Sisk said the studies, which will cover such factors as soil quality and accessibility, should be completed by late August.

Surveys to determine each site's exact acreage will be included, Sisk said. Board members seek a site of 15 to 17 acres to permit building a junior high and another elementary school on it.

All three properties are in the area north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and West of Oak Manor Drive.

Seven members of the Fairfax Citizens Committee Study Group, which has worked with the board on finding possible sites, accompanied the board members and superintendent on the tour.

Fence Is Factor In Boy's Injury

A partly-transparent plastic screen fence on a Terra Linda corner was listed yesterday as a contributing factor to an accident in which a 7-year-old Terra Linda boy suffered a skull fracture and broken collarbone Saturday.

The California Highway Patrol said the fence, at Barberry Lane and Bamboo Terrace, apparently blocked the vision of milk truck driver Edward J. Barnes, 49, of Santa Rosa, as 7-year-old Palmer Thomas Knutson, son of Arthur Knutson of 639 Barberry Lane rode his bicycle into the front of the truck.

Owner of the fence, Everett Clippings, of 623 Bamboo Terrace, has agreed to move it back to eliminate the chance of future accidents, the patrol said.

County Moonlight Report Is Due

Marin County supervisors will get a report tomorrow on the number of county employees who are "moonlighting" and the type of extra work they are doing.

Supervisors, concerned that outside employment might conflict with county work, authorized County Adm. Alan Bruce to survey the situation.

Employees are holding jobs ranging from wood cutters and maintenance men to city treasurer of Fairfax.

Dorothy McGlothin, the city treasurer, was re-elected in April to her third term. She is employed by the county assessor's office.

The board also will receive an application from Television Communications Inc. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. for a permit to place television cable on existing utility poles in the Terra Linda, Marinwood and Santa Venetia area.

Arthur T. Knutson, assistant director of public works, recommended that if the permit is granted it "in no way shall be construed as giving the applicant the exclusive rights for the proposed installation in any of the unincorporated areas of Marin County."

Neither should it imply any franchise arrangement, Knutson recommended.

Other items on the board agenda are setting of a penalty against contractors working for the county who practice discrimination, a report from the regional water pollution control board on the discharge of sewage into Richardson Bay along the Sausalito waterfront and a Douglas J. Maloney on a proposed ordinance regulating the filling of San Francisco Bay.

The meeting will start at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center.

Barry Quoted On Policy Of Brinkmanship

BONN, Germany (AP) — A leading West German magazine says Sen. Barry Goldwater told one of its correspondents: "The only person who is respected is the one who clearly says — when necessary — that he is determined to go to extremes."

"That is a policy that your country and all successful countries have followed throughout the past thousand years," the Republican presidential candidate is quoted as telling Werner Holzer, a correspondent for the weekly magazine Revue.

In a statement issued in Washington, Goldwater said he had not given an interview to the German newsman — "He only asked me a few questions." Holzer said Sunday night he met Goldwater on July 4 at Prescott, Ariz., and told him he had been trying to get an appointment for an interview. He said the senator suggested they talk then and there.

Holzer wrote that Goldwater told him:

"My ideas for a successful American foreign policy correspond generally to the policy of the Eisenhower government and Secretary of State Dulles. You must always show yourself ready to throw in everything if you want to be respected and you are fighting for peace."

The report said Goldwater replied in the affirmative when Holzer asked him: "So a policy of 'up to the brink of war' as Secretary of State Dulles long held to be correct?"

Goldwater was also quoted as saying that differences with President Charles de Gaulle of France could be eased through efforts to meet de Gaulle "part way" in the Atlantic Alliance.

"Gen. de Gaulle is a great man and he governs a great country so I understand completely that he wants to play the role in world policy that he deserves." Goldwater was quoted as saying.

Watch Disappears As He Pays Bill

David Satinover set his wristwatch down when he went to pay the bill after a night of bowling.

That, he reported to San Rafael police later, was a mistake.

When he returned, the $250 watch was gone. So was a group who had been bowling at a nearby lane.

Satinover said the incident occurred about 1:30 a.m. yesterday at the Country Club Bowl, 88 Vivian Way.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

IT SAILED THROUGH THE AIR—Timothy M. Woerner's modified sports car sailed 25 feet through the air, hitting a tree more than 10 feet off the ground, before crashing upside-down into another tree beside shoreline Highway Saturday. Sports Car 'Test' Ends In A Smashup

A Sacramento youth's "test drive" of his modified sports car Saturday ended in a spectacular plunge over a West Marin embankment, causing near-fatal injuries for him and lesser ones for a Washington woman in another car.

Timothy M. Woerner, 20, was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a spinal fracture and head injuries.

The California Highway Patrol said Woerner apparently was "trying out" his 1957 Austin-Healy roadster, in which he had installed an American V-8 engine, on the curves and grades of Shoreline Highway.

Travelling at high speed, four miles south of Olema, the car spun and slid across the center line, its rear end side-swiping a sedan driven by Craig S. Nelson, 32, of Santa Rosa.

The roadster then leaped 25 feet through the air, sheared off a six-inch tree, brushed against another tree at a height of 10 or 15 feet, and smashed against a third one.

Woerner, thrown from the vehicle, was found 25 feet from the car, on the others ide of the third tree. When rescuers reached him, he was lying with his head downhill and his legs twisted in a barbed wire fence.

Measurements made by the patrol showed Woerner's car skidded 150 feet on the pavement and slid sideways another 75 feet before it left the ground.

A passenger in the second car, Ivy Nelson, 58, of Port Angeles, Wash., suffered minor injuries but was not treated.

Blood Trail Leads To Arrest After Machine Break-In

A 15-year-old San Rafael youth who left a trail of blood after he broke the glass of an apartment house cigarette machine was cited to juvenile authorities by San Rafael police for petty theft Saturday.

Police said the boy admitted breaking the glass in a washroom at 455 Canal Street.

A neighbor traced the trail of blood to another Canal Street apartment building, where swimmers at poolside told police they had seen a teen-age girl and two boys enter a car on the way to San Rafael General Hospital for treatment.

At the hospital, the boy was found receiving stitches on the little finger of his right hand. He told police he broke the glass to take cigarettes from the machine.

Flash Leads Firemen On Wild Chase

Growing weary of wild-goose chases for "explosions" that didn't happen, Belvedere and Tiburon authorities have appealed to boat owners not to shoot off bright fireworks over the waters of San Francisco Bay at night.

Police, deputies and firemen went on the latest such chase at 1 a.m. yesterday after someone reported seeing a bright flash in the air, followed by a loud noise.

Tiburon firemen said they soon received four or five calls on the "hot line," then were troubled through the day by other callers using the department's number for information calls.

A search of the area turned up no evidence of any damage, and investigators concluded it had once again been nothing more than a fireworks device shot up from a boat.

It was at least the third such report in two weeks. In appealing for an end to the time-wasting searches, firemen pointed out that it is illegal to possess, let alone detonate, such devices.

Gasoline Can Stolen

Calvin Hall reported to Mill Valley police at 7:27 a.m. yesterday the theft of a five-gallon gasoline can from his pickup truck parked in front of his house at 120 Sycamore Avenue. Hall said it was the second time this has happened and that the thief cut a strap to get the can.

Crosby Kidnap Planner Dies Of Cancer In Prison

San Quentin inmate Wilburn E. Davison, whose plan to kidnap Mrs. Bing Crosby in 1958 was foiled by his runaway niece, died last Saturday of cancer at the prison.

Davison planned to culminate a 29-year career of crime by including Kathy Crosby for $100,000 ransom with which to start a "legitimate business," according to him and his partner in the ill-fated venture, Eugene Kling.

The two intended to kidnap Mrs. Crosby, then expecting her first child, and hold her in a Los Angeles apartment under the care of Davison's 19-year-old niece. The pair followed Mrs. Crosby around for weeks to become accustomed to her habits, then saw their ingenious scheme destroyed when the niece hopped a bus back to Wewoka, Okla., and told a sheriff about it.

The plot was revealed later the same year when Davison was arrested for robbing a market in Lakewood, Los Angeles County, of $25,000. He was then sentenced to San Quentin for several life terms on four counts of robbery, two of kidnapping, and one of passing bad checks.

He was transferred to Chino last Sept. 24, and returned to San Quentin for treatment of his illness July 8.

Davison's body was released to the state for medical research by a brother in Oklahoma.

Youths Admit Thefts From Unlocked Cars

Two boys were cited to Marin County Probation Department, then released to their parents, last night by Mill Valley police after admitting they stole a jacket and a pair of gloves from two unlocked cars.

Police said the boys, a Mill Valley 15-year-old and a Palos Verdes 13-year-old, admitted stealing a jacket from a white Ford convertible parked at the Shell Service Station, East Blithedale and Sunnyside avenues and the gloves from an MG convertible parked at Millwood Street and Presidio Avenue. Police received a telephone call on one of the thefts and found the boys at Miller Avenue and Millwood.

What to do until an emergency happens

Emergencies have practically no sense of fair play. And almost always pick the worst possible time to happen.

People seem to prefer the day your insurance lapses to trip on your sidewalk, for example.

And the car usually waits until your bank account registers empty before demanding expensive repairs.

There's no fighting it. But you can be ready. By tucking away some reserve funds in Savings Bonds.

Bonds, themselves, are emergency proof. You can't lose the money you invest in them, even if fire, flood, robbers or plain carelessness causes you to lose the Bonds.

And when something expensive happens, you can just take them in to any bank and get yourself solvent again.

In the meantime, Uncle Sam uses your Bond dollars to handle other urgent matters, like taking care of your freedom.

Buy Bonds where you bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Get yourself really prepared and you might even discourage a few emergencies from ever happening.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity (7¼ years)
- You can get your money when you need it
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- You pay no state or local tax and can defer payment of federal tax until the Bonds are cashed

Youth Killed After Leap From Bridge

A 23-year-old San Francisco man was killed when he jumped from the north tower of the Golden Gate Bridge at 6 a.m. yesterday.

The body of Richard Heron Gillespie Jr., who had graduated from Claremont Men's College in Los Angeles County, was removed from the rocks 200 feet below the tower by Marin County Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

"Dear Mother," the young bachelor wrote in a note found in his bedroom by Mrs. Audrey Gillespie, widow of General Motors Corp. executive Richard H. Gillespie, "Everything I have done has been a lie.

"Everything Dad did was a lie. I must do away with myself before I cause further harm to people."

His mother said he had not been feeling well recently and was concerned that he possibly was a burden to her.

Mrs. Gillespie had awakened her son early yesterday so he could attend a Coast Guard Reserve meeting.

He left their apartment hurriedly, telling her he was going to get some gasoline. Concerned about his hasty departure, Mrs. Gillespie went to his bedroom, where she found the note on a dresser.

She called the police at 6:05 a.m. and a description of the young man's small tan foreign sedan was broadcast to the Highway Patrol by 6:09 a.m.

Officers found the abandoned car, its headlights on and the key in the ignition, near the tower.

Authorities said Gillespie's death was the 266th known suicide from the bridge.

After the age of 6, fewer females drink milk on an average day than males.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Human Deep-Freeze Proposal May Give Immortality To Man

VAN DELLEN

Predictions are a dime a dozen but rarely does a person suggest a plan to follow should his prediction come true. Robert C. W. Ettinger believes medical science eventually should be able to repair almost any damage to the human body, including common disorders that cause death.

These include heart attacks, cancer, senile debility, smallpox, and other diseases. Those who inhabit the earth at that time might be blessed with immortality.

IT IS HERE that Professor Ettinger proposes a plan that might benefit our present generation. The body of today's man must be preserved indefinitely after death in such a way that he can be revived, cured of his fatal condition, and rejuvenated if necessary by the superscientist of the future. He tells how this might be accomplished in his book, "The Prospect of Immortality" (Doubleday & Co., New York, 1964).

The professor's optimistic views on this subject are within the realms of possibility. In his opinion, the body will be preserved by freezing. We have a crude technique at present but improvements will be needed to provide suspended death.

VARIOUS TISSUES have been frozen and revived in the laboratory. Sperm endure the low temperatures of liquid nitrogen for some months without losing their ability to reproduce. Perhaps this chilly hibernation can be accomplished through the use of liquid helium for extremely low temperatures and glycerol to protect the cells from freezing damage. Profesor Ettinger discusses at length our present knowledge of those techniques.

The remainder of the book is a followup on what to expect if his deepfreeze method should be adopted. The ways proposed for the repair and rejuvenation of the revived body are still in the science fiction stage. From this point on, he considers the moral, legal, and economic aspects, including the embarrassing problem of coming back to three wives.

ALL I CAN SAY is, the plan will be a miserable blot on the history of mankind if freezing fails to preserve our sense of humor.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

NO TEARS

C. D. J. writes: My 83-year-old aunt has not been able to shed tears for 10 years. She keeps on saying, "If I could only cry." Why is it she cannot do so?

REPLY

A person ought to be able to get satisfaction from crying, even though no tears are shed. Those who lack tears complain of dry eyes rather than, "if I could only cry."

SUPPORTIVE HOSE

D. C. L. writes: I have heard that elastic stockings help the person with arthritic knees but they might cause phlebitis. Are they a help or a menace?

REPLY

A help. They were devised as a treatment for phlebitis and other venous disorders. These stockings also lend some support to arthritic knees, and thus relieve distress.

BREATHING IS AFFECTED

H. D. writes: You said in a recent article that emphysema cripples. What do you mean?

REPLY

The victim of this lung disease may become so short of breath he cannot walk across the room without puffing and coughing.

FLUIDS PERMITTED

L. M. writes: Are liquids with meals restricted on a reducing diet?

REPLY

No, and water is as low caloric as you can possibly get.

Boy's Party Turns Into Big Brawl

PALO ALTO (AP)—A weekend party at the home of 19-year-old Jerry Cannon erupted last night into a brawl between 18 police officers and 30 to 40 party guests and crashers.

Two young men were arrested. A third escaped after having a handcuff snapped on one wrist.

Young Cannon said he had invited a few friends in while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cannon, were on a vacation trip in Los Angeles.

A fight started after several carloads of young men dropped in and joined the party.

Neighbors called police when the fighting moved into Waverly Street.

As soon as Officers Lee Casey and William Kirkpatrick arrived on the scene, they radioed for reinforcements. Sixteen more officers responded.

The officers said they were pushed, shoved and clubbed with pieces of board as they tried to break up the melee and make arrests.

Several officers suffered bumps and bruises but none required hospital treatment.

Raymond Roman, 20, of Palo Alto was at Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital for cuts and booked for hitting an officer, resisting arrest and disturbing the peace.

Richard Bodenschatz, 20, of Palo Alto, also was charged with hitting an officer, resisting arrest, and disturbing the peace.

Bagley Names Eight To Central Committee

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) today announced the names of eight Republicans he has appointed to the State Republican Central Committee.

Bagley's appointees are as follows:

Mrs. H. Lee Sherry of Fairfax, who is now state women's vice chairman; Mrs. Paul Kelly of Santa Rosa; Mrs. Genevieve Grundstrom of Novato; Charles Leminager, Santa Rosa city councilman; Charles Michals of Kentfield, president of the Marin Republican Council; Peter Johnson of Mill Valley; Robert Finche, Los Angeles attorney who was national campaign chairman for Richard M. Nixon, and Harry Keaton, Los Angeles attorney who was president of the California Young Republicans four years ago.

"I have appointed two Los Angeles people, outside the district, and many of my colleagues have made comparable appointments outside of their own districts this year," Bagley said. "This was done to provide a continuing place in the party for many statewide Republican leaders who otherwise would have been left out of the party structure this year."

State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) released the list of his eight appointments last week.

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City), congressman from the First District, is completing his appointees. Raymond E. Paschke, Clausen's field representative, said the list should be completed by the end of this week.

These appointees to the Republican State Central Committee, 1,030 in all from throughout the state, will meet in Sacramento this weekend to elect new officers.

Fight At Dance Lands Mill Valley Youth In Jail

Patrick Smith, 18, of 126 Sunnyside Avenue, Mill Valley, was jailed Saturday night on charges of disturbing the peace and resisting arrest after a fight with a 17-year-old Mill Valleyan.

Officers Douglas Stone and Herbert Aceret of Mill Valley police were at the Mill Valley Youth Council dance at the Municipal Golf Clubhouse where they cited a 15-year-old Tiburon boy to the probation department on a charge of dunkenness. They were told there was a fight in progress in the card room at 11:44 p.m.

Smith, said police, was arrested after he refused to stop fighting and refused to accompany officers out of the building.

Special Session

Directors of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District will meet in special session at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Trestle Glen Treatment Plant to discuss planning for the district's growth.

Send me a new trumpet
Address: Anchorage, Alaska

Robert Atwood, Alaska newspaperman and amateur musician, had just put his trumpet to his lips when the earthquake hit. Running outside, he found himself on the ground, arm and trumpet buried shoulder-deep in rubble. To extricate his arm, he had to surrender the trumpet.

One trumpet: a small loss. Perhaps.

The earthquake damage was confined, fortunately, to limited areas. Alaskans are fighting back. Engineering tests are being made to locate safe sites for rebuilding. Materials and equipment are pouring in. Despite a short building season, Alaskans plan to have rebuilding well along by Christmas. Ambitious — but very Alaskan!

Alaskans are going about their jobs. In damaged areas, merchants are supplying their customers. Schools, hotels and public services are functioning. Alaska's splendid visitor attractions and accommodations are open and inviting.

Standard, too, lost heavily, but our service did not stop. Within hours of the earthquake, our products were supplying heat and energy to distressed communities. Today, even as we rebuild, they supply energy for Alaska's reconstruction. We've served Alaska almost 80 years. We intend to go forward.

Bob Atwood's impatience to have a new trumpet is symbolic of all Alaskans' determination to recover life's amenities. They came north-by-west to build that life in their Big Land. They mean to get on with it.

Their courage and optimism make all Americans walk ten feet tall.

Boy Found, Unharmed In Yosemite Search

YOSEMITE (AP) — "I was worried some of the time, but I was never scared," said a 10-year-old city boy who survived eight days without food in a rugged wilderness area of Yosemite National Park.

"I thought someone would find me. I knew they were looking for me when I saw a helicopter fly overhead."

Once-chubby John Ireland Jr. of Los Angeles lived on water and his own body fat as he wandered in the mountainous terrain where nighttime temperatures ranged in the high 30s.

He lost 15 pounds during the ordeal — his weight dropped from 103 to 86 — but doctors said his condition was good.

"It's amazing," said one doctor. "He had nothing but water. The boy is talking, and you'd hardly know he had taken a hike."

Young John wandered away from his family's trailer at Harden Lake campsite July 13 wearing only a thin T-shirt, jeans and leather shoes.

Rangers Gil Hall and Jim Reilly found his Saturday afternoon about three miles from the camp. About 350 men had joined in an air and ground search. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ireland had lost hope and were getting ready to break camp and return home when they learned that little John had been found.

"I'm hungry," were his first words to his parents. The boy had lost so much weight that he had to hold his pants up.

"He used to be pudgy," said Mrs. Ireland, "but we won't have to worry about his little pot belly now."

Young John told of his adventure from a bed in Lewis Memorial Hospital in Yosemite.

"As soon as I knew I was lost, I sat down and started making plans for getting home," he said. "I was worried some of the time, but I was never scared.

"The worst part of it was the cold at night and the mosquitos."

Senate Demos Are Hoping To Pass Aid Bill This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders hope to hand President Lyndon B. Johnson another victory this week by passing his 3.4-billion-dollar foreign aid authorization bill without major changes.

But their chances of matching last week's performance, when they put through the administration's high-priority antipoverty bill, are threatened by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

Morse, who has been gunning for the bill for weeks, has a flock of amendments ready, aimed at trimming it by 466 million dollars. He says it could take a week to dispose of them.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, predicts passage this week without any "crippling cuts."

Before it can get into the foreign aid fight the Senate must dispose of a resolution growing out of the investigation of the financial dealings of Bobby Baker, former secretary to the Senate Democrats. The resolution would require senators and Senate employees to make annual disclosures of their incomes.

Twelve women have completed the first class in a program designed to upgrade Marin County Negro workers' chances of finding jobs.

The graduates, trained at Hansell's Business School in San Rafael, are being placed by the state department of employment with the help of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. The course included typing, bookkeeping, mathematics, business English and other subjects.

In a related program, the chamber has aided the department in placing nearly 400 students for summer jobs. Interested employees may contact the employment office or the chamber.

Legislators, Look Close At Parks Highway Veto

Should the State Park Commission have veto power over the State Highway Commission in matters relating to the routing of state highways through state parks?

Charles A. Deturk, director of the State Department of Parks and Recreation, thinks so. He is asking the legislature to grant this power.

On the face of it, this looks like it may be a good idea.

But let's look closer.

Most of our Giant Redwood state parks along the Redwood Highway sit astride main roads that were main routes before the parks were established.

It would not make sense to give the parks commission power to prevent improvement of a prior existing state highway through a park. Even as old established parks must be improved and expanded to meet increasing demands for their use, so must old established highways.

Now let's look ahead.

If the park commission has highway veto power, could the Redwood Highway ever be completed to parkway or freeway standards through Humboldt or Del Norte Counties?

No matter what route is advanced to by-pass existing state parks, the Redwood Highway cannot traverse Humboldt or Del Norte without crossing or passing through Redwood tree forests.

Most of these are still in private ownership.

But the foes of any route—and every route these days has its last-ditch opponents—have only to get hold of a block of land along the route and deed it to the state for state park use, thereby giving the parks commission veto power over the route.

The net effect of this is to take the question of highway routing away from the highway commission and turn it over to a body without any special qualifications in the field.

As we see it, Director Deturk's proposal is loaded with hazards worse than the problems it aims to solve. We hope the legislature takes a long, careful, thorough look before acting.

When Is A Jay A Blue Jay?

We recently started a minor controversy by calling our common California Jay a Blue Jay. Perhaps we were wrong, as several letters pointed out. We have the books, too, with all the scientific names.

But we doubt that our little nature editorials are read much by the scientists. Their purpose is to entertain and inform the general public about the oddities and beauties of nature in Marin and we claim no special expertise.

We seldom give scientific names and rarely depend on observations other than our own. The California Jay is blue, so we, like many people, called it a Blue Jay.

We won't argue about it. We were wrong and we knew better. Besides, we'd rather discuss something vital, like, maybe, how many angels can sit on the head of a pin.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Ovation For Ike At Convention In Honor Of Former President

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

FORMER PRESIDENT Dwight D. Eisenhower, who refused to come out in support of either Barry Goldwater or William Scranton at the convention, drew a standing ovation at the Cow Palace.

But the applause was more in honor of Ike as former president and wartime general than for what he was doing for the Republican cause in the bitter nomination fight.

He cut quite a contrast with men like Nelson Rockefeller, who went down swinging in the face of boos and jeers. You can't help but admire a man who takes a strong stand in the face of overwhelming odds.

OTHER CONVENTION notes keep trickling in.

Probably no one from Marin got as many souvenirs as did Roy Rhodes of San Rafael. Here is a partial inventory of Rhodes' collection:

Six white seat covers from the chairs of delegates; a can of Gold Water, advertised as "the right drink for the conservative taste"; and a host of autographs from men like Charles Halleck, Rockefeller, Sen. John Tower, Sen. Hugh Scott, Richard Nixon, Thruston Morton, and even one from Roy Wilkins of NAACP.

The California delegation had everything—unity, discipline, weight of numbers, and even Kilroy was there. Delegate John B. Kilroy of Newport Beach.

NANCY KING HAYDEN of San Rafael, who worked with the CBS television news team during the convention, came back with enough anecdotes to fill a whole column.

She was loaded down with badges, passes and buttons to get by the army of guards that stood at every door. You had to have passes for everything—red pass, blue pass, white pass, then a purple one. Things got so confusing that she once waved her car parking ticket at a guard, and it worked!

She shared some potato chips with the wife of Mill Valley's James Walker and bumped into camera-laden Jim Kean of the I-J and commentator Walter Cronkhite.

"Extricated a couple of creepie-peepie camera boys from a tangle with the curtains. It's hard for them to maneuver with the men-from-Mars antenna they carry. I understand they also cause quite a panic when they enter the washrooms."

AS YOU MAY know, it was rough to get any kind of a pass into the Cow Palace. But if there's a will, there's a way. One young fellow from the I-J, who wasn't fortunate enough to get a pass via the local paper, managed to slip inside.

"How'd you make it?" we asked in wonderment. And he flashed credentials showing he was accredited from the Kansas City Star.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"Since that 'sensation-seeking' Eisenhower attacked the press, it's become a dangerous profession!"

20 YEARS AGO

The National War Labor Board has set up a tri-partite panel in Marin County. Edward A. Culver, plumber's union secretary, was AFL representative on the committee.

A Fairfax resident and a Coast Guard man at Bolinas lost all gasoline ration privileges for the duration of the war, by action of the San Rafael Ration Board. The Fairfax man, who allegedly obtained a "C" sticker by claiming to operate a car pool to Marinship, was spotted driving in Reno; the Coast Guardsman allegedly falsified his paper to obtain an extra ration.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Gettysburg Park Visiting Hours

Editor Independent Journal:

A clipping from your editorial page of June 27, signed by Jack Craemer, has been mailed to me. The final item of the clipping has to do with hours of closing of the Gettysburg Visitor Center.

Because I once lived in San Rafael and have great affection for the town, I am privately as well as officially hurt by these accusations against the National Park operation here. Therefore, this rebuttal.

By way of background, all superintendents of all National Parks are under standing instructions to keep their visitor centers open for as many hours as possible, every day of the year. Our Service is very conscious of owing the taxpayers a maximum use of these facilities they have paid for.

The situation at Gettysburg hinges on those two words "as possible", used above. It is not possible to keep open a mammoth establishment such as this Visitor Center without employees. By my estimate, we could not open the doors with fewer than five persons in attendance on the public. We have enough people on the payroll to run the building ten hours a day, seven days a week—but we do not have a second shift, or even part of a shift, to function after 6 p.m. in the Visitor Center.

Your writer is incorrect, however, is saying that we are not on the job after that hour. Park rangers are on patrol into the small hours, trying to ward off vandalism, to control excessive speeds on Park roads, to protect the Government's property, etc. Park historians also operate a campfire program each evening in the summer, ending about 10 p.m.; last year some 13,000 visitors enjoyed this service. We do not need to apologize for our efforts in these closing hours of the day; every man-hour that is our to employ is put to good use.

Your writer is surely aware that the Federal Government has been successfully holding the line against increases in Government payrolls, seeking to keep down costs and ease the burden to the taxpayer. This is the reason why we do not employ a second shift of people for the Gettysburg Visitor Center, much though we would like to accommodate the public through the evening hours. Our neighbors here in commercial establishments, have no problem: if the traffic will pay for the extended hours of operation, then it is simple enough to employ extra people and to make money fourteen hours a day instead of eight.

Have I demonstrated to your satisfaction that this Park is not being run for the "comfort and convenience of Government employees"? If I have, I feel that you owe the National Park Service a retraction of that ugly comment contained in the second paragraph of Mr. Craemer's complaint. How do you feel about it?

Sincerely yours,

KITTRIDGE A. WING

Party Should Come Second

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am 22 years of age and voting the first time in a national election.

To me, the party comes second as far as the betterment of our country is concerned. Mediocre politicians seem to be selected to serve in high places for reasons we all know. After seeing pictures of Senators Dirkson and Keating in the S. F. Chronicle dated July 22, and reading their statements that they would not support Goldwater but would remain Republicans, one does not have to go far to understand what these people stand for and who they serve. They don't have enough guts to say yes or no. Their faces prove that.

A man of the caliber of Governor Hatfield of Oregon is by-passed and not even considered as the Republican standard bearer. It is time for the American people to have their say who the presidential candidates will be. Let's keep everything on top of the table and not in smoke-filled hotel rooms where the actual convention takes place.

The candidate who elects to help the majority of Americans if they want to help themselves gets my little vote. Let's get rid of hate and the stimulators of hate.

JANET TRUSDALE

(For the record, Senator Dirksen nominated Goldwater and is a vigorous supporter of the GOP candidate; nobody who knows him ever accused him of lack of guts. In the California primary election the people spoke; they voted for Goldwater.—Editor)

Traffic Deaths Are Compared

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Looking through some National Safety Council statistics, I noticed these:

Traffic Deaths in 1962 for California—4,104; Connecticut—320. Traffic Deaths in 1963 for California—4,318; Connecticut—335.

More people in California? Let's take a look at the death rates:

Per 100,000 Population — California—24.5; Connecticut—12.6.

More cars in California? That's true, now let's look at the vehicle mileage death rates:

Per 100,000,000 Vehicle Miles—California—5.0; Connecticut—2.8.

Comparisons are always odious. I hold no brief for Connecticut, but I have a few questions:

(1) What is Connecticut doing that we in California are not? (2) Should we try to find out? (3) If California achieved the same traffic death rate as Connecticut, wouldn't some 2,000 Californians a year be saved? (Since the Connecticut death rate is about one-half of California—any way you look at it.)

Two more easy-to-remember figures. The State of Connecticut collects $50,000 per day and the State of California collects $1,100,000 per day in gasoline taxes.

The above information may provide you with some basis for discussion with our highway safety engineers. (Or you may wish to prepare your own editorial or comment.)

L. F. CZUFIN

(But the number of miles per year per auto is considerably less in Connecticut.—Editor)

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A FABLE FOR our times: A man lived by the side of a road selling hamburgers and weenies. He was hard of hearing, so he had no radio. He also had trouble with his eyes, so he read no newspapers. But his hamburgers and weenies were wonderful, so he did a landoffice business.

At the peak of the season, his son came home from college, and was shocked to hear that he had ordered a bigger stove and cash register to take care of his thriving business. "Pop," cried the son, "haven't you heard? The country is in a serious recession. Things are going to pot!"

The father reasoned, "My son is a senior at college. He reads the papers. He knows what the experts are saying. He must know what's what."

So he cancelled the order for the new equipment, took down his electric sign, and fired the cook. His business fell off 50 per cent in two weeks.

"You sure were correct," the father told his son. "We're in a recession all right. I never would have known it if you hadn't told me!"

AN OPINIONATED mother, when her son went off for his first day in school, sent along this note: "The opinions expressed by this child are not necessarily those of his mother's side of the family."

Supreme Court Opens Doors To Double Revolution In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has opened the doors to a double revolution in American life—and given it a new sense of justice — by stepping into a vacuum in race and politics.

The vacuum was created by the failure of the democratic process to wipe out two injustices which the ruling forces—white majorities and politicians—sought to ignore.

The court has angered many with its willingness to act where all held back. But the alternative was to let the democratic process decay, which would have been a confession of democratic failure and national impotence.

THE FIRST revolution began just over 10 years ago when the court on May 17, 1954, declared the principle of racial segregation unconstitutional by outlawing segregation in public schools.

The second revolution began with three decisions — one in 1962, two this year—that elections to state legislatures and the House in Congress must be made more democratic by trying to give all voters an equal voice.

The court has been accused of usurping power. If Congress thought so, it would have tried to curb the court. It did not. Instead, it accepted as law what the court did and has sought to conform to it.

THUS TO THE rest of the world, not entangled in American politics or its racial prejudices, the court stands as an expression of the national democratic conscience at the very moment this country seeks to be a democratic symbol.

While the Civil War freed the Negro, it never in practice made him equal to the white man. The Supreme Court blessed the inequality by making it an official part of American life with its separate-but-equal decision of 1896.

This said Negroes could be segregated so long as the treatment they got was equal to that given white people. The treatment became increasingly unequal, particularly in the South but in the North, too.

THE NATION had more than half a century then in which, through its democratic processes, to remove the injustice, but it sat back unwilling to move even though the rest of the world, with the colonial peoples freed, was rushing through one of the most revolutionary moments in all history.

It was the court, not Congress, which in 1954 finally said an end to unequal treatment of citizens. If the court had not acted, there was no indication Congress would have acted for another half century.

For the first 60 years of this century American politicians largely ignored that other priceless American possession: full enjoyment of all citizens of the democratic process, meaning equal representation.

WHY? BECAUSE these politicians would not yield power. In those 60 years there had been vast shifts in populations from cities to suburban areas.

Although state constitutions required reapportionment every 10 years or so to provide more or less equal voter representation, state politicians ignored their constitutions, did nothing.

Finally, the court stepped in and ordered states to redistrict according to population to give their citizens a more equal say in electing state senators and representatives and members of the House in Congress.

Without this action by the court, the voting inequality could have continued another half century.

Ethnic Group Vote May Go Goldwater

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is receiving blunt advice from Democratic Party leaders on one of his growing political problems—the defection of ethnic group voters to GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Aroused by private polls showing shifts of 10 to 20 per cent among Polish-American voters in the big Eastern and Midwestern cities, Sen. Thomas Dodd (D-Conn.), Speaker John McCormack (Mass.) and Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley have privately called on the president to take a tougher stand on the two major issues affecting these nationality groups.

THEY WARNED the president that he must publicly support a stronger stand against continued Communist expansion and control over the Eastern European satellites.

In one White House meeting, Senator Dodd, a long-time political ally, frankly told the president that if the administration's policy of seeking "accommodations" with the Soviet Union isn't shelved, it could cost him the election.

"Goldwater's charge that administration is seeking peace with Russia at the expense of the people in Eastern Europe is having as much impact on the nationality groups as the backlash from civil rights," reported Dodd.

"The polls are beginning to show this," agreed the president. "You have always been a strong anti-Communist. Nobody can accuse you of being soft. What do you recommend I do to counteract this development?"

"I would be just as tough on the Communists as Goldwater," replied Dodd. "And I would begin by shelving the policy of seeking accommodations with the Soviet Union. This could be done by inserting a strong plank in the platform opposing Communist aggression throughout the whole world."

"IF I DID THAT, would they accuse me of junking Kennedy's foreign policy?" asked the president. "Any major changes in policy would have all the liberals on my back."

"They don't want Goldwater elected," said Dodd.

"You go ahead and draft a strong plank, and I'll circulate it among my foreign policy advisers to see what happens," concluded the president.

Later, Speaker McCormack and Mayor Daley followed up Dodd's conference with meetings with the president in which they made the same foreign policy recommendations.

THE NEWLY-ERECTED memorial to Taras Shevchenko, 19th Century Ukrainian poet and freedom fighter, is becoming a major symbol of the growing differences between the Johnson administration and Republican leaders on policies dealing with Russia and Eastern Europe.

At the historic unveiling of the Shevchenko statue here, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower stirred a crowd of more than 80,000 with a speech that harked back to the "liberation" proposals of the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Highlight of the Eisenhower speech came when he told the leaders of the most influential groups of Ukrainians, Poles and Hungarians in America that:

"My hope is that your march from the shadow of the Washington Monument to the foot of the statue of Shevchenko will kindle a new world movement in the hearts, minds."

THE TOWN is really talking politics," said Mill Valley cabbie Bob Robertson. "About five out of seven are going to vote against him (Goldwater), and this is a Republican town," he said. Robertson added that the Negro maids are very sure of their vote.

The Duchess of Throckmorton Avenue, that is, Blanche Newby, had a big event last week. Her century plant bloomed, after an estimated 60 years. Rather unimpressed, the Duchess said, "It looks like a 20-foot stalk with hat racks."

You don't dare leave clothing on the line overnight at the Herb Acerets. The other night, according to Aceret, a racoon swiped a pair of green levis belonging to his son, Rich, 13, which had been pinned to the line.

A TIBURONER, who rescued four people when a boat exploded recently in Belvedere, broke his boat's screw in so doing. Applying to his insurance company for recompense, he was told, "Well, did you pick up any salvage?" He said, no, just the four people, one of them being the owner. Sorry, they said, we can't pay anything for that — only for salvage.

The story of the earless, tailless monster on Mount Tamalpais has picked up two new theories: George E. Holmboe, supervisor, Mount Tamalpais State Park, said someone advised him the monster may be a buffalo (American bison), which may have escaped from a herd at Nicasio.

Joe Zapella, Marin Municipal Water District man of the mountain, is sure that the two young men who were waiting at Rifle Camp for their ship to Australia were "so darned hungry that they had delusions." But there will probably be no more wild animal stories for awhile. "The two young men have left for Australia," said Joe.

Big Day In Life Of Youngster Who Had Never Caught A Fish

RANDY ROBERTSON, 13, Sausalito, former Marin Cerebral Palsy Poster Boy, went fishing the other day at the Ondine Dock with his brothers, Mike and Jimmie, and a pal, John Pedersen. Randy, the story is, never caught a fish in his life.

John's dad, also fishing, asked Randy to hold his line and a stingray hit it. Randy didn't know it because the line went way out. Then all of a sudden he was going up in the air off the dock. John's dad grabbed the pole and, about 30 minutes later, together they hauled in the 80-pounder.

Traffic was stopped on Bridgeway, people got out of cars and took pictures and Randy got the award -- the four-inch barb of the stingray.

Then, the line was thrown out again, and Randy hooked a four-foot leopard shark. He reeled this one in, getting it on the dock, hand over hand with a little aid, and then he dove on the shark. "You would have thought he was Cassius Clay winning the championship," said John's dad.

THE FOUNTAIN was running green in Sausalito's Vina Del Mar Plaza last week. "It's that new water, called green water," said John Minton.

Peter Laufer, 14, editor of the Sausalito Sun, which was first published under some labor troubles at Bayside School, used American ingenuity to attend the GOP convention. He also used his own press card his father had printed for him, reading: "Sausalito Sun."

Before the convention he got past a Pinkerton guard with his card to hear Goldwater speak at the Hilton Hotel. There he got a badge which got him into the Cow Palace Monday. Tuesday he made it with aid of a San Mateo sheriff's deputy. Wednesday he missed the press bus but met Jean Cloutier, French correspondent for the Canadian Broadcasting Corp., who took him to the Cow Palace in a taxi and got him through the gate with a waving of arms and a torrent of French indicating he was going to interview Peter.

On the final day Peter got past the first guard but not

ART BUCHWALD

Do We Make Household Pets Nervous Or Are We Victims?

WASHINGTON—We read the other day that a psychiatrist had just completed a study on pets in the home and had discovered that neurotic families had neurotic pets. That is to say, the pets became neurotic.

The psychiatrist said he had studied dogs, cats, parakeets, and other pets and he noticed that they all tended to take on the characteristics of their masters. If the dog was nervous, the master was nervous; if the mother screamed, the parrot screamed, and so forth.

As the father of a rabbit, two hamsters, and a canary, we were very interested in the report and we tried to fit it into our particular situation.

FOR EXAMPLE, the day after we read the report, we heard our wife screaming, "How many times do I have to ask you people to come to dinner?"

"Hush, mother," we said, "you're making the canary nervous."

"I don't care about the canary. I want everybody at the dinner table when dinner is ready."

The canary started flying back and forth across the cage.

"YOU SEE," we said, "you have made the canary neurotic."

"I haven't made the canary neurotic," she said. "That canary was neurotic when we got him."

"That's not true," we said. "According to a distinguished psychiatrist, household pets become neurotic only in neurotic homes."

Just then our 9-year-old daughter arrived with one of her hamsters.

"How many times have I told you not to bring your hamster to the table?" our wife said.

The hamster started to quiver.

"YOU SEE," we said, "the hamster is filled with anxieties."

"Are you trying to say I'm neurotic because I don't like to eat with a hamster?" our wife said.

"All I'm telling you is what the psychiatrist found out. There must be something to it. We have a canary who won't sing, two hamsters who quiver every time you get near them, and a rabbit who just sits in the corner all day and doesn't say anything."

Our 10-year-old son arrived at the table.

"Have you been playing with the rabbit?" our wife demanded.

He said, "Yes."

"Then go wash your hands. I've told you a million times."

THE CANARY started scratching on the cage.

"There," we said, "don't tell me that canary is happy."

"Has it ever occurred to your psychiatrist expert that household pets can make people neurotic?" our wife said.

"It isn't possible."

"Then why am I quivering?" she demanded.

"Do you think it's possible that you've taken on the characteristics of the children's pets?"

"I don't really know," she said, scratching her nose against the canary's cage.

"Mother," we cried, "you've made medical history."

OFFICE AND WAREHOUSE BUILDING COMPLETED

Now ready for leasing is the new redwood and exposed aggregate building of the D. M. Christensen Construction Co. at 4280 Redwood Highway opposite the Northgate Shopping Center. First occupant of the warehouse facility in the building was Carlson's Express Moving and Storage at the left. Front space will accommodate 12 suites suitable for business or professional offices. An important feature is the installation of a new type of heat pump allowing individual temperature control within each suite. Bushnell, Jessup, Murphy and Van de Weghe were the designers. Landscaping was by Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck. Redwood Realtors, San Rafael is the leasing agent.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

Former Smith Building Filling Up; Pool, Linoleum Firm Installed

Former quarters of L. C. Smith Building Supplies vacated at Irwin Street and Woodland Avenue, San Rafael are filling up rapidly.

Diamond Pool Co., previously at 144 Woodland Avenue, has taken over at 427 Irwin, thereby gaining much more space for pool accessories. Strand Carpet and Linoleum Installation Service, previously at 914 Irwin, has moved into number 429. At the last check there was still a small corner of the building not yet occupied.

MARIN BOAT HOUSE, now at 345 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, hopes to get into its new location this week on the east service road along the Redwood Highway in Greenbrae—depending on whether George Bertram finishes the new building he is constructing there. Marin Boat House will have a dock on Corte Madera Creek, and probably a lunching ramp later.

COMMERCIAL WELDER John Frank Giari of Novato is having a new 4,000-square foot building erected adjoining his present shop at 878 Vallejo Avenue. Larry Vantrease is the contractor. Giari's quarters will occupy half of the building—still larger than what he has now—and the balance will be leased. It should be ready sometime next month.

A NEW PARTNERSHIP to mill and supply doors, sash and windows for large construction jobs like the Golden Gateway in San Francisco and others has been formed by three corporations—Snoqualamie Corp., Mar-Jay Corp. and the newly incorporated Clear Water Enterprises of Howard Collins, Greenbrae. It will be known as Milcon, and divorce the Hopac Corp. (doing business as Twin Cities Lumber Co., San Rafael—under Collins' management) from this operation.

Incidentally, Collins tells me that the Christmas tree farm on the Point Reyes Peninsula will definitely be absorbed in the Point Reyes National Seashore project. The government likes the idea of having all the Christmas trees on the property and would like to see more planted. But they'll never be harvested for the Yuletide now.

GEORGE DEXTER, San Rafael Rambler dealer and big game hunter is off on another trip—this time to the Yukon. He hopes to bring back a couple of prime specimens of big horn sheep to display in his showrooms when he returns in three or four weeks. Any more trophies here and he might as well make the place a museum—moving his cars across the street to Annex Motors. Or else move out the Alaskan bears.

Incidentally, we understand that Ronald Goode, who was sales manager here and recently departed, did so because he secured an American Motors dealership of his own in Alameda.

DAVID B. SHIPPEY of Kentfield, vice president and controller of Di Giorgio Fruit Corp., has been elected to the board of directors and appointed to the board's executive committee. Shippey is also a vice president and director of S&W Fine Foods, Inc., largest Di Giorgia subsidiary. He joined the parent firm as controller in 1959 and was elected a vice president last year. He was formerly with Price Waterhouse and Co.

Food company director

TWO MARIN advertising men who had their own agencies have merged to form one company. Oliver F. Smith of Sausalito and Byron Reynolds of Mill Valley will be known in the field hereafter as Smith*Reynolds Advertising, with offices at 44 Market Street, San Francisco. The new agency opens with a combined client list of 23 consumer, industrial and technical accounts, including such firms as City of Paris, A. Lietz Co., Whittlesey, Power and Cameron and Dohrmann Instruments Co.

Blue Chip Weakness Pulls Down Average

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed lower today as late weakness in blue chips pulled down the averages. Trading was moderately active.

The list was mixed for most of the session with selected issues showing strength.

Brokers set the weakness down to general profit-taking on the market's recent upthrust.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.3 million shares compared with 4.22 million on Friday.

Control Data, up nearly 4 points, responded to news of its 3-for-2 stock-split proposal and was pacing the list on volume.

Pure Oil, up a fraction, and Chrysler, unchanged, also were active.

Gains of a point or more were made by Lockheed, Richardson Merrell, United Biscuit, Universal Oil Products and Richfield Oil.

Both the common and preferred of Chicago and North Western were down a point or so while Chicago Great Western common gained a fraction and the preferred was up about a point.

Kennecott, up about a point, responded to settlement of its strike in Chile. Anaconda and Phelps Dodge were steady to a shade higher.

Sunshine Mining, Republic Steel, Du Pont and Jersey Standard were among fractional gainers. Eastman Kodak gained about a point following news of record profits.

Xerox slipped about 2, U.S. Smelting a fraction.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed; governments were unchanged.

WILLIE GALIMORE

JOHN FARRINGTON

Two Chicago Bear Grid Stars Killed

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP)—The sports world was stunned today in the wake of a careening auto crash which killed Chicago Bears' star halfback Willie Galimore and his teammate, John Farrington.

Galimore, a seven-year veteran who was drafted from Florida A&M University in 1956, and Farrington, a 6-foot-3, 217-pound offensive spread end, were killed in the wreckage of Galimore's car late last night on a rural road.

State police said Galimore and Farrington apparently were returning to their living quarters at St. Joseph College when Galimore's car skidded out of control on a curve.

Police said the car went off the road and overturned, throwing the men from the vehicle. The car then ran over Galimore's body, police said, and came to rest on its wheels.

Farrington was killed instantly and Galimore died shortly after arrival at Jasper County Hospital.

Galimore and Farrington had been training with the Bears in preparation for the College All-Star football game Aug. 7. They had attended a players' meeting earlier in the evening.

The deaths were the third this year involving professionals from the Chicago teams.

Ken Hubbs, second baseman of the Chicago Cubs, was killed shortly before spring training when his private plane crashed in Utah.

The tragedy brought to an abrupt close what Bears' officials had expected to be a banner season for the speedy Galimore.

Galimore, 29, married and the father of three children, started slowly last year after off-season operations on both knees. But halfway through the campaign—climaxed by the Bears' championship National Football League victory over the New York Giants—Galimore was off and running.

He ended his seventh season with the Bears with 321 yards and a respectable 3.8 average.

"Willie was looking better than ever before since he's been with us," said Phil Handler, Bears' assistant coach. "He was going just wonderful."

Galimore, a 6-foot-1, 187-pounder from St. Augustine, Fla., had been living in Chicago.

Farrington, 28, last eason caught 21 passes good for 335 yards and two touchdowns.

Farrington, who was married just after the season ended last year, made vital receptions twice during the championship campaign.

The Prairie View College graduate, who was drafted in 1960, starred in the Bears' 52-14 victory over the Los Angeles Rams last season. The De Walt, Tex., product caught six passes for 76 yards and scored one touchdown.

Farrington, who had lived in Houston, Tex., set a team record in 1961 when he hauled down a Billy Wade pass good for 98 yards.

The tragedy recalled other recent accidental deaths of professional football players.

Terry Dillon, defensive halfback for the Minnesota Vikings, drowned in Montana a few months ago. Don Fleming, also a defensive back for the Cleveland Browns, was electrocuted during the off-season while working in Florida last year.

Tom Bloom, a former Purdue back who had been signed by the Browns, was killed in an auto accident a year ago before he played a game.

Giants Are Sad; Rely On 'Luck'

By JOHN J. CONNOLLY
The Bullpenner

There doesn't seem to be any reason for the Giants capturing the pennant unless you lean pretty heavily on the element of luck.

They are not outstanding in any manner, shape or form compared with other top contenders; they are slower by far; dumber than all get-out; lack coordination expected of a solid contender and strictly are an unpredictable aggregation of hot and cold performers.

Not even the manager, the owner or close associates will say why this state of affairs exists. Whoever you discuss the Giants with will argue they should be no less than 10 games ahead of any club in the league. And would be if they played heads up ball.

Injuries haven't hurt the club nearly as much as disappointments. The club had to swallow a bitter pill with the loss of pitcher Jack Sanford but he wasn't delivering anyhow, like he was expected to deliver. And if you think Billy O'Dell is disappointing, you can place him in the same category as Sanford.

LUCK ELEMENT

The luck element as applied to the Giants will have to come through a rejuvenation of Willie McCovey's bat; Orlando Cepeda hitting in the clinches; Willie Mays returning to his early season form; Tom Haller living up to his catching and hitting potential; and a strong comeback by pitchers Bob Shaw and Bob Hendley, both of whom are now blowing bubbles.

When you discount the failure of the above mentioned against the tremendous impetus of Jim Hart, Jesus Alou, Hal Lanier and pitchers Ron Herbel and Gaylord Perry, you begin to understand why the club just doesn't seem to boil for any length of time.

When the solid players of the club, tried and true veterans, fall by the wayside, not even the glorious feats of the kids can balance the budget.

Luck, as it applies to the Giants, means a return to form of so many factors that sometimes it seems hopeless. At this particular stage of the pennant fight it begins to look like Alvin Dark simply cannot get from his players what they owe the club.

LOOK SILLY

The monicker placed on the Giant hitters, at times, is justified. They are a power-packed group, on occasions, but when they are not hitting they look about as silly as all get-out.

A .300 average should mean something but if the hitter wearing it gets his hits when they don't count, I say he shouldn't be a rave-type hitter, regardless of his average.

Willie Mays seems to be the real spark plug. When he hits the rest of the gang seems to perk up, but let him waver and the bottom falls out of the Giant attack. And nobody, even the Say Hey Kid, should be expected to carry such a load in a pennant fight.

Tomorrow the scene shifts to Philadelphia for three games that could very well have a deadening silence on the Giants' flag hopes. After the Phils the Giants meet the Pirates for four games, then Cincy Reds and St. Louis before coming home to face the tiger-like Milwaukee Braves. It isn't a rosy picture for a power-packed club whose juice right now isn't strong enough to propel a 25 watt bulb.

Mays, Hart Hand Koufax 5-2 Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The San Francisco Giants, fresh from a comeback victory over their arch rival Los Angeles Dodgers, girded today for an even tougher adversary—the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

Both the Giants and the Phillies had an open date in which to prepare for their crucial three-game series starting Tuesday night.

The importance of the three games increased yesterday when the Giants beat the Dodgers 5-2 to climb within a half game of the Phillies, who dropped a doubleheader to St. Louis.

Manager Alvin Dark nominated lefthander Billy O'Dell, 3-3, to pitch the series opener for the Giants. Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch did not announce his Tuesday starter.

Juan Marichal is scheduled to pitch the second game for San Francisco with Bob Hendley as the starter in the series finale Thursday night.

The story of yesterday's game can be told in a fractured truism: Where there's a Wills there's a Mays.

Maury Wills staked the Dodgers' ace southpaw Sandy Koufax to a 2-0 lead in the second inning with a bases-loaded single.

WINNING RUN

But Willie Mays, held hitless in the first two games with Los Angeles, doubled home San Francisco's winning tally during a four-rung uprising in the ninth against Koufax.

Fast - balling Koufax started out in invincible fashion, fanning the first three Giants he faced. He also fanned the side in the second, but only after yielding a hit to Jimmy Hart and walks to Orlando Cepeda and Jesus Alou to load the bases with none out.

Giant starter Ron Herbel ran into the same predicament in the Dodger second, but did not escape unscathed.

Tommy Davis led off with an infield single. Then Herbel put Frank Howard on with a walk and third baseman Hart fumbled Dick Tracewski's dribbler for an error. Herbel struck out Doug Camilli and got Koufax on a shallow fly, the runners holding. Then Wills bounced a high hopper over Hart's head that scored two runs.

Hart's miscue ended a string of 36 consecutive errorless games by the rookie.

Koufax, who went on to strike out 10 batters for a record 59th time, pitched out of several dangerous situations until the next to last stanza.

Then Mays led off with a single, moved to third on Hart's second hit and streaked home on Cepeda's sacrifice fly to make it 2-1.

Jose Pagan touched off the winning Giants rally in the ninth when he led off with a bunt single and took second on Jim Gilliam's throwing error. Jim Davenport sacrificed Pagan to third then Maury Wills dropped Harvey Kuenn's popup in left field as Jose tallied the tying run.

Koufax got Hal Lanier to foul out, but Mays slammed a two-ball-two strike pitch to left center for a double.

Hart capped it all by lashing Koufax's next pitch into the left centerfield bleachers for his 15th homer.

Jim Duffalo, who pitched the seventh and eighth innings, got his first victory of the season while Koufax took his fifth loss. The Dodger lefthander was going for his 16th victory and 12th in a row.

RUSS SEEK REVENGE IN OLYMPICS

U.S. Celebrates Greatest Win

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—With two World records headed for the books, along with three American marks, the United States celebrated its most decisive victory and the Russians flew home for extra-intensive training for the Olympics Games.

Such was the wind-up of the sixth dual meet between the USA and USSR, whose track and field aggregations are regarded as the most powerful in the world.

A crowd of 55,924 turned out for the final show yesterday in Memorial Coliseum—50,519 watched Saturday—bringing the two-day total to 106,643.

The final scores: In men's events, the United States 139, Russia 97; in women's events, Russia 59, the United States 48; and over-all, the United States 187, Russia 156. It was the first time the United States won over-all.

The Russians on arrival from Moscow said their team was two months behind the Americans, because of the seasons, and with two months to go before the Tokyo Games, it could appear the Soviets will have a busy time in the immediate weeks ahead.

There were highlights for all and the crowd kept up a noisy rumble of approval each afternoon.

The big roar yesterday went to 27-year-old Jim Grelle for his victory in the 1,500-meter run, and Bob Schul as he and 30-year-old Bill Dellinger ran off with the 5,000 meters.

The day before the ovations went to 18-year-old Gerry Lindgren after his amazing triumph in the gruelling 10,000, and the two world record smashers, Fred Hansen, 17-4 in the pole vault, and Dallas Long, 67-10 in the shot put.

The main attraction yesterday was Russia's record holding high jumper, Valery Brumel. But Brumel managed 7-3½ and missed at 7-6 in an attempt to better his mark of 7-5¾.

"The jumping conditions were not real bad, just so-so. The take-off was too soft—just like cotton," said Brumel, who had criticized the jumping area and had it changed after one practice last week.

The American records were set by Ira Davis in the triple jump at 53-11, by Leah Ferris of Honolulu in the 800 meters in 2:08.8, and Willye White of Chicago in the broad jump, 21-6. Miss White placed second at 21-7¾ but it was wind aided and would not hold up as a national record.

There were several outstanding firsts for the Americans in this meet:

First victories in the 10,000 meters, Lindgren in 29:17.6; in the triple jump, Davis' 53-11; the 5,000, Schul's 13:50.2; the 3,000-meter steeplechase, by George Young, in 8:42.1.

It was also the finest showing by the women's team since the meet began in 1958.

There were disappointments for the Americans, too. Dyrol Burleson was unable to run in the 1,500 because of a severe virus attack yesterday morning.

Then Ralph Boston lost in the broad jump, Hal Connolly in the hammer-throw and Randy Matson's third place in the shot put.

1962 Dipsea King Picked For Olympics

Peter McArdle of New York, former winner of the Dipsea race in Mill Valley, and Billy Mills of the Camp Pendleton Marines were named to join the U.S. Olympic Games marathon runners in Tokyo after capturing first and second in the annual Western Hemisphere run.

McArdle, 34, won the famed Dipsea cross country test in 1962. He won the 26-mile, 385-yard Western Hemisphere run in 2:27.01. Mills, 26, a Sioux Indian descendant from South Dakota, placed second in 2:27.29.

Buddy Edelen, a South Dakota schoolteacher, qualified for the team earlier by winning the first trial in Yonkers, N.Y.

The alternates are John J. Kelley and James Green, both of the Boston Athletic Assn. Green finished third here in 2:30.36, and Kelley also qualified in Yonkers.

McArdle has also qualified for the final Olympic trials in the 10,000 meters.

Tiburon Wins Swimming Meet

Paced by Pete Banning with four first places, the Tiburon Peninsula Club swimmers defeated the Terra Linda swim team 178-137 in a dual meet Saturday.

Triple winners for Tiburon were Tom Pickett and Eric Rayner. Double winners were Diane Ring, Ann Boxill, Linda Locati, Dima Birich, Carol Clements, Chris Demont, Danny Airola and Bob Keller.

Double winners for Terra Linda were Barbie Whitbeck, Melissa Hansen, Pam Blair and Jeff Von Lehr.

Flash Elorde Retains His Title By TKO—Near Riot

TOKYO (AP)—Flash Elorde of the Philippines retained his world junior lightweight title today with a technical knockout of Japan's Teruo Kosaka in the 12th round, but the Japan Boxing Commission said it would investigate the fight.

The decision of Filipino referee Jose Padilla to stop the bout caused a near riot.

Many in the crowd of about 8,000 protested vigorously, throwing seat cushions into the ring. A score of Japanese police vaulted into the ring as a precautionary measure, and then escorted Elorde to his dressing room.

The knockout came at 1:45 of the 12th round.

Padilla called a halt after Elorde had floored Kosaka for a mandatory eight count with a hard left, and then staggered the Japanese boxer when he got back to his feet.

Kosaka was also bleeding from a cut over the left eye.

The Japanese boxer was leading on two of the three cards when the fight was stopped.

Padilla said he stopped it because "Kosaka was in bad shape, and staggering around. The cut over his eye was so bad I thought if I let him go on he might get blind. I could have stopped it in the 10th when the cut opened up, but I wanted to be fair."

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE PENNANT RACE

Lefties Bewitch, Bother Phils

BY U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Johnny Keane, a manager in hot water, resorted to some left-handed tactics over the weekend to take the heat off.

The St. Louis skipper saw his Cardinals skid into an eighth-place tie Friday night when they lost their seventh game in 10 starts. He heard Cardinal owner August Busch call his team "sluggish" and listened to General Manager Bing Devine cite "a combination of failures" on the team.

Keane well might have felt his heave-ho was imminent. After all, he was guiding an eighth-place team which just a year ago chased the world champion Dodgers through September for the National League flag.

But Keane seized upon a glaring weakness of the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies, who quiver at the sight of a left-handed pitcher. He started three southpaws, including a rookie making his first major league start. The result was three straight St. Louis victories and the first peaceful night's sleep for Keane in weeks.

TWIN SWEEP

The Cardinals swept a twin bill from the Phillies yesterday 6-1 and 4-1 behind the pitching of 25-year-old rookie Gordon Richardson, called up from Jacksonville of the International League Friday, and maturing Ray Sadecki.

Richardson held the Phillies to six hits, fanned five and didn't allow a hit until the fifth inning of the opener. Curt Flood, who drove in four runs, Bill White and Tim McCarver each had three hits to support the Colquitt, Ga., southpaw.

Sadecki blanked the Phils until the ninth inning of the nightcap, and yielded only five hits in gaining his 11th victory, one more than his 1963 total. Ken Boyer, who had five hits for the day, was the hitting star.

The Giants took advantage of the Dodgers' porous infield to score four unearned runs in the ninth inning and snap Sandy Koufax' 11-game winning streak 5-2. The triumph left San Francisco only a half game behind the Phillies and marked the second time in three days that the fumbling Dodgers have lost because of infield errors.

The Milwaukee Braves won a slugfest from the Mets 11-7 and 15-10 with their bats and tried to start another with their fists; Pittsburgh lost to Cincinnati 7-2 then won 5-1, and the Chicago Cubs blanked Houston 3-0 in other National League action.

BRAVES EXPLODE

The Braves pounded out 33 hits and scored 26 runs in coming from behind twice in the late innings to down the hapless Mets. Hank Aaron had six hits, including two homers and six RBIs in the twin bill.

Mets' pitcher Frank Lary and Milwaukee's Lee Maye were involved in a beanball incident in the first inning of the second game which emptied both benches. Rico Carty, who had two homers, threw the only punch—at two Mets, but the umpires quickly restored order.

Bob Veale pitched a four-hitter and Willie Stargell clouted a three-run homer to give the Pirates the nightcap victory after Cincinnati captured the opener on Leo Cardenas' grand slam home run. Cardenas' blast helped Joey Jay end his personal losing streak at six games.

Larry Jackson shut out the Colts on five singles and Ernie Banks and Ron Santo supplied all the runs with homers. Banks' blast came with Billy Williams on base in the fourth, his 13th of the season, and Santo connected for his 20th in the eighth off loser Ken Johnson.

VENTURI HOME FOR VICTORY CELEBRATION

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—It was Ken Venturi Day today in San Francisco, home of the popular U.S. Open golf champion.

But before flying off to the city by the Golden Gate, the 33-year-old Venturi with the white cap had quite a day for himself yesterday in the Insurance City Open.

Picture it. There was the National Open king, heading for victory like a man out for a walk. All he had to do was par the 71st and 72nd holes. Suddenly his game collapsed.

Venturi got a bogey on the 71st and a double bogey for a six on the 72nd, amazing the crowd of more than 18,000 as well as himself. He was left with a 273 total, 11 under par.

That set it up for the cliff-hanging finale. Sam Carmichael, 25, a sophomore PGA tourist, and veteran Al Besselink, playing behind Venturi, knew what they had to do to win.

But Sam missed an 11-foot putt that he had to sink to win, and Bessy's bold pitch to the green and possible victory rolled to the apron, forcing him to take two more shots and a bogey five.

Besselink, Carmichael, Paul Bondeson, 25, and Jimmy Grant, a 22-year-old amateur from the home club—Wethersfield—had to settle for a four-way tie for runner-up, one stroke off the winning total.

Ironically, the only greens Venturi missed yesterday were the final two. "But I learned something out there," he said. "I played the 72nd too safe. I tried to make a par on a bogey. I'll never do it again."

While Venturi flew to the Pacific Coast for a parade in his honor and a brief vacation, his first since winning the National Open more than a month ago, most of the other pros headed for the Canadian Open that starts Thursday at St. Luc, Que.

Bobby Nichols, the PGA champion, shot a 279, worth $622. Slammin' Sam Snead fared better. His 277 earned him $1,300. Billy Casper, last year's ICO winner, pocketed $1,750 for his 276, but Julius Boros, Connecticut born and a big favorite, closed with a par-equalling 284, three strokes out of the money.

Cards Stay Put; Atlanta Still Shopping For A Team

ATLANTA (AP)—Atlanta didn't get the St. Louis Cardinals, so the disappointed city is resuming immediately its search to find a professional football tenant for its $18 million stadium.

"Now we'll just begin again and we'll start immediately," said Opie Shelton, executive director of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. "Atlanta has everything to offer."

"Naturally, we're disappointed," said Arthur L. Montgomery, chairman of the Atlanta-Fulton County Recreation Authority, which is leading the drive to build the stadium. "But we haven't given up. We still feel that we will get a good team."

Montgomery said Charles and Bill Bidwill, president and vice president of the Cardinals, called him yesterday to tell him the team would remain in St. Louis. The Bidwills had been considering the move for weeks and had held several discussions with Montgomery and Mayor Ivan Allen.

According to Montgomery, it was a near thing.

"They were set to come," he said. "Just 10 days ago the Cardinal office was preparing press releases to announce their move to Atlanta. The Bidwills had already received verbal approval from other owners in the league. And we in the authority had agreed to some minor changes in design of the stadium offices and dressing rooms to suit the new club.

"That's how close it was," he added.

Montgomery said he didn't know who the city would approach next about obtaining a team. "We plan to talk to some of the other national Football League owners," he said. "We're also investigating the American Football League."

McKINLEY UPSET AGAIN

Ralston Reaches His Peak

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP)—"I guess this is the best I've ever played on grass," said Dennis Ralston, after winning the men's singles championship yesterday in the 65th Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis Tournament at the Merion Cricket Club.

In the women's division, Justina Bricka of St. Louis won the title by upsetting top-seeded Mrs. Clark Graebner of Shaker Heights, Ohio, 6-4, 18-16.

Ralston, ranked second in the nation, took 55 minutes to upset America's No. 1 tennis player, Chuck McKinley, -61, 7-5, 6-3.

The 21-year-old Southern California collegian served eight love games and lost only three points on his serve in the first set, three in the second and two in the third.

Ralston hasn't lost a set now in over two weeks of top flight competition. It was the second Sunday in succession that Ralston, of Bakersfield, Calif., upset McKinley, his Davis Cup teammate. He toppled McKinley 6-2, 6 2, 6-1 last week in Chicago for the U.S. Clay Court title.

McKinley had no alibis for the loss.

"I guarantee you, I tried everything," he said. "Maybe I should have punted."

McKinley's serve was broken five times.

"I'm tired and over-tennissed, I guess,' McKinley said. "I'm going to take a week off, see the World's Fair, then come back."

Eagle Is Finally Beaten

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Constellation, sailing with both a spare mast and a change of helmsmen, beat her America's Cup rival American Eagle yesterday for the first time.

The yachts, both new this year, finished 29 seconds apart after a 24-mile triangular race.

Two other 12 meter sloops participated, Boston's Nefertiti, which finished third, and Norsage, a British trial horse which was fourth and last.

Robert Bavier was at the helm of Constellation in place of her regular skipper, Eric Ridder who took over Bavier's role as tactician in the afterguard.

The duPont-financed American Eagle had been unbeaten this year, although Constellation was leading in a race last week which was called off midway due to fog. Bavier took the helm of Constellation that day, too.

Constellation broke her regular mast two days ago and raced yesterday with an aluminum spar hastily taken out of Nereus, an older American trial horse.

A fifth 12 meter sloop, Easterner of Boston, elected to race in a handicap class for larger yachts. She finished first and was expected to have saved enough time to be first also after the handicaps had been computed.

Ex-Giant Spencer A Hero In Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Daryl Spencer's 23rd home run of the season was just enough to keep the Hankyu Braves in first place in Japan's Pacific League yesterday as they split a doubleheader with the last-place Kintetsu Buffaloes.

Spencer, formerly with the San Francisco Giants and St. Louis Cardinals, hit the homer with one on base in the seventh inning and gave the Braves a 3-2 victory in the first game. Spencer also scored the tying run in the eighth inning of the nightcap, but the Buffaloes won out in the ninth 3-2.

Larkspur Kids Win Little League Title

Charles Flynn of the Larkspur Lumber team beat Rick LaFranchi of the Nicasio Red Sox in a pitchers' duel Saturday and with the victory went the championship of the California District 3 Team Champions Little League Tournament.

The Larkspur team, champ of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Twin-Cities Little League, nipped Nicasio 1-0 in the last inning of a thrill-packer game played on the Hamilton Air Force Base Little League diamond. Nicasio won the title of the San Geronimo Valley Little League.

After going through five scoreless innings, Larkspur's Phil Brooks led off the top of the sixth frame by getting on base via an error. He advanced to second on a passed ball and then moved to third on another passed ball.

Marty Hansen then followed with a grounder to shortstop and Brooks sped home with the lone run of the game.

Flynn allowed only one hit and struck out 14 batters. After Larkspur scored its winning run in the top of the last inning, Flynn protected it by pitching three straight outs in the bottom of the inning, two of the outs being his 13th and 14th whiffs.

LaFranchi also did a great job on the mound in a game that was tough to lose. He struck out 13 and allowed 5 scattered hits.

"You'll have to look a long time before you find a team that plays together as well as these kids," said winning manager John Tucker. He added that seven of the boys on the team have been playing together on that team for three seasons. It was their second straight league championship, but this time it was stretched to the championship of Marin County.

The Nicasio runner-up tournament team, managed by Will LaFranchi, made a fine showing in the first tournament entered by the Nicasio boys.

LaFranchi and Nick Kobseff, one of the most avid baseball buffs in Nicasio, and Marin for that matter, point out the fine job the kids did by going all the way to the finals.

The thinly populated Nicasio area doesn't have many boys to choose from. The fact of the matter is that "every Little League-aged boy in Nicasio is a member of the team," said LaFranchi. When tryouts were held, 15 tried out for the team and none was cut. That's a pretty remarkable feat, wouldn't you say?

Upset, Close Play Highlight Marin Tennis Tournament

Unseeded Steve McDonald upset fourth-seeded Mark Stephens in the boys 14 singles division of the Marin County Junior Tennis Tournament in one of the highlight matches over the weekend.

Fourth-seeded Janie Patton survived two close matches to remain in contention for girls 14 championship honors. She defeated Charlotte Richards 7-5, 8-6 on Saturday and then downed Margie Smetana 6-4, 6-8, 6-2 yesterday.

Second-seeded Sue DeBerry rallied from behind in both sets to defeat Lynn Reese 6-4, 7-5 in girls 16 singles, and second-seeded Kevin Brink edged Steve DeMartini 8-6, 7-5 in boys 10 singles play.

Longest match of the weekend was one involving Mike McPherson and John O'Mara in boys 12 singles. It started on Saturday and after each boy won a set, the match was called because of darkness. The two boys returned yesterday and O'Mara finally won the third set of the match which took nearly four hours of playing time to complete. He won 2-6, 11-9, 6-3.

The tournament will resume action next Thursday when the doubles competition starts. The tourney then will continue Friday and Saturday, finals scheduled on Saturday.

'Centrals' Top Marin Pony Title

Central Marin All-Stars combined great pitching with timely hitting to win the Pony Baseball Area Tournament championship over Southern and Northern Marin and Novato-Hamilton Air Force Base teams over the weekend at Petaluma.

The Central Marin team, composed of boys from Larkspur, Corte Madera, Ross, Kentfield and Greenbrae, return to Petaluma this week to battle All-Star aggregations from Sonoma, Sebastopol and Petaluma in the District Tournament starting Thursday.

In sweeping to three victories over Marin opponents last week, the Central Marin team's pitching staff allowed only one run. In the opening game on Thursday it was a nine-inning, 1-0 win over Southern Marin followed by a 3-1 edge over Novato-Hamilton on Saturday and another 1-0 victory over Northern Marin yesterday. The latter two games were in regulation seven innings.

THE HEROES

Yesterday's championship game heroes were pitcher Keith Valk who went the distance on the mound and Mark Davis whose last inning home run provided the winning margin.

Saturday Jim Peters went the distance on the mound against Novato-Hamilton.

In Thursday's extra inning affair Jim Peters' ninth inning homer broke up the scoreless deadlock. Winning pitcher was Ken Johnson in relief of starter Keith Valk.

Other boys on the Central Marin team are catchers Ray Biaginni and Bob Torrey, pitchers Larry Hoffman and Jeff Smith, first baseman Barry Ott, second baseman Herb Rowland, shortstop Duke Herrero, third baseman Bob Decker, utility infielder C. T. Edmundson and outfielders Jim Scoville, Jerry Handlos and Mike Hollis.

Manager is Charley Valk. Coaches are Gene Massena and Dick Simpson.

B-H BUILDERS WIN, NEAR SEMI-PRO TITLE

Rolling to their seventh straight Marin Semi-Pro Baseball League victory without yet tasting defeat, the Billings-Hutchison Builders bopped the Tiburon Sox 8-2 yesterday at Albert Park in San Rafael.

Superb on the mound for the Builders was Jerry DeRosa who notched his second league win, allowing only four scattered hits. DeRosa had a perfect game going until the fifth inning when Mike Walsh ended such thoughts with a double to right center.

The B-H nine led throughout the game and did most of its damage in the fifth inning, scoring five runs. Leading the Builder hitters were Mike Dunne and John Brookman, each with three safeties. Tom Reardon had a pair of singles.

Mike Walsh led the Tiburon attack with a single and double. Losing pitcher Skip Rush worked the entire game for Tiburon, allowing 11 hits and striking out six. Errors and walks also hurt the Tiburon nine.

With only three more games to play in the league, the Billings-Hutchison nine leads the pack by two and one-half games.

Mill Valley Rally Nips San Anselmo

A four-run uprising in the bottom of the ninth inning gave the Mill Valley Merchants a narrow 9-8 decision over the San Anselmo Merchants yesterday in Marin County Semi-Pro Baseball League action on the Project 17 diamond in Mill Valley.

A pinch hit single by Tom Austin tied things up and then a sacrifice fly by pitcher Keith Fraser gave the Mill Valley delegation the winning run and also his personal third victory without a defeat. Fraser was working in relief of starter Dave Perlis.

GREAT DAY

Sandy Slack had a great day at the plate for Mill Valley, rapping three singles in four trips to the plate. Losing pitcher Steve Miller and rightfielder Mike Telegin each collected three singles to lead the San Anselmo attack.

The win kept the slim title chances alive for Mill Valley which remains in second place two and one-half games behind the leading Billings-Hutchison Builders. The loss by San Anselmo snapped a three-game winning streak.

Novato Cops 15 To 13 Donnybrook

The Novak Builders of Novato tripped the baseballers of DeMaestri's Fairfax Garage 15-13 yesterday in a 10-inning donnybrook that lasted more than four hours on the Memorial Park diamond in San Anselmo.

Winning pitcher Ron Grayson went all the way, giving up nine hits.

Vince Pallavicini smashed a terrific grand slam homer and finished up the day with six runs batted in to highlight the Fairfax offense. Al Bovee had three singles and John Odetto had a home run for Fairfax.

Laddie Richardson was tagged for his third loss. Novato's entry in the Marin Semi-Pro League amassed a total of 17 safeties, led by Ron Rowell, Tom Corder and Bob Phillips, each with three hits. Phillips' hits consisted of two doubles and a single.

The Garagemen and Novak Builders are now tied for the bottom spot in the league with 2-5 records.

Fairfax Man 2nd In Harbor Swim

Bob Cunningham of San Francisco won and Norman Petersen of Fairfax was second in the 16th annual Yacht Harbor Swim put on by the South End Rowing and Swimming Club of San Francisco yesterday.

Cunningham completed the two-mile short line course from Crissey Field to the end of Aquatic Park in 36 minutes and 8 seconds and Petersen was clocked in 38:26. Nine swimmers competed.

Palmer Exhibition Match Cancelled

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—A benefit golf match featuring Arnold Palmer was canceled yesterday, Stan Dudas, head pro at the Princeton Country Club, said he understood the benefit was called off because of an 11th hour protest by sponsors of Insurance City Open in Hartford, Conn.

But Jim Gaguin, director of the ICO, said in Hartford that the ICO sponsors "played no role whatsoever" in the cancellation.

Dudas said he understood the sponsors of the ICO, which ended yesterday, quoted a Professional Golfers' Association rule forbidding members from appearing in any other tournament or exhibition within 200 miles of a PGA-sponsored tourney. Hartford is 192 miles from Princeton.

Woman Flier Stocks Lake With Salmon

LACONIA, N. H. (UPI) — The ladies have scored another first—the planting of landlocked salmon by airplane.

The State Fish and Game Department says Mrs. Shirley Mahn, who pilots her own plane and already is something of a living legend in New Hampshire, accomplished the feat in Lake Winnipesaukee.

Trout and some other fish have been stocked successfully since 1947, but the department said it was the first time salmon had been stocked from the air.

Mrs. Mahn, with Fish and Game official Robert Knowlton as co-pilot, dropped several thousand salmon into the lake from about 75 feet.

The fish were dropped from a metal tank with a series of watertight sliding doors through which the fish flowed out and fell into the lake.

San Mateo Bowler In Pro Tourney

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Harry Smith of Baltimore won the $23,500 Professional Bowlers Association Greater Pittsgurgh Open at nearby Baden last night.

Bill Hardwick of San Mateo, Calif., picked up the $1,500 second prize in the three-day tournament with 9,126. Buzz Fazio of Detroit scored 9,025 for the $1,200 third prize.

Other finishers in the top 10:

Jerry Hale of Richmond, Calif., 9,012, $1,000; Johnny King of Chicago, 8,984, $1,000; Les Barrett of San Mateo, 8,975, $950; Glen Allison of Los Angeles, 8,889, $900; J. B. Blaylock of El Paso, Tex., 8,871, $850; Bud Horn of Los Angeles, 8,866, $800; Fred Lening of Fairless Hills, Pa., 8,756, $750.

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION ABC

One in a series of messages to advertisers

No myths or mysteries, just the facts

The finest advertising doesn't have a chance unless it is seen or heard. The circulation of an advertisement is vital to its success. And, circulation is people ...not the number of advertisements printed or anticipated or projected.

No advertiser can afford expensive guessing. Positive proof of circulation should be demanded. Vague generalities should be discounted. Charts, formulas, and promises are not readers, and can lead your advertising off saies target.

The actual circulation figures...verified count...of this newspaper are available through the report of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Exactly how many units of your advertising are delivered into the hands of paying customers? How much do they pay to see your advertising? Where and how is this advertising being delivered?

This is the type of circulation information that helps keep your advertising and advertising budget aimed in the right direction. No camouflage, just facts and figures.

Insist on circulation proof when you buy advertising—be ABC-sure.

Karen Ives Bride Of Miles Eisenman

Karen Ives became the bride of Miles Alan Eisenman Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church of Mill Valley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Edward Good of Mill Valley, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Eisenman of Tehachapi.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride recited her vows in ring rites performed by the Rev. Elton Vickers.

She wore a full length gown of ivory peau de soie with full skirt trimmed with appliques of seed pearls.

Maid of honor was her sister, Sharon Webb, and bridesmaids were Irene Ritson of Sausalito and Mrs. William Feeney and Paula Morgan of Mill Valley.

They were gowned in full length organza dresses with a frame skirts — the maid of honor in rose pink and the other attendants in lighter pink.

Best man was Edward Weber, and ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Ross Eisenman of Pasadena, and Charles Ryon and William Clark.

Reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the reception hall of the church. After a honeymoon at Anchor Bay the newly married pair will live in San Rafael.

Karen was graduated from Tamalpais High School and will continue in her second year at the College of Marin in the fall.

Her other brothers and sister are Frank Ives and Morrison Webb of Sacramento, Mrs. Tina Strand of San Francisco and Dennis, Kevin, Robin and Kirk Good of Mill Valley. Her grandmother is Mrs. Viola O'Neil of San Francisco.

Miles attended Techachapi High School, Bakersfield Junior College and Oklahoma State University. He is now attending the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary.

His sister is Avis Eisenman, who is with the Peace Corps in Nigeria, and another brother is Bruce Eisenman of Oklahoma.

Feminine Foot Sizes Vary The Most In California—

NEW YORK (UPI)—Any modern Prince Charming trying to trace his Cinderella with a glass slipper had better do some market research before stepping out.

If the slipper he has in hand happens to be an "A" in width, he's better off starting his search in Texas, Kansas, Nebraska or any midwestern state where most women rarely have feet wider than a "B."

IF THE SLIPPER is very wide, meanwhile, he's best advised to start in Minnesota, where the shoes that really fit come in great length and breadth.

The vast regional difference in feet and shoe size preferences has been collected for many years.

Paul Flynn, product manager of a shoe firm, has been keeping America's shoe sizes for 38 years. He said one shoe may come in as many as 112 sizes and widths from "AAAA" to "EEE."

DURING THE LAST several years, the most diverse call for size ranges comes from California.

Flynn said that's probably because persons from all over the nation have moved to California, bringing with them their own special ethnic characteristics.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the East is notorious for wide widths, going to "C," "D," and "E."

Feet have been changing slowly but surely over the past few generations. Flynn said women's feet have grown a full size in the past 20 years. They are getting narrower as they get longer. Size 7 is today's average size.

What's On Top That Counts

Apparently, or at least according to most women, it's what on top—and not what's up front—that counts.

Come what may, 86 out of 100 head for a session under the dryer on a regular basis leaving problems of nuclear peril, presidential primaries and school boycotts far behind. Be it feast or famine, a bullish or bear-like market, the ladies keep stepping up and the hairdresser will be with you in a moment.

The latest survey still confirms the fact that a woman's place is in the beauty salon as well as in the home. And if the sales figures for television dinners have been skyrocketing, it just well may be because much of the funds for the salon visit come out of the part of budget that is earmarked "house money."

WOMEN IN UPPER income groups tend to be the ones that turn house money into hair-do money, while those with husbands who have thinner paychecks often pay the beauty salon from their own salary. In any case, the man in the household isn't complaining. "My husband just wants me to keep my hair looking nice," said one as she came out of the dryer. "I just pay it; it's a necessity," shrugged another.

Eighty-five per cent of the women surveyed asked for a shampoo and set when they called to make their appointments. And when they waltzed out with a shining head of hair and a new outlook on life, they left behind an average of $3.53 in exchange.

Most women will also rush to the phone and call their beautician when fashion dictates an important new look and the neighborhood style-setter appears newly-coiffed. The newest hair-dos are sophisticated in feeling with large loopy tendrils, smooth, sleek lines, chignons, twists, and rolls.

In the summer, most women shear their crowning glory to make it easier to care for.

Almost two out of five modern-day Cleopatras think that a bit of a change in hair color may help. Almost one out of 10 women use hair coloring once a week, and two in 10 once or twice a month. The statistics show that the use of hair color goes up with age and the amount of cash in the bank.

But psychologists who are trying to chart the female logic will turn grey at some other revelations in the survey. A company which has been making hair preparations for 64 years now discovered that 77 per cent of the ladies avowed that they were satisfied with their present hair style.

Teen Players To Present Capek Comedy

The Teen Players, a branch of the Art and Garden Junior Theatre, will stage their second annual production, "The World We Live In" on Aug. 2 and 3, at 8:30 p.m. in the Barn at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Under the direction of Marion Hayes Cain, more than 40 teenagers will perform in this comedy written by Josef and Karel Capek and originally produced at the National Theatre of Czechoslovakia. In past years the play has been popular with Marin County audiences, having been presented twice by the Mountain Players and at one time was the Ross Valley Players' summer vehicle.

A satirical fantasy, in which analogy is drawn between insect and human behavior, the play will be staged in the round, with sets and costumes designed and made by the Teen Players.

Heading the cast as the Vagrant is Bill Longenecker, along with Sue Mellerup, Nedra Ruiz, Claudia Chuche, Pam Myers, Aric Van den Akker, Cathie Bush and Margaret Tuck. Others appearing are Will Salomon, Ray Ramirez, Jim French, Peter McCoy, Madelon Walsh, Tracy Cavit, Reggie Ruggiero, Joan Breyer, Bob Foster, Sue Walsh, Chris Larkin, Ellie Eschen, Donelle Rathbone, Ted Herrmann, Joyce Hartwick, Donna Suthard, Geordie Arnold, Louise Nemschoff, Heidi Lerner, Marc Schmid, Tim Morgan, Linda Gue, Don Irey, Don Carroll, Alex Herrmann, Sherrill Swan, Marcia Lyon, Darlyn Dalka, Barbara Salomon, Debbie Zeller, Terry Weese, Liz Stevenson, Ann Sciaroni, Gilbert Leistner, Bob Herrmann and Carolyn Brockbank.

Co-chairmen for the summer activities of the Teen Players are Mrs. William Bush of Corte Madera and Mrs. Richard L. Foster of Greenbrae.

SNCC Friends Form In Marin

A new organization here is the Marin County Friends of SNCC, formed to aid the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee civil rights work. The local group, primarily composed of women, is concentrating on fund-raising, and will collect clothing and books for civil rights workers in Mississippi.

The work by SNCC there is mainly voter registration. Costs of the Freedom Schools which are a part of this project, as well as costs of office space and the wages of SNCC field secretaries are some of the expenses which the money raised will help to meet.

Chairman is Mrs. Joseph Moore. Mrs. Donald Gillis is secretary-treasurer. Others on the board are Mrs. Paul Rosenthal, Mrs. Edward Radenzel, Mrs. Robert Greensfelder and Juanita Vincent, all of Mill Valley and Giovanna Kirby of Belvedere.

Make Instant Soap Pads For Traveling

Stow a bar of soap, a washcloth, and a strip of plastic in your purse or make-up case while traveling. When you stop for a meal or a rest, tuck the plastic into the neckline of your dress or blouse to protect it from moisture. Then lather up your face and neck, rinse off, apply fresh makeup — and you will feel like a new woman.

Here's how to make instant soap pads for travel, hikes, or picnics. Soak folded paper towels in a dense soap solution. Then dry these soaped-up towels over an outdoor line. They will pack compactly for the trip, and need only to be immersed in water to serve as pre-soaped washcloths.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"This recipe came from that African explorer's book I'm reading, with veal substituted for missionary."

Be sneaky

Don't tell a soul, but there's a wonderful new place in Honolulu called the Kahala Hilton. A gorgeous estate, right on the beach. Bordered on three sides by the golf course and tennis courts of the Waialae Country Club. It's only 15 minutes from the bustle and bazazz of Waikiki, but hardly anybody's found out about it yet. So please keep it that way . . . just steal away from the crowd and be prepared for pampering. Fabulous food, sumptuous suites, superlative service. A wide sweep of coral-free beach. An enormous swimming pool. A lovely lagoon to sip cocktails by. And nobody to bother you.

The cost? Surprisingly low. From $12 a day per person for a double room that's twice as big as normal.

So don't breathe a word. Save it for when you get back and tell your friends what they've missed. They'll hate you.

LATEST HAIRSTYLE ideas include the "Will-O-the-Wisp" at left with its perky turned up ends adding a new back interest, and, at right, the "Patrician Look," back with sleek curved styling. A swooping wave below the temple and just above the wave could have been worn by an "Empire" beauty. It's the look for formal evening wear and requires little setting and easy brushing care.

President Of Officers' Wives Enjoys Painting, Decorating

Mrs. Norris Brill has been installed as the president of the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers Wives Club for 1964-65.

Mrs. Brill, wife of Lt. Col. Brill, director of administrative services with the 28th Air Division, said she felt very fortunate when her husband was transferred to Hamilton.

The Brills' only daughter, Janet, was among the debutantes presented at Hamilton. Mrs. Brill said she is especially busy at this time, as her daughter, Janet, just returned home following a year of studies at the University of California in Los Angeles and will leave soon on a two months student tour of Europe.

MRS. NORRIS BRILL

AMONG THE interests of Mrs. Brill are oil painting which she has just started and interior decorating. Her father was an interior decorator which first started her interest in it, and with the moves necessary in the Air Force, she has found that it is helpful when one can make slip covers and draperies, for each new home.

SERVING WITH Mrs. Brill are Mesdames Kenneth I. Gunnarson, first vice president and social and program chairman; Robert E. Brooks, second vice president and special activities. Assisting Mrs. Brooks are chairmen Mesdames Paul Gawthorp, bridge; Jack E. Umbaugh, bowling; William T. Roberts, golf; and Harold W. Grace, arts and craft; Mesdames William F. Wolfe, secretary, David S. Woods, assistant secretary; Rex Benjamin, treasurer; Nathan R. Blondin, first assistant treasurer and Robert E. Evans, second assistant treasurer.

MEMBERS OF the OWC serving as committee chairmen include Mesdames Raymond L. Frederick, Lady Hamilton editor; Roger B. Newcomb, membership; Jack E. Umbaugh, parlimentarian; R. E. Bryan, publicity;

Mesdames Norman H. Traverso, Red Cross volunteers; Julius J. Karlonas, Gray Lady; George S. Rowcliffe, nurses aid chairman; George Ungemach, staff aid; Adam E. Tyra, Brill and Frank W. Gravitt, Sonoma project; Edward O. Willeford, spotter chairman; William G. Eyres thrift shop; Frederick F. Alongi, ways and means; Joseph K. Enright, hi and bye coffee; Douglas Alexander, welfare; William J. Wallis, youth activities.

Mrs. C. F. Necrason is honorary president of the OWC advisory council and honorary members are Mesdames Jack A. Gibbs, William S. Harrell and Bryant Y. Anderson.

Mary Adele Larson To Marry Aug. 29

MARY LARSON

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Larson of Corte Madera announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Adele, to James Michael Nabours.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Nabours and lived with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Nabours of Tucson, Ariz.

Mary is well known in Marin musical circles. She has been piano soloist with the Marin Youth Orchestra, was a three-time winner of Marin Music Chest scholarships and was winner of the first Marin Symphony Guild scholarship.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Dominican Convent and is now working for her bachelor of music degree at the University of California. She is a pupil of Alex Liberman. She is the sister of Larry and Linda Larson of Corte Madera.

Mike is also an accomplished pianist, cellist and singer. He holds a bachelor of music degree from the Music Conservatory of the University of Arizona and is working toward his master's degree in music at the University of California.

The couple will be married on Aug. 29 in the Mill Valley Community Church and will live in Berkeley.

Following completion of their degrees at the University of California their plans include furthering their musical studies at the Vienna Conservatory and in Paris.

Topless Hat

Leave it to the milliner Mr. Fred of John Frederics to get in on the topless act. Fred designed a wide, double-brimmed hat to go with the topless bathing suit. The under layer of the brim, of fabric, unfastens to come down over the chest, criss-cross and tie with narrow binding across the back. It was what the milliner called, "In case of raids, lower the shades—of your John Frederics hat."

BEWARE—PARIS MILLINERS

By LUCIE NOEL

PARIS (AP) — Paris milliners, faced with a hatless era, are straining to "lend the finishing touch" and "elongate the silhouette."

Top independents and those with ties to high fashion houses will show their creations, for every occasion, during the major Paris fashion showings that begin today.

"The hat stylists are geniuses. They have taken over," complained Germaine Legroux, hat designer for Balmain. "Today we have the toughest profession in the world. When a woman comes in and says, 'Make me a hat that does not look like a hat,' it is a challenge."

Mrs. Legroux said the day of the blocked hat, which sold 50 to 70 a day even in the darkest years, is over.

Vacuum Best Defense Against Moths

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Snug as a bug in a rug" may be a cozy thought. Applied to your household carpeting, it conjures a frightful prospect — moths.

Happily, the beasts chomp and fill their tummies in the dark woof and warp of your broadloom.

The right time to route the pests is the minute you suspect your carpet is inhabited. Declare war also immediately after finding a moth hole in upholstered furniture or in clothes.

The damage is done by the larva, a ravenous critter that looks like a tannish-bronze worm.

The best defense is the vacuum cleaner.

—FOR RUGS: This battleground should first be cleaned of spots, grime and dust. Moths love dirty wool. After vacuuming and shampooing, use the cleaner to give the moths a lethal spray of moth-proofing mist. Spray both sides.

—FOR CLOTHES: Here the area of attack is much smaller. Dry clean the clothes and put them inside the closet. Then fill the de-mothing attachment of the vacuum cleaner with moth crystals and put it on the closet floor with the switch on. Close the door and seal it with newspaper wadding. Plug in the vacuum and let it run for four hours. Remove the cleaner and reseal the closet at once. Leave it closed for 72 hours to complete the job.

Today is Monday, July 27, the 209th day of 1964 with 157 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Mars and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1777, the Marquis de Lafayette and other foreign officers offered their services to the Continental Congress.

In 1919, a race riot at a Chicago beach killed 38 persons.

In 1959, plans to form a third major baseball circuit to be known as the Continental League, was announced.

In 1963, a massive earthquake struck Skopje, Yugoslavia, killing more than 3,000 persons.

A thought for the day — American writer F. Scott Fitzgerald said: "Show me a hero and I will write you a tragedy."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

You Shouldn't Be Generous When Playing Your Trumps

Playing a certain kind of bridge hand is like stalling until the other fellow picks up the lunch tab.

The idea is to make him spend his money without spending any of your own. (I'm not naming any names, but certain friends of mine have a head start on learning this play.)

When this hand was played, East won the first trick with the ace of diamonds and returned the king of clubs.

FIRST CLUB

Declarer thought about refusing the first club trick (which would have worked well in this case) but was afraid that West would ruff the second club.

At any rate, declarer won the first club trick with dummy's ace and led the queen of hearts from dummy. This play showed South's generosity but there was nothing else to recommend it.

West gladly captured the queen of hearts with his ace and returned his remaining club. East won and led a third club through South, and that was the end of declarer.

SETTING TRICK

West was sure to get the setting trick with a trump. If South ruffed low, West would overruff. If South stepped up with the king of hearts, West would discard; but then West would still have the ten and nine of trumps with dummy's jack as the only higher trump out.

South should make game and rubber by playing the trumps less generously.

After taking dummy's ace of clubs, South should get to his hand with a spade and lead a low trump toward dummy. The idea is to make West take his ace of hearts without getting anything for it.

HEART ACE

If West takes the ace of hearts, dummy plays low and saves both the queen and jack. West can lead his remaining club, but when the third club comes through, declarer can step up with the king of hearts and draw the rest of the trumps with dummy's queen and jack.

If West refuses the first trump trick, dummy wins with the jack, and declarer enters his hand once more with a spade to lead another low trump toward dummy.

West must take his ace this time and lead a club, but South is still able to step up with the king of trumps on the third round of clubs to lead a trump to dummy's queen and thus draw the last trump safely.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade.

You have 11 points in high cards and 3 points for distribution. This is enough for an opening bid, especially when you have a 6-card spade suit.

New Map Sought For Redistricting

A committee to draw up a map for proposed redistricting of Marin supervisorial districts has been appointed by the Marin County Farm Bureau.

Former supervisor James Marshall of Tomales, who will head the committee, said no action has yet been taken by the group.

The board of supervisors drew a stop-gap set of boundaries in January, and supervisors have indicated since they hope to adopt a new map before the November election. So far, however, they have not done so.

60 Are Taking Job Training

More than 60 persons are taking classes in Marin County which have been financed through the Federal Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962, Edwin W. Ayer, manager of the State Department of Employment in San Rafael, said today.

Classes for nurses' aides, secretaries and typist-clerks are being held and a new course for janitorial maintenance men has been approved and will start next Monday.

The current class of nurses' aides will be ready for employment Aug. 17 and the janitors will be available by the end of next month, Ayer said. A few clerk-typists who have completed the 20-week training course are still seeking employment.

Babcock Group Elects Aides

Sidney Braverman and Fred F. Enemark of San Rafael have been elected to the board of directors of the William Babcock Memorial Endowment, Louis W. Niggeman, president, announced today.

They succeed William A. Marcus of San Rafael, former president of the endowment, and Dr. M. F. Hazeltine of Ross.

Other members of the board include William Schwarzer of Mill Valley and A. Crawford Greene Jr., Doris Schmiedell and Mrs. Katharine Kirk III of Ross. A Crawford Greene Sr. of Ross in a director emeritus.

Permits For Gas Stations Due Planners

Permits for more gas stations in San Rafael, a hearing on an 84-unit apartment development, and discussion of a pesky sign will be among items considered by the San Rafael Planning Commission tomorrow.

The session begins in the city hall at 7:30 p.m.

Use permit for the apartment development with two offices and a gas station was asked by Charles Bell on land on Highway 101 frontage road between the Terra Linda interchange and Professional Center Parkway. Tomorrow's hearing will be the second and final on the application.

Approval of gas stations has been asked by Shell Oil Co. at Del Presidio Boulevard and Manuel Freitas Parkway, by Humble Oil Co. at Del Presidio Boulevard and Las Gallinas Avenue, and by Gulf Oil Corp. at Bellam and Francisco boulevards.

Also on tap is a request for architectural approval of a plastic sign already put up by Cascade Products Co. of San Francisco to advertise Direct Appliance Furniture at 70 Woodland Avenue.

Two weeks ago the commission split on a motion to order removal of the unsanctioned sign. Commissioners agreed, after the split vote, to put the matter off until tomorrow for action.

Master Plan Due Novato Commission

The continued hearing on Roberts and Aguirre's master plan for a 21-acre "planned community" single-family residence development adjacent to Pleasant Valley Unit 3 will be held by the Novato Planning Commission at its regular meeting at 8 p.m. today.

The plan, for houses with less than the minimum lot size but open areas on the hillsides for recreation, has drawn protests from residents of the area.

The commission will also continue its hearing on the John Novak and Alfred Bellucci request for rezoning of the proposed Dias Shopping Center and Novak Industrial Park.

This was continued two weeks ago for submission of plans showing where the proposed Highway 101 freeway would go through the property. The approximately 40 acres lie west of Highway 101, east of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, north of Novato Creek and south of Clausing Avenue. It is now zoned single family residential.

Albert P. Tognoli seeks rezoning from limited agriculture to roadside business and multiple family for just less than six acres on the east side of Highway 101 south of Hamilton Air Force Base.

Other items to be considered are: Gus Ravetz's tentative map of Redwood Gardens subdivision of 18 lots on five acres south of Cherry Street and north of Cerro Vista Unit 3; 50-lot subdivision on 14 acres in Gnoss Estates, submitted by Westwood Homes; architectural supervision for a doughnut shop at Second Street and Industrial Way to replace the present shop, requested by Jack Caristi, and Berkeley Farms' application for architectural supervision for a proposed dairy distribution center and office at Lamont Avenue and Highway 101.

San Anselmo City Council Due Maps

Final maps of the Franklin Latcham and Unit 5 of Oak Springs subdivisions will be presented to the San Anselmo City Council for approval at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Report on debris at 37 Canyon Road, request for zoning at 31 Lansdale Avenue to allow construction of a trip'ex and a request for an encroachment permit on Allyn Avenue will be discussed by the council.

Entries in the Christmas Seal design contest for the 1966 Christmas Seal may be submitted to the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn., 1010 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, until Sept. 1.

The winning design will earn for its creator a $1,000 prize from the National Tuberculosis Assn.

Dairy Area Voters Ballot On School Districts Unity

Voters in the sprawling dairy region of west and northwest Marin County and southwest Sonoma County will go to the polls tomorrow to decide whether seven elementary school districts will unite into one.

In order to be successful, the election must carry by a simple majority in each of the districts. They are Tomales Bay Union, West Marin and Point Reyes in Marin County, and Bodega Bay, Watson, American Valley and Bloomfield in Sonoma County.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Point Reyes school, the Point Reyes firehouse in Point Reyes Station, the Inverness firehouse in Inverness, the Marshall School and the Tomales Elementary School.

An eighth district, the Tomales Joint Union High School District, would also be effected by the election. If the union elementary district is approved, it will automatically merge with the Tomales High School District to become a unified district (kindergarten through high school).

It would accomplish a unification plan that has been turned down twice by the State Board of Education.

It would also necessitate another election on leveling bonds of the districts and naming a new school board to take over on July 1, 1965, the date the unification would become effective.

"This election is the natural outgrowth and a follow-up of the $175,000 bond issue passed by the voters in January," said Mrs. Kent Lawson of Dillon Beach, a member of the Citizens' Election Committee for Unionization. Voters then balloted 804 to 105 to authorize the bonds to rehabilitate buildings at Tomales High School.

After that election, the boards of all seven elementary districts voted in favor of the unionization election.

Principal opposition to the plan has developed in the West Marin School District, which is the largest district, having $5,277,000 of the total $12,929,480 assessed valuation in the proposed union district.

That district also has the largest number of registered voters, 856. The total registered voters in the seven districts is 1,791. The registration by districts is: Watson, 22; American Valley, 77; Bloomfield, 102; Bodega Bay, 290; Tomales Bay, 417 and Point Reyes, 26.

The Sonoma County Schools office has sent out one absentee ballot, the Marin County office, 28.

Opposition to the plan was spearheaded by the West Marin Taxpayers Committee Opposed to Untimely Unionization. Main "anti" argument is that the West Marin district is already superior to other schools in the proposed unionized district and is constantly being improved.

Bagley Due At Hearing On Appraiser

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) will appear before an Assembly interim committee in San Francisco next month to push his campaign to eliminate political patronage in the appointment of state inheritance tax appraisers.

Two weeks ago in Los Angeles, Bagley appeared before the interim committee on ways and means to present these two alternatives: (1) Put inheritance tax appraisers under state civil service, or (2) delegate inheritance tax appraisals to the assessor's office in each county.

Under existing law, the state controller appoints inheritance tax appraisers.

On Aug. 13, Aseemblyman Bagley is scheduled to appear before an interim committee on elections and reapportionment, which will meet in the State Building in San Francisco. State Controller Alan Cranston is scheduled to speak before the same committee.

Tiburon City Council and Planning Commission will meet at 8 p.m. today in separate rooms of the Del Mar School.

For the council, the meeting will be primarily devoted to discussion of a preliminary budget and of the contract with the county to provide basic services.

The contract, including planning, police, street maintenance and other services, will expire Aug. 15 and councilmen must decide which services they want to continue to contract and for what period.

Also on the council agenda in Room One of the school are the first bills to be paid by the city. The formerly empty treasury has been filled with up to $30,000 which councilmen agreed Wednesday to borrow at 3.25 per cent interest from the Tiburon National Bank.

A report on licensing of businesses will be presented by interim City Administrator Warren Schmid.

In the library of the school, the planning commission will be working on the budget which it has been asked to submit to the council by Aug. 10. The commission also will draw up a general statement of planning philosophy.

Arson Probe Launched Into Mill Valley Blaze

ARSON SUSPECTED—County firemen and volunteers survey remains of summer cottage at 22 Washington Park Avenue, above Mill Valley, after it was swept by fire yesterday. Firemen were hampered by lack of water. Report that a man was seen to throw something into a pile of scrap under the house was being investigated today. Object on collapsed upper floor is a large floor mat. (Sheriff's office photo)

Someone Reported At Scene

An arson probe was launched today in a fire that destroyed a 50-year-old wood frame summer house at 22 Washington Park Avenue above Mill Valley yesterday and threatened to burn through a forest of redwood and eucalyptus trees to other mounttainside homes.

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom said today that a young man was seen near the home by a neighbor just after the fire broke out in a storage area under the building on the slope of Mount Tamalpais, owned by Sausalito realty broker Sally Hettrich.

The youth was seen throwing something into a pile of lumber, rags and papers under the house before he disappeared into the home, a witness told Bloom.

ARTIST GONE

The building had been rented last Dec. 1 by Patrick Fitzsimon, an artist. There was no sign of him at the scene yesterday, and his whereabouts remained unknown today.

The blaze, reported at 2:29 p.m., threatened the surrounding heavy growth of redwood and eucalyptus trees while firemen were forced to stand by, nearly helpless, for lack of water pressure to feed fire hoses from four pumper trucks.

"We had the fire pretty well under control three times but were unable to keep it down without water," Bloom said.

"We were fortunate that there was no strong wind or else we might have had a swift-burning inferno on our hands."

VOLUNTEER GROUP

Seven members of the Throckmorton Ridge Fire Brigade, a newly organized volunteer group, and nine county firemen fought the blaze for nearly five hours.

Damage was estimated at $12,500 to the structure and $8,000 to its contents.

Bloom said the electricity and gas service to the house had been disconnected a month ago, and kerosene lamps and a coal stove had apparently been used by the resident since the utilities were turned off.

A kerosene lantern was found 100 feet down the road from the house, its badly smoked chimney lying broken beside it and its fuel supply three-fourths gone.

The lack of sufficient water supply to fight the blaze was similar to the circumstances two years ago, Chief Bloom said, when two homes in the same area were burned to the ground during the Fourth of July holiday as firemen stood by helplessly.

GOP STRATEGY PLAN

Republicans Are Hoping To Attract Big-City Vote

By JULES WITCOVER
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Lost in the shuffle of Sen. Barry Goldwater's celebrated "southern strategy" for the presidency is a Republican National Committee plan, three years in the making, to win by whittling down the Democratic big-city vote.

The scheme, focusing on 10 big cities with heavy ethnic populations, takes on new potential in light of the "white backlash" reaction to the Negro revolution and Goldwater's get-tough-with-Russia posture.

Post-convention speculation has suggested that Goldwater's chances rest on his ability to string together enough smaller states outside the industrial east to give him an electoral edge in November. But his strategists actually are counting on big-state strength to put him over.

The plan is to boost GOP strength among ethnic groups just enough to enable traditionally heavy Republican rural leads to overcome large Democratic big-city margins.

Prior to the 1960 Kennedy-Nixon campaign, most nationality and ethnic groups voted 60 per cent Democratic, 40 per cent Republican. In 1960, with an Irish Catholic heading the Democratic ticket, the ratio jumped to 80-20. The Republicans think they can win this year if they can restore the 60-40 split.

Goldwater's nomination offers two weapons with which to accomplish this more favorable ratio. Ethnic groups, particularly concerned about Negro unrest and social gains, may well be attracted by the senator's strong statements against street violence and his restrained civil rights position.

Also, Goldwater's hard line anti-Communism is expected to appeal to ethnic groups tied to Soviet satellites.

Four of the 10 cities on the GOP list are in the east—Newark, N. J., Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Baltimore—and five are in the midwest — Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis. The 10th in Los Angeles, a Goldwater stronghold in last month's California primary.

Of the 10, seven are in states that went to the Democrats in 1960. This rundown shows the GOP possibilities this year in pressuring the big-city ethnic groups (figures based on 1960 census).

Illinois—Kennedy won its 27 electorial votes by less than 8,000 popular votes, with Cook County (Chicago) delivering a 319,000 edge after Nixon had piled up a 310,000 downstate lead. Chicago has 1,237,000 residents of foreign stock, including 258,600 Polish, 24,200 Hungarian, 31,958 Yugoslavian, 50,000 Czech, 96,600 Russian, 47,634 Lithuanian.

New Jersey—Kennedy won its 16 electorial votes with a popular-vote edge of 22,000, with Essex County (Newark) delivering a margin of 50,000. Newark has 137,000 residents of foreign stock, including 47,105 Italian, 16,000 Russian, and 15,000 Polish.

Pennsylvania—Its 32 electorial votes went to Kennedy by 116,000 popular votes, with Philadelphia delivering an edge of 331,000 and Alleghney County (Pittsburgh) a 108,000 lead. Philadelphia has 582,400 residents of foreign stock, including 58,000 Irish, 55,000 German, 56,000 Polish and 128,000 Italian; Pittsburgh has a total of 183,000, including 33,000 Italian, 25,000 German and 24,000 Polish.

Restaurant Loses $1,600 To Burglar

An agile burglar climbed through a transom window of the Kettle in Sausalito sometime between 4 and 7 a.m. today, broke open a locked compartment behind the meat counter, and made off with $1,600 in cash.

Lt. David Cooper of Sausalito police, said the culprit apparently climbed on top of the five-foot-tall, painted wooden Indian at the entrance to the restaurant at 633 Bridgeway. A screen covering the four-foot by 20-inch transom was cut.

The money was taken from two drawers in the compartment which Cooper said is used as a safe. Each drawer was locked, the burglar breaking the locks by prying.

Allen Wong of San Francisco, manager of the restaurant, reported the loss. The burglar, said Cooper, left by way of the back door.

Fight By Two Men Leads To Gun Display

A 2 a.m. brawl at a San Rafael service station, during which one participant brandished a gun, resulted in charges against two men and a woman.

Richard L. Strong, 22, of 830 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, was charged with exhibiting a firearm in a threatening manner; Richard Elliott Blair, 18, of 597 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, with disturbing the peace, and Kay Branton Collette, 23, of 497 Scenic Avenue, San Anselmo, with obstructing a police officer.

San Rafael police gave this account:

Kenneth Anthony Cavillo, 21, of 151 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, drove into the Standard Station at 729 Fourth Street at 2 a.m. With him were Strong, Miss Collette, and two others.

Blair was sitting behind the gas station in his car with two other youths.

Cavillo and Blair took up an old argument. Blair challenged Cavillo to a fight.

As the ruckus started, Strong pulled a .22-caliber automatic pistol from the glove compartment of Cavillo's car and yelled, "I've got a gun; you'd better stop fighting."

Police Officers David H. Jones, Bart Stinton, Robert Larrison and Kenneth Homen arrived to break up the fight.

They stopped the fighting, but no one could find the gun until Miss Collette was asked to get out of the car. She had been sitting on the gun, police said.

No arrest was made immediately, but warrants against the three were issued subsequently by the district attorney's office.

Policeman Halts 'Weed' Trimming

L. P. Van Atta was just trying to improve Mill Valley's appearance by "trimming some weeds" on city property near his home at 18 Tamalpais Avenue, he told Police Officer Herbert Aceret yesterday.

But the "weeds," said Officer Aceret, looked like shrubs or small trees. He ordered Van Atta to desist unless he gets a tree-cutting permit.

"The city will do nothing to improve the area, so I thought I'd do it myself," said Van Atta.

U.S. To Send More Men To Vietnam

SAIGON (UPI)—Premier Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh announced today after a conference with U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor that the United States would increase the number of military advisers in Viet Nam and send more war equipment.

Khanh announced no figures, but Washington reports in mid July said at least 600 more Americans would be sent to South Vietnam. A Washington report today said the 600 would be only the first contingent and that more American soldiers would follow as needed.

The Washington dispatch said President Lyndon B. Johnson was prepared to go as high as necessary in the assisstance program to bring final victory to South Viet Nam. The reports followed evidence communist North Viet Nam was flooding border areas of South Viet Nam with Vietminh troops.

There are about 16,500 U.S. advisers here now.

Khanh's announcement followed a series of spectacular Communist victories in a series of ambushes in the south and increased threats to South Viet Nam's four northernmost provinces. But it came as the government itself announced a successful major offensive in Phu

U.S. Rejects Soviet Bid For Global Laos Session

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States rejected today a new Soviet bid for an international conference on Laos, saying it would be useless unless Communist forces in the Southeast Asian kingdom first stop shooting and give up territory conquered since Mid-May.

The Soviet proposal in the form of a declaration was delivered to the State Department yesterday by the ranking Soviet diplomat here, Minister-Counselor Georgi M. Kornienko. It had been delivered to the British a day earlier.

A State Department spokesman declared that "no useful purpose would be served" by a new conference on Laos—following up the Lao neutrality conference of 1962—unless conditions demanded by neutralist Premier

OAS Nations Sign Accord Against Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American republics yesterday signed a historic declaration condemning Communist Cuba for aggression and approving strong economic and diplomatic sanctions against the Fidel Castro regime.

The document also clears the way for the American nations, alone or in a group, to use armed force against Cuba if it continues what the ministers officially described as aggression and subversion against other hemisphere republics.

The specific condemnation was of Cuban efforts to overthrow the government of Venezuela.

The resolution calls for diplomatic and trade sanctions, directing that no American nation maintain diplomatic or trade ties with Havana but giving no deadline for the severing of such ties.

In each of three years, 1954, 1933 and 1916, the Atlantic coast was raked by four hurricanes.

85 Die In Portugal Train Wreck

OPORTO, Portugal (AP)—A speeding railway car packed with holidayers on the way home from the beach came uncoupled last night, richocheted back and forth on walls beside the track and overturned down an embankment.

Hospital sources said 85 passengers were killed and more than 100 injured. It was the worst disaster in the history of the privately owned Portuguese Railway Co.

The company ordered a commission of three engineers to investigate the derailing near Custoias, about three miles from Oporto.

Policeman Shot To Death

NEW YORK (UPI) A policeman was shot to death today when he attempted to corner a suspected burglar who had disrobed and attacked two women in their lower east side Manhattan apartment.

The suspect, identified as Frank Rosato, 28, was arrested after a brief gunbattle with other police. Police said he had a minor wound of the head.

The victim was patrolman Henry Walburger, 24.

Laos Forces Hit At Reds

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Government forces squeezed a pincers offensive today on communist outposts blocking a highway which connects the administrative capital of Vientiane with the royal capital of Luang Prabang 180 miles north.

Their goal was to clear a junction of the highway with another running to the east where government troops are trying to push communists off a slope at the western edge of the plaine.

Balloonist Dies On Power Line

PITTSBURG (UPI)—A balloon race, canceled a week earlier because it was considered "too hazardous", ended in tragedy yesterday when a young national champion crashed into a high voltage power line and died.

The victim, Richard Pollard, 19, of Denver, Colo., died en route to a hospital after his metal gondola slammed into a 150,000-volt power line and exploded in flames.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — The Interior Ministry called on citizents today to dig air raid shelters as protection against the possibility of a Turkish air attack on Cyprus. Fire At World's Fair

Singapore Toll Rises

SINGAPORE (UPI) — Police found another body today to raise the death toll in Singapore's race riots to 22. A police spokesman said authorities believed the victim was killed shortly after the riots broke out last Saturday.

Patrol Cut In Harlem, Brooklyn

NEW YORK (AP) — Police patrols have been sharply reduced in Harlem and Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant section as peace prevailed in the areas over the weekend.

As police patrolled yesterday in pairs, instead of in groups, a department spokesman said: "We hope this will return the situation to normal."

At various spots in Brooklyn last night, three kerosene-filled bottles were thrown, one into a real estate office doorway, another into the entrance of a tavern, while a third burned in the street. A man in the tavern was reported burned on the right arm and neck.

Damage was slight and there were no disturbances on the streets at the time, police said.

City Councilman Arthur J. Katzman said he will ask the council to seek Mayor Robert F. Wagner's support in creating a citizens committee to investigate the July 16 shooting of a Negro boy by a white policeman. The boy's death sparked last week's riots.

Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy has consistently opposed creation of a citizens review board to investigate charges of brutality and other complaints against police.

Carolina Auto Crash Kills 10, Injures Two

KINSTON, N.C. (AP)—Ten persons were killed early yesterday in the worst highway accident in North Carolina since 22 migrant farm laborers died in a two-truck collision near Fayetteville seven years ago.

Five white persons, returning from a dance, and five Negroes, four of them migrant farm workers from Alabama, died when two cars collided with such force engines of both were pushed back into the front seats. Two persons, one in each car, survived.

Uneasy Peace Hangs Over Riot-Scarred Rochester

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — This riot-scarred city emerged today from a bloody weekend of racial violence with four dead, hundreds of injured and massive property damage. An uneasy peace was backed by a combat-ready force of National Guardsmen.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller activated 1,000 guardsmen and ordered them into Rochester to stand by for anti-riot duty if needed.

"Law and order will be maintained in the city of Rochester," the governor declared.

A detachment of 12 open trucks with 18 guardsmen each toured the city's trouble areas in a show of force shortly after the arrival of the guard last night. The men carried rifles with bayonets fixed but had no ammunition.

Three persons were killed and a county official was injured critically yesterday when a helicopter surveying a potential trouble spot smashed into a three-story house and set it afire.

A man was killed by an automobile when he was struck during wild rioting Saturday night, in the height of the racial explosion, and staggered into the street. Two men were shot. One was in critical condition.

More than 600 persons, nearly all Negroes, were arrested. More than 300 other persons were injured, including 35 police officers and several firemen. Thousands of Negroes participated in rioting throughout the weekend, but police had no estimate of the exact number.

Looters ran wild, pillaging and smashing, especially Saturday night.

Many rioters were "all fired up on stolen booze," a police official said.

State and local police, working with little rest, were targets of bricks, rocks, bottles, full beer cans, fire bombs and sheets of glass in one outbreak after another.

They answered with tear gas, high-pressure streams from fire hoses and warning shots from their guns. Several individual rioters were clubbed into submission when seized.

The Rochester jail was jammed and a clerk said the property room was filled with "everything you can think of" in recovered loot.

A dawn-to-dusk curfew was imposed, although there was widespread defiance in the Negro sections.

The sale of all liquor, guns and ammunition was halted indefinitely.

The peak of the rioting occurred Saturday night in the Jefferson Avenue area on the city's west side, a well-kept section populated by the city's more prosperous Negroes.

The area is across town from Joseph Avenue, where the racial violence broke out late Friday night when police sought to arrest a drunken youth at a street dance.

Man, 43, Booked On Sex Charges

Thomas Fred Spang, 43, of 62 Wreden Avenue, Fairfax, was booked by Fairfax police yesterday on a charge of having sexually molested four boys.

Police said Spang's arrest followed a long investigation, triggered by the compiaint of one parent several weeks ago.

Four boys, all 12 and 13, are known to have taken part in perverse acts with Spang, police said.

He was arrested in his automobile near his home at 11:30 a.m., and held on $3,300 bail.

It's HUGH TURNER'S turn this week to do microphone interviews at the Northgate Luncheon on Wednesday at the Marin Art and Garden Center... These talks are recorded and then broadcast over KTIM at 6 that same evening. Our sales manager CHUCK PENDLETON opened the series last Wednesday. All six luncheons will be on the air...

AND IT'S a big week for Little League Championship playoffs in the county. JOHN PAGLIARO and JOE BEHN will be on the air from Twin Cities at 6 o'clock Tuesday—and again with the semifinals on Thursday. Saturday at 3 p.m. both boys will broadcast the last of Marin County championship events from the Twin Cities ball park...

FINAL PLAYOFFS are a sad feature of the summer season at KTIMarin, because Little League Broadcasting every night can really get you. But we don't have much time to worry about it, for next comes Pop Warner Football and the fall high school and College of Marin football season. This year we're going to have more live sports programming on KTIM-FM—on Friday Nights, for example...

REMEMBER the College of Marin broadcasts on KTIM-FM last spring? The series was so successful that now the college is planning a 20-week series during the winter school term. Not all panels this time—there will also be musicals... What we're saying is—better buy your FM set now to hear them!

Satellites May Control Insects

By GENE BYLINSKY
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — The uses of waether satellites will gradually expand to cover a wide range of activity on earth: From keeping track of clouds of desert locusts swarming across Africa to computing the distribution of fish in the earth's oceans.

These, and many other economically important uses are envisioned by Dr. S. Fred Singer, dean of the School of Environmental and Planetary Sciences at University of Miami. Dr. Singer was formerly director of the U.S. Weather Bureau's national weather satellite center here.

Twenty years from now, a world weather satellite system, as seen by Dr. Singer, will emerge into an economically important device encompassing not only the atmosphere but also the earth, the oceans and space. Here's the way he believes it will work:

Three large satellites circling the earth in polar orbits at 2,000 miles will be equipped with advanced television cameras able to observe clouds day or night. In addition to supplying weather data they will spot forest fires and alert fire fighters, observe drought and flood ocnditions, areas of the world under cultivation, and "even the state of crops." This would make possible more efficient planning and use of the world's food supply.

Satellites would keep track of ocean ice packs for ships and direct icebreakers. They would measure distribution of snowfall and precipitation. The amount of meltable snow would be calculated from and hydrological forecasts prepared for managers of flood control projects and irrigation reservoirs, and agricultural planners.

"The infrared sensors will monitor the world's oceans and the meandering of ocean currents," Dr. Singer says. "A technique for computing the distribution of fish will have been developed and will make possible more effective utilization of the oceans' resources. Scientific 'farming' of the oceans will become practical."

The satellites' eyes should be able to spot quickly not only forest fires but other conflagrations in time to prevent economic losses. Even activity of volcanoes can be monitored, Dr. Singer predicts. When the satellites sight swarms of locusts, spraying and other measures can be taken to protect crops.

When data gathered by the weather satellites are melded with refined astronomical observations, man may even learn what caused the ice ages. With this new knowledge of extreme fluctuations in the climate, the way may be opened for what he calls "planetary engineering," or climate control.

To fill out the weather picture in remote sections of the world, the satellites would relay to ground stations information assembled by thousands of unmanned measuring units and ocean buoys.

"Every weather station in the world would receive from a satellite a picture of the cloud distribution and other important data covering its own area in additoin to the global analysis," says Dr. Singer.

A forerunner of this system of advanced weather satellites is a nimbus spacecraft scheduled to be launched into a polar orbit on Aug. 6, about a year later than planned.

In late 1965, the weather bureau and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration plan to inaugurate the Tiros operational satellite system. Two weather satellites will be launched into near-polar orbits and will then be turned so that they roll along their orbits like cartwheels.

Tiros cameras will operate when pointed directly at the earth below. The satellites are expected to photograpn the cloud cover over the entire earth every day and will also make infrared observations.

Assessment Protests Not Near Record

Sausalito residents have been protesting their property tax assessments, but not in record numbers.

There have been 269 protests filed so far, with the filing deadline at 5 p.m. today, County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel reported. He said the number of protests is higher than last year and the year before, but not as high as 1959, when more than 300 were filed.

"I haven't kept count, but about eight out of 10 protests have been from Sausalito," Broemmel said.

A flood of protests was expected from Sausalito this year after the assessed valuation was raised 54.9 per cent.

The Marin County board of supervisors, sitting as a board of equalization, has been hearing protests since July 15. More than 100 persons have been heard. The hearings are scheduled to continue until Aug. 10.

Marinite's Father Dies As Boat Tips In Healdsburg

Frank A. Buffi, 58, of Santa Rosa, father of Ronald F. Buffi of San Rafael, drowned Saturday when his boat tipped over as he was fishing.

Buffi was fishing in a small pond in Healdsburg when he apparently caught a fish, moved to land it, and the boat tipped, throwing him and a companion into the water. His fishing pole was recovered, with a fish still hooked. His companion swam to shore.

Buffi owned Buffi's Tavern in Santa Rosa, and previously operated a restaurant and tavern in Healdsburg.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary C. Buffi, Santa Rosa; two daughters, Mrs. Flora Blackwell, Los Gatos, and Dawn Buffi, Santa Rosa, and his son, Ronald.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Rena Phillips, Healdsburg, and Mrs. Jean Silvershield, Santa Rosa; a brother, Gino Buffi, Napa, and eight grandchildren.

The rosary will be recited today at 8 p.m. at Fred Young and Co., Healdsburg. A Mass will be sung at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at S. John's Roman Catholic Church, Healdsburg.

Boy, 8, Injured As Bike Hits Truck

Eight-year-old Michael James Murphy was treated at Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital for a skinned left knee and cut lip after his bicycle collided with a pickup truck at 6:35 p.m. yesterday at Ferris Drive and Thornton Court, Novato.

Police said Michael turned right in front of a truck driven east on Ferris Drive by Robert Frank Pas, 25, of 2049 Carolyn Way, Novato. Pas stopped the truck as the boy's bike hit its bumper. Michael is a son of Maj. and Mrs. James S. Murphy of 16 Lambert Way, Novato.

Home Owners Will Organize

Residents of the San Marin subdivision in Novato will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in the multipurpose room of Marion School at 1705 Marion Avenue to organize a home owners association.

Robert D. Carrow, attorney and mayor of Novato, will provide legal counsel to the group, which will elect a chairman and organizing committee.

Residents who have planned the meeting are Mrs. Clinton Collins, Mrs. Sidney Steele, Mrs. Jerold Vonder Ahe, Mrs. Fred H. Rees, Mrs. Michael F. Hemovich and Mr. and Mrs. R. Allen Bolton.

Court Ruling Puts Woman In U.S. Race

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Genevieve Blatt today became the Democratic Party's nominee for the U.S. Senate, more than three months after the Pennsylvania primary, when the State Supreme Court decided against counting about 6,000 so-called "wrong-line" ballots in Philadelphia.

She will meet incumbent Hugh Scott, Republican, in the fall.

Miss Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, had a lead of 460 votes, out of more than a million cast, over Justice Michael Musmanno of the Supreme Court before today's ruling.

Musmanno had a 1,200-vote edge in the "wrong-line" ballots, so the decision of his fellow justices—the justice himself did not participate—decided the question. The vote was 3-2.

The court merely handed down an order upholding a lower court decision not to count the ballots, saying an opinion would follow later.

Brawler Chooses Wrong Place To Start Fighting

Junior Edward Harris, 42, of Mountain View picked a poor place to start a ruckus last night and wound up in county jail because of it.

San Rafael police said Harris got into a fight with Kenneth Robert Calkins of 321-A Bay View Avenue, San Rafael, at the Mission Inn at 720 B Street — just 15 feet from where Officers Jack Loane and Arthur Myers were eating dinner.

The officers broke up the fight and arrested Harris for disturbing the peace.

He added to the charge before he could be booked into county jail by hitting Wyers twice and elbowing Loane, according to police reports. He landed behind bars booked for assaulting an officer as well as disturbance. Bail was set at $660.

Sheriff Named In Suit For Unlawful Arrest

The Marin County sheriff and a deputy sheriff have been named defendants in a $25,000 damage suit filed in Marin Superior Court and alleging unlawful arrest.

Vern L. Phillips, 39, of 38 Valley Road, Tomales, alleges he was arrested July 24, 1963, without warrant and without "probable cause" and detained 24 hours in the county jail.

Sheriff's records show Phillips was arrested for allegedly striking and stomping Louis L. Sanguinetti, a neighbor on Valley Road, after the latter told Phillips he was making too much noise with his motorcycle.

Defendants are Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Deputy William Christensen. The suit was filed Friday by attorney Arthur L. Lafranchi of Petaluma, representing Phillips.

Accident Victim Remains Unconscious

Twelve-year-old Robert Miller of Greenbrae remained unconscious in Marin General Hospital today, listed in poor condition since he was struck by an automobile while bicycling on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard July 9.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Miller of 30 Corte Loyola, has remained unconscious for 19 days. He suffered fractures of the pelvis and left leg, head injuries, and multiple cuts and bruises from the collision.

Yen province in central Viet Nam.

A U.S. military spokesman said Vietnamese troops had killed 36 Viet Cong guerrillas and captured another in only one phase of the battle. The battle was fought seven miles northwest of the provincial capital town of Tuy Hoa, 235 miles northwest of Saigon.

Phu Yen was one of the quietest provinces until the Reds appeared in the coastal lowlands July 15, attacking in six places. The operation against them entered its second day today.

Khanh said the fresh American troops would be used as additional advisers on the battlefield together with local government and U.S. Army Special Forces troops. He said additional civilian advisers also had been promised.

Khanh said there would be an increase of equipment, such as transport planes and technicians for maintenance and communications.

Taylor and Deputy Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson flew to the mountain resort of Dalat for talks with the Vietnamese strongman. Khanh has been meeting there with his chief advisers for the last two days without announcing any reasons for the talks.

Who Can Relax After Being Hit By Flying Tires?

A funny thing happened to Dr. Adelaide Wyneken of 3 Manor Road, Kentfield, as she was driving to San Jose yesterday to attend a lecture on relaxation.

A huge balloon tire from a souped-up 1948-model car flew through her windshield and bounced out of her slow moving car through the open right-hand window, onto the highway. She was not hurt.

"I have been laughing about it today, but I am still shaking in my boots," she said.

The youthful driver of the car that threw its spare tire "was so apologetic after my harrowing experience," she said.

electorial votes by 67,000 popular votes, with Wayne County (Detroit) providing a margin of 379,000 edge. Detroit has 537,000 foreign-stock residents, including 106,700 Polish, 54,200 German and 33,000 Russian.

Maryland—Kennedy captured the state's nine electorial votes by 76,000, with Baltimore delivering a lead of 88,000. Baltimore has 139,000 foreign-stock residents, including 25,000 Russian, 23,000 German and 21,000 Polish.

Missouri—Kennedy won its 13 electorial votes by just under 10,000, with St. Louis providing a lead of 101,000. St. Louis has 105,700 foreign-stock residents, including 35,000 German, 13,000 Italian and 7,800 Irish.

Of the three target cities in states won by Nixon last time—Cleveland, Milwaukee and Los Angeles—the last-named is the most critical. Nixon barely won California's 32 electorial votes by 35,000 ballots. A key factor was the closeness in Democratic Los Angeles, where Kennedy won by only 21,000 Los Angeles has 807,000 residents of foreign ancestry.

The ethnic populations in each of the 10 cities have been under close study by the GOP national committee since 1961, when Ray Bliss, state chairman from Ohio, was asked to write a special report on the party's big-city problem.

Earlier this year, Rep. William E. Miller, then the GOP national chairman and now Goldwater's running mate, dusted off the Bliss report and circulated it among state and local GOP leaders. In an accompanying memo, Miller pointed out that New York, Los Angeles, Chicago, Newark and Philadelphia can deliver as many electorial votes—156—as 13 southern states plus Oklahoma.

It is interesting to note that although Miller fed New York City into these equations, current thinking does not include New York as a main target city, in spite of the considerable unrest over the Harlem roits. The Democratic edge in 1960 in the city was a whopping 501,000, not counting Kennedy votes on the liberal party ticket.

Goldwater's ballyhooed "southern strategy" — which really is a Southern, Midwest, Rocky Mountain strategy — assumes that the senator can nibble Presidents Lyndon B. Johnson out of the White House by picking up 25 smaller states plus California, Illinois and Ohio.

But Republican strategists who have been working with the Bliss report are hopeful that their big-city strategy, plus the backlash and captive-nations issues, can also deliver Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Michigan and Missouri.

Admittedly not pictured in this rosy formula is the split in GOP ranks this year, a problem Nixon did not have. In the big Eastern states at least, failure to heal the liberal-conservative breach could hurt the Republican vote outside the big cities as well as in them, thus negating any gains among the ethnic groups.

Also, all these 10 big cities have significant Negro populations, and the GOP strategists realistically are not very hopeful in this area. But they seldom have gotten much more than 20 per cent of the Negro vote, and in 1960 that figure only dropped to 15 per cent. A hold-the-line effort is the hope here.

NOT LAUGHING—Teamster's Union boss James R. Hoffa, left, gets a reassuring pat on the arm from an aide as he leaves U.S. District Court in Chicago. There he and six co-defendants were convicted yesterday on charges of fraud in arranging loans from the union pension fund. Hoffa had little to say to reporters. (AP Wirephoto)

Hoffa, Aides Convicted In Union Fraud Trial

CHICAGO (AP) — A jury out for three days found Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa and six others guilty yesterday of a massive scheme to defraud a 280-million-dollar union pension fund.

Hoffa, a trustee of the pension fund, was convicted in U.S. District Court on four counts of fraud and conspiracy and faces 20 years in prison and an $11,000 fine.

Each codefendant was found guilty of at least one fraud charge and one of conspiracy.

The indictment included 20 mail fraud charges and one conspiracy charge.

The men specifically were convicted of fraudulently arranging more than 20 million dollars in loans from the pension fund and diverting more than 1 million dollars to their own use.

Atty. Geo. Robert F. Kennedy hailed the decision and complimented the jury and prosecutors in a statement from his summer home in Hyannis Port, Mass.

Hoffa faces a maximum sentence of $1,000 fine and five years of each of the fraud counts and $10,000 and five years on the conspiracy count.

It was Hoffa's fifth federal prosecution since 1957—and his second loss in six months. In February he was sentenced to eight years in prison and fined $10,000 at Chattanooga, Tenn., for attempting to bribe a jury. He has appealed that conviction.

Judge Richard B. Austin set Aug. 17 for rulings on motions made immediately by defense attorneys for arrest of judgment, a directed verdict of acquittal despite the jury's findings, or a new trial.

One defendant, Benjamin Dranow, 56, a former Minneapolis businessman now serving a prison term for tax fraud, was returned to jail.

Besides Hoffa and Dranow, the defendants are: Samuel Hyman, Calvin Kevens and Abe I. Weinblatt of Miami Beach; Zachard Strate Jr. of New Orleans and S. George Burris of New York.

Herbert Burris of New York, son of George, was freed on a directed verdict during the trial.

Fairfax School Trustees Seeking Two New Sites

Members of the Fairfax School District board Saturday toured two prospective sites for the district's next two schools, then agreed it will take more than just a tour to decide where to build them.

They authorized Supt. Homer Sisk to conduct engineering studies of both sites, as well as a third which was not included in the tour because the board had not secured owners' permission to inspect it.

Sisk said the studies, which will cover such factors as soil quality and accessibility, should be completed by late August.

Surveys to determine each site's exact acreage will be included, Sisk said. Board members seek a site of 15 to 17 acres to permit building a junior high and another elementary school on it.

All three properties are in the area north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard and West of Oak Manor Drive.

Seven members of the Fairfax Citizens Committee Study Group, which has worked with the board on finding possible sites, accompanied the board members and superintendent on the tour.

Fence Is Factor In Boy's Injury

A partly-transparent plastic screen fence on a Terra Linda corner was listed yesterday as a contributing factor to an accident in which a 7-year-old Terra Linda boy suffered a skull fracture and broken collarbone Saturday.

The California Highway Patrol said the fence, at Barberry Lane and Bamboo Terrace, apparently blocked the vision of milk truck driver Edward J. Barnes, 49, of Santa Rosa, as 7-year-old Palmer Thomas Knutson, son of Arthur Knutson of 639 Barberry Lane rode his bicycle into the front of the truck.

Owner of the fence, Everett Clippings, of 623 Bamboo Terrace, has agreed to move it back to eliminate the chance of future accidents, the patrol said.

County Moonlight Report Is Due

Marin County supervisors will get a report tomorrow on the number of county employees who are "moonlighting" and the type of extra work they are doing.

Supervisors, concerned that outside employment might conflict with county work, authorized County Adm. Alan Bruce to survey the situation.

Employees are holding jobs ranging from wood cutters and maintenance men to city treasurer of Fairfax.

Dorothy McGlothin, the city treasurer, was re-elected in April to her third term. She is employed by the county assessor's office.

The board also will receive an application from Television Communications Inc. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. for a permit to place television cable on existing utility poles in the Terra Linda, Marinwood and Santa Venetia area.

Arthur T. Knutson, assistant director of public works, recommended that if the permit is granted it "in no way shall be construed as giving the applicant the exclusive rights for the proposed installation in any of the unincorporated areas of Marin County."

Neither should it imply any franchise arrangement, Knutson recommended.

Other items on the board agenda are setting of a penalty against contractors working for the county who practice discrimination, a report from the regional water pollution control board on the discharge of sewage into Richardson Bay along the Sausalito waterfront and a Douglas J. Maloney on a proposed ordinance regulating the filling of San Francisco Bay.

The meeting will start at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center.

Barry Quoted On Policy Of Brinkmanship

BONN, Germany (AP) — A leading West German magazine says Sen. Barry Goldwater told one of its correspondents: "The only person who is respected is the one who clearly says — when necessary — that he is determined to go to extremes."

"That is a policy that your country and all successful countries have followed throughout the past thousand years," the Republican presidential candidate is quoted as telling Werner Holzer, a correspondent for the weekly magazine Revue.

In a statement issued in Washington, Goldwater said he had not given an interview to the German newsman — "He only asked me a few questions." Holzer said Sunday night he met Goldwater on July 4 at Prescott, Ariz., and told him he had been trying to get an appointment for an interview. He said the senator suggested they talk then and there.

Holzer wrote that Goldwater told him:

"My ideas for a successful American foreign policy correspond generally to the policy of the Eisenhower government and Secretary of State Dulles. You must always show yourself ready to throw in everything if you want to be respected and you are fighting for peace."

The report said Goldwater replied in the affirmative when Holzer asked him: "So a policy of 'up to the brink of war' as Secretary of State Dulles long held to be correct?"

Goldwater was also quoted as saying that differences with President Charles de Gaulle of France could be eased through efforts to meet de Gaulle "part way" in the Atlantic Alliance.

"Gen. de Gaulle is a great man and he governs a great country so I understand completely that he wants to play the role in world policy that he deserves." Goldwater was quoted as saying.

Watch Disappears As He Pays Bill

David Satinover set his wristwatch down when he went to pay the bill after a night of bowling.

That, he reported to San Rafael police later, was a mistake.

When he returned, the $250 watch was gone. So was a group who had been bowling at a nearby lane.

Satinover said the incident occurred about 1:30 a.m. yesterday at the Country Club Bowl, 88 Vivian Way.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

IT SAILED THROUGH THE AIR—Timothy M. Woerner's modified sports car sailed 25 feet through the air, hitting a tree more than 10 feet off the ground, before crashing upside-down into another tree beside shoreline Highway Saturday. California Highway Patrolman Arthur Krebs (left) and Sheriff's Sgt. Robert Bertrand examine wreckage and discuss the accident. (Independent-Journal photo by Bob Hax)

Sports Car 'Test' Ends In A Smashup

A Sacramento youth's "test drive" of his modified sports car Saturday ended in a spectacular plunge over a West Marin embankment, causing near-fatal injuries for him and lesser ones for a Washington woman in another car.

Timothy M. Woerner, 20, was in fair condition today at Marin General Hospital with a spinal fracture and head injuries.

The California Highway Patrol said Woerner apparently was "trying out" his 1957 Austin-Healy roadster, in which he had installed an American V-8 engine, on the curves and grades of Shoreline Highway.

Travelling at high speed, four miles south of Olema, the car spun and slid across the center line, its rear end side-swiping a sedan driven by Craig S. Nelson, 32, of Santa Rosa.

The roadster then leaped 25 feet through the air, sheared off a six-inch tree, brushed against another tree at a height of 10 or 15 feet, and smashed against a third one.

Woerner, thrown from the vehicle, was found 25 feet from the car, on the others ide of the third tree. When rescuers reached him, he was lying with his head downhill and his legs twisted in a barbed wire fence.

Measurements made by the patrol showed Woerner's car skidded 150 feet on the pavement and slid sideways another 75 feet before it left the ground.

A passenger in the second car, Ivy Nelson, 58, of Port Angeles, Wash., suffered minor injuries but was not treated.

Blood Trail Leads To Arrest After Machine Break-In

A 15-year-old San Rafael youth who left a trail of blood after he broke the glass of an apartment house cigarette machine was cited to juvenile authorities by San Rafael police for petty theft Saturday.

Police said the boy admitted breaking the glass in a washroom at 455 Canal Street.

A neighbor traced the trail of blood to another Canal Street apartment building, where swimmers at poolside told police they had seen a teen-age girl and two boys enter a car on the way to San Rafael General Hospital for treatment.

At the hospital, the boy was found receiving stitches on the little finger of his right hand. He told police he broke the glass to take cigarettes from the machine.

San Francisco resident Thomas A. Dam, 37, hit by an automobile while attempting to walk across Highway 101 near Marin City Friday, was listed in "fair" condition today at Marin General Hospital, slightly improved from his injuries.

Dam's injuries included fractures of both legs, multiple cuts and bruises on his head and body, and head injuries. He was hit by the car of John Milich of San Francisco while walking across the highway's southbound lanes.

Flash Leads Firemen On Wild Chase

Growing weary of wild-goose chases for "explosions" that didn't happen, Belvedere and Tiburon authorities have appealed to boat owners not to shoot off bright fireworks over the waters of San Francisco Bay at night.

Police, deputies and firemen went on the latest such chase at 1 a.m. yesterday after someone reported seeing a bright flash in the air, followed by a loud noise.

Tiburon firemen said they soon received four or five calls on the "hot line," then were troubled through the day by other callers using the department's number for information calls.

A search of the area turned up no evidence of any damage, and investigators concluded it had once again been nothing more than a fireworks device shot up from a boat.

It was at least the third such report in two weeks. In appealing for an end to the time-wasting searches, firemen pointed out that it is illegal to possess, let alone detonate, such devices.

Gasoline Can Stolen

Calvin Hall reported to Mill Valley police at 7:27 a.m. yesterday the theft of a five-gallon gasoline can from his pickup truck parked in front of his house at 120 Sycamore Avenue. Hall said it was the second time this has happened and that the thief cut a strap to get the can.

Crosby Kidnap Planner Dies Of Cancer In Prison

San Quentin inmate Wilburn E. Davison, whose plan to kidnap Mrs. Bing Crosby in 1958 was foiled by his runaway niece, died last Saturday of cancer at the prison.

Davison planned to culminate a 29-year career of crime by including Kathy Crosby for $100,000 ransom with which to start a "legitimate business," according to him and his partner in the ill-fated venture, Eugene Kling.

The two intended to kidnap Mrs. Crosby, then expecting her first child, and hold her in a Los Angeles apartment under the care of Davison's 19-year-old niece. The pair followed Mrs. Crosby around for weeks to become accustomed to her habits, then saw their ingenious scheme destroyed when the niece hopped a bus back to Wewoka, Okla., and told a sheriff about it.

The plot was revealed later the same year when Davison was arrested for robbing a market in Lakewood, Los Angeles County, of $25,000. He was then sentenced to San Quentin for several life terms on four counts of robbery, two of kidnapping, and one of passing bad checks.

He was transferred to Chino last Sept. 24, and returned to San Quentin for treatment of his illness July 8.

Davison's body was released to the state for medical research by a brother in Oklahoma.

Youths Admit Thefts From Unlocked Cars

Two boys were cited to Marin County Probation Department, then released to their parents, last night by Mill Valley police after admitting they stole a jacket and a pair of gloves from two unlocked cars.

Police said the boys, a Mill Valley 15-year-old and a Palos Verdes 13-year-old, admitted stealing a jacket from a white Ford convertible parked at the Shell Service Station, East Blithedale and Sunnyside avenues and the gloves from an MG convertible parked at Millwood Street and Presidio Avenue. Police received a telephone call on one of the thefts and found the boys at Miller Avenue and Millwood.

What to do until an emergency happens

Emergencies have practically no sense of fair play. And almost always pick the worst possible time to happen.

People seem to prefer the day your insurance lapses to trip on your sidewalk, for example.

And the car usually waits until your bank account registers empty before demanding expensive repairs.

There's no fighting it. But you can be ready. By tucking away some reserve funds in Savings Bonds.

Bonds, themselves, are emergency proof. You can't lose the money you invest in them, even if fire, flood, robbers or plain carelessness causes you to lose the Bonds.

And when something expensive happens, you can just take them in to any bank and get yourself solvent again.

In the meantime, Uncle Sam uses your Bond dollars to handle other urgent matters, like taking care of your freedom.

Buy Bonds where you bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Get yourself really prepared and you might even discourage a few emergencies from ever happening.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity (7¾ years)
- You can get your money when you need it
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- You pay no state or local tax and can defer payment of federal tax until the Bonds are cashed

Youth Killed After Leap From Bridge

A 23-year-old San Francisco man was killed when he jumped from the north tower of the Golden Gate Bridge at 6 a.m. yesterday.

The body of Richard Heron Gillespie Jr., who had graduated from Claremont Men's College in Los Angeles County, was removed from the rocks 200 feet below the tower by Marin County Coroner Frank J. Keaton.

"Dear Mother," the young bachelor wrote in a note found in his bedroom by Mrs. Audrey Gillespie, widow of General Motors Corp. executive Richard H. Gillespie, "Everything I have done has been a lie.

"Everything Dad did was a lie. I must do away with myself before I cause further harm to people."

His mother said he had not been feeling well recently and was concerned that he possibly was a burden to her.

Mrs. Gillespie had awakened her son early yesterday so he could attend a Coast Guard Reserve meeting.

He left their apartment hurriedly, telling her he was going to get some gasoline. Concerned about his hasty departure, Mrs. Gillespie went to his bedroom, where she found the note on a dresser.

She called the police at 6:05 a.m. and a description of the young man's small tan foreign sedan was broadcast to the Highway Patrol by 6:09 a.m.

Officers found the abandoned car, its headlights on and the key in the ignition, near the tower.

Authorities said Gillespie's death was the 266th known suicide from the bridge.

After the age of 6, fewer females drink milk on an average day than males.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Human Deep-Freeze Proposal May Give Immortality To Man

VAN DELLEN

Predictions are a dime a dozen but rarely does a person suggest a plan to follow should his prediction come true. Robert C. W. Ettinger believes medical science eventually should be able to repair almost any damage to the human body, including common disorders that cause death.

These include heart attacks, cancer, senile debility, smallpox, and other diseases. Those who inhabit the earth at that time might be blessed with immortality.

IT IS HERE that Professor Ettinger proposes a plan that might benefit our present generation. The body of today's man must be preserved indefinitely after death in such a way that he can be revived, cured of his fatal condition, and rejuvenated if necessary by the super-scientist of the future. He tells how this might be accomplished in his book, "The Prospect of Immortality" (Doubleday & Co., New York, 1964).

The professor's optimistic views on this subject are within the realms of possibility. In his opinion, the body will be preserved by freezing. We have a crude technique at present but improvements will be needed to provide suspended death.

VARIOUS TISSUES have been frozen and revived in the laboratory. Sperm endure the low temperatures of liquid nitrogen for some months without losing their ability to reproduce. Perhaps this chilly hibernation can be accomplished through the use of liquid helium for extremely low temperatures and glycerol to protect the cells from freezing damage. Profesor Ettinger discusses at length our present knowledge of those techniques.

The remainder of the book is a followup on what to expect if his deepfreeze method should be adopted. The ways proposed for the repair and rejuvenation of the revived body are still in the science fiction stage. From this point on, he considers the moral, legal, and economic aspects, including the embarrassing problem of coming back to three wives.

ALL I CAN SAY is, the plan will be a miserable blot on the history of mankind if freezing fails to preserve our sense of humor.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

NO TEARS

C. D. J. writes: My 83-year-old aunt has not been able to shed tears for 10 years. She keeps on saying, "If I could only cry." Why is it she cannot do so?

REPLY

A person ought to be able to get satisfaction from crying, even though no tears are shed. Those who lack tears complain of dry eyes rather than, "if I could only cry."

SUPPORTIVE HOSE

D. C. L. writes: I have heard that elastic stockings help the person with arthritic knees but they might cause phlebitis. Are they a help or a menace?

REPLY

A help. They were devised as a treatment for phlebitis and other venous disorders. These stockings also lend some support to arthritic knees, and thus relieve distress.

BREATHING IS AFFECTED

H. D. writes: You said in a recent article that emphysema cripples. What do you mean?

REPLY

The victim of this lung disease may become so short of breath he cannot walk across the room without puffing and coughing.

FLUIDS PERMITTED

L. M. writes: Are liquids with meals restricted on a reducing diet?

REPLY

No, and water is as low caloric as you can possibly get.

Today's Health Hint — Store hoses in safe place to prevent tripping.

Boy's Party Turns Into Big Brawl

PALO ALTO (AP)—A weekend party at the home of 19-year-old Jerry Cannon erupted last night into a brawl between 18 police officers and 30 to 40 party guests and crashers.

Two young men were arrested. A third escaped after having a handcuff snapped on one wrist.

Young Cannon said he had invited a few friends in while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cannon, were on a vacation trip in Los Angeles.

A fight started after several carloads of young men dropped in and joined the party.

Neighbors called police when the fighting moved into Waverly Street.

As soon as Officers Lee Casey and William Kirkpatrick arrived on the scene, they radioed for reinforcements. Sixteen more officers responded.

The officers said they were pushed, shoved and clubbed with pieces of board as they tried to break up the melee and make arrests.

Several officers suffered bumps and bruises but none required hospital treatment.

Raymond Roman, 20, of Palo Alto was at Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital for cuts and booked for hitting an officer, resisting arrest and disturbing the peace.

Richard Bodenschatz, 20, of Palo Alto, also was charged with hitting an officer, resisting arrest, and disturbing the peace.

Bagley Names Eight To Central Committee

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) today announced the names of eight Republicans he has appointed to the State Republican Central Committee.

Bagley's appointees are as follows:

Mrs. H. Lee Sherry of Fairfax, who is now state women's vice chairman; Mrs. Paul Kelly of Santa Rosa; Mrs. Genevieve Grundstrom of Novato; Charles Leminager, Santa Rosa city councilman; Charles Michals of Kentfield, president of the Marin Republican Council; Peter Johnson of Mill Valley; Robert Finche, Los Angeles attorney who was national campaign chairman for Richard M. Nixon, and Harry Keaton, Los Angeles attorney who was president of the California Young Republicans four years ago.

"I have appointed two Los Angeles people, outside the district, and many of my colleagues have made comparable appointments outside of their own districts this year," Bagley said. "This was done to provide a continuing place in the party for many statewide Republican leaders who otherwise would have been left out of the party structure this year."

State Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) released the list of his eight appointments last week.

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City), congressman from the First District, is completing his appointees. Raymond E. Paschke, Clausen's field representative, said the list should be completed by the end of this week.

These appointees to the Republican State Central Committee, 1,030 in all from throughout the state, will meet in Sacramento this weekend to elect new officers.

Fight At Dance Lands Mill Valley Youth In Jail

Patrick Smith, 18, of 126 Sunnyside Avenue, Mill Valley, was jailed Saturday night on charges of disturbing the peace and resisting arrest after a fight with a 17-year-old Mill Valleyan.

Officers Douglas Stone and Herbert Aceret of Mill Valley police were at the Mill Valley Youth Council dance at the Municipal Golf Clubhouse where they cited a 15-year-old Tiburon boy to the probation department on a charge of dunkenness. They were told there was a fight in progress in the card room at 11:44 p.m.

Smith, said police, was arrested after he refused to stop fighting and refused to accompany officers out of the building.

Send me a new trumpet
Address: Anchorage, Alaska

Robert Atwood, Alaska newspaperman and amateur musician, had just put his trumpet to his lips when the earthquake hit. Running outside, he found himself on the ground, arm and trumpet buried shoulder-deep in rubble. To extricate his arm, he had to surrender the trumpet.

One trumpet: a small loss. Perhaps.

The earthquake damage was confined, fortunately, to limited areas. Alaskans are fighting back. Engineering tests are being made to locate safe sites for rebuilding. Materials and equipment are pouring in. Despite a short building season, Alaskans plan to have rebuilding well along by Christmas. Ambitious — but very Alaskan!

Alaskans are going about their jobs. In damaged areas, merchants are supplying their customers. Schools, hotels and public services are functioning. Alaska's splendid visitor attractions and accommodations are open and inviting.

Standard, too, lost heavily, but our service did not stop. Within hours of the earthquake, our products were supplying heat and energy to distressed communities. Today, even as we rebuild, they supply energy for Alaska's reconstruction. We've served Alaska almost 80 years. We intend to go forward.

Bob Atwood's impatience to have a new trumpet is symbolic of all Alaskans' determination to recover life's amenities. They came north-by-west to build that life in their Big Land. They mean to get on with it.

Their courage and optimism make all Americans walk ten feet tall.

Boy Found, Unharmed In Yosemite Search

YOSEMITE (AP) — "I was worried some of the time, but I was never scared," said a 10-year-old city boy who survived eight days without food in a rugged wilderness area of Yosemite National Park.

"I thought someone would find me. I knew they were looking for me when I saw a helicopter fly overhead."

Once-chubby John Ireland Jr. of Los Angeles lived on water and his own body fat as he wandered in the mountainous terrain where nighttime temperatures ranged in the high 30s.

He lost 15 pounds during the ordeal — his weight dropped from 103 to 86 — but doctors said his condition was good.

"It's amazing," said one doctor. "He had nothing but water. The boy is talking, and you'd hardly know he had taken a hike."

Young John wandered away from his family's trailer at Harden Lake campsite July 13 wearing only a thin T-shirt, jeans and leather shoes.

Rangers Gil Hall and Jim Reilly found his Saturday afternoon about three miles from the camp. About 350 men had joined in an air and ground search. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ireland had lost hope and were getting ready to break camp and return home when they learned that little John had been found.

"I'm hungry," were his first words to his parents. The boy had lost so much weight that he had to hold his pants up.

"He used to be pudgy," said Mrs. Ireland, "but we won't have to worry about his little pot belly now."

Young John told of his adventure from a bed in Lewis Memorial Hospital in Yosemite.

"As soon as I knew I was lost, I sat down and started making plans for getting home," he said. "I was worried some of the time, but I was never scared.

"The worst part of it was the cold at night and the mosquitos."

Senate Demos Are Hoping To Pass Aid Bill This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate leaders hope to hand President Lyndon B. Johnson another victory this week by passing his 3.4-billion-dollar foreign aid authorization bill without major changes.

But their chances of matching last week's performance, when they put through the administration's high-priority antipoverty bill, are threatened by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.).

Morse, who has been gunning for the bill for weeks, has a flock of amendments ready, aimed at trimming it by 466 million dollars. He says it could take a week to dispose of them.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, assistant Senate Democratic leader, predicts passage this week without any "crippling cuts."

Before it can get into the foreign aid fight the Senate must dispose of a resolution growing out of the investigation of the financial dealings of Bobby Baker, former secretary to the Senate Democrats. The resolution would require senators and Senate employees to make annual disclosures of their incomes.

Women Complete Placement Class

Twelve women have completed the first class in a program designed to upgrade Marin County Negro workers' chances of finding jobs.

The graduates, trained at Hansell's Business School in San Rafael, are being placed by the state department of employment with the help of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce. The course included typing, bookkeeping, mathematics, business English and other subjects.

In a related program, the chamber has aided the department in placing nearly 400 students for summer jobs. Interested employees may contact the employment office or the chamber.

Legislators, Look Close At Parks Highway Veto

Should the State Park Commission have veto power over the State Highway Commission in matters relating to the routing of state highways through state parks?

Charles A. Deturk, director of the State Department of Parks and Recreation, thinks so. He is asking the legislature to grant this power.

On the face of it, this looks like it may be a good idea.

But let's look closer.

Most of our Giant Redwood state parks along the Redwood Highway sit astride main roads that were main routes before the parks were established.

It would not make sense to give the parks commission power to prevent improvement of a prior existing state highway through a park. Even as old established parks must be improved and expanded to meet increasing demands for their use, so must old established highways.

Now let's look ahead.

If the park commission has highway veto power, could the Redwood Highway ever be completed to parkway or freeway standards through Humboldt or Del Norte Counties?

No matter what route is advanced to by-pass existing state parks, the Redwood Highway cannot traverse Humboldt or Del Norte without crossing or passing through Redwood tree forests.

Most of these are still in private ownership.

But the foes of any route—and every route these days has its last-ditch opponents—have only to get hold of a block of land along the route and deed it to the state for state park use, thereby giving the parks commission veto power over the route.

The net effect of this is to take the question of highway routing away from the highway commission and turn it over to a body without any special qualifications in the field.

As we see it, Director Deturk's proposal is loaded with hazards worse than the problems it aims to solve. We hope the legislature takes a long, careful, thorough look before acting.

When Is A Jay A Blue Jay?

We recently started a minor controversy by calling our common California Jay a Blue Jay. Perhaps we were wrong, as several letters pointed out. We have the books, too, with all the scientific names.

But we doubt that our little nature editorials are read much by the scientists. Their purpose is to entertain and inform the general public about the oddities and beauties of nature in Marin and we claim no special expertise.

We seldom give scientific names and rarely depend on observations other than our own. The California Jay is blue, so we, like many people, called it a Blue Jay.

We won't argue about it. We were wrong and we knew better. Besides, we'd rather discuss something vital, like, maybe, how many angels can sit on the head of a pin.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Ovation For Ike At Convention In Honor Of Former President

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

FORMER PRESIDENT Dwight D. Eisenhower, who refused to come out in support of either Barry Goldwater or William Scranton at the convention, drew a standing ovation at the Cow Palace.

But the applause was more in honor of Ike as former president and wartime general than for what he was doing for the Republican cause in the bitter nomination fight.

He cut quite a contrast with men like Nelson Rockefeller, who went down swinging in the face of boos and jeers. You can't help but admire a man who takes a strong stand in the face of overwhelming odds.

OTHER CONVENTION notes keep trickling in.

Probably no one from Marin got as many souvenirs as did Roy Rhodes of San Rafael. Here is a partial inventory of Rhodes' collection:

Six white seat covers from the chairs of delegates; a can of Gold Water, advertised as "the right drink for the conservative taste"; and a host of autographs from men like Charles Halleck, Rockefeller, Sen. John Tower, Sen. Hugh Scott, Richard Nixon, Thruston Morton, and even one from Roy Wilkins of NAACP.

The California delegation had everything—unity, discipline, weight of numbers, and even Kilroy was there. Delegate John B. Kilroy of Newport Beach.

NANCY KING HAYDEN of San Rafael, who worked with the CBS television news team during the convention, came back with enough anecdotes to fill a whole column.

She was loaded down with badges, passes and buttons to get by the army of guards that stood at every door. You had to have passes for everything—red pass, blue pass, white pass, then a purple one. Things got so confusing that she once waved her car parking ticket at a guard, and it worked!

She shared some potato chips with the wife of Mill Valley's James Walker and bumped into camera-laden Jim Kean of the I-J and commentator Walter Cronkhite.

"Extricated a couple of creepie-peepie camera boys from a tangle with the curtains. It's hard for them to maneuver with the men-from-Mars antenna they carry. I understand they also cause quite a panic when they enter the washrooms."

AS YOU MAY know, it was rough to get any kind of a pass into the Cow Palace. But if there's a will, there's a way. One young fellow from the I-J, who wasn't fortunate enough to get a pass via the local paper, managed to slip inside.

"How'd you make it?" we asked in wonderment. And he flashed credentials showing he was accredited from the Kansas City Star.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

"Since that 'sensation-seeking' Eisenhower attacked the press, it's become a dangerous profession!"

20 YEARS AGO

The National War Labor Board has set up a tri-partite panel in Marin County. Edward A. Culver, plumber's union secretary, was AFL representative on the committee.

A Fairfax resident and a Coast Guard man at Bolinas lost all gasoline ration privileges for the duration of the war, by action of the San Rafael Ration Board. The Fairfax man, who allegedly obtained a "C" sticker by claiming to operate a car pool to Marinship, was spotted driving in Reno; the Coast Guardsman allegedly falsified his paper to obtain an extra ration.

Gettysburg Park Visiting Hours

Editor Independent Journal:

A clipping from your editorial page of June 27, signed by Jack Craemer, has been mailed to me. The final item of the clipping has to do with hours of closing of the Gettysburg Visitor Center.

Because I once lived in San Rafael and have great affection for the town, I am privately as well as officially hurt by these accusations against the National Park operation here. Therefore, this rebuttal.

By way of background, all superintendents of all National Parks are under standing instructions to keep their visitor centers open for as many hours as possible, every day of the year. Our Service is very conscious of owing the taxpayers a maximum use of these facilities they have paid for.

The situation at Gettysburg hinges on those two words "as possible", used above. It is not possible to keep open a mammoth establishment such as this Visitor Center without employees. By my estimate, we could not open the doors with fewer than five persons in attendance on the public. We have enough people on the payroll to run the building ten hours a day, seven days a week—but we do not have a second shift, or even part of a shift, to function after 6 p.m. in the Visitor Center.

Your writer is incorrect, however, is saying that we are not on the job after that hour. Park rangers are on patrol into the small hours, trying to ward off vandalism, to control excessive speeds on Park roads, to protect the Government's property, etc. Park historians also operate a campfire program each evening in the summer, ending about 10 p.m.; last year some 13,000 visitors enjoyed this service. We do not need to apologize for our efforts in these closing hours of the day; every man-hour that is our to employ is put to good use.

Your writer is surely aware that the Federal Government has been successfully holding the line against increases in Government payrolls, seeking to keep down costs and ease the burden to the taxpayer. This is the reason why we do not employ a second shift of people for the Gettysburg Visitor Center, much though we would like to accommodate the public through the evening hours. Our neighbors here in commercial establishments, have no problem: if the traffic will pay for the extended hours of operation, then it is simple enough to employ extra people and to make money fourteen hours a day instead of eight.

Have I demonstrated to your satisfaction that this Park is not being run for the "comfort and convenience of Government employees"? If I have, I feel that you owe the National Park Service a retraction of that ugly comment contained in the second paragraph of Mr. Craemer's complaint. How do you feel about it?

Sincerely yours,

KITTRIDGE A. WING
Superintendent, Gettysburg Military Park

Party Should Come Second

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am 22 years of age and voting the first time in a national election.

To me, the party comes second as far as the betterment of our country is concerned. Mediocre politicians seem to be selected to serve in high places for reasons we all know. After seeing pictures of Senators Dirkson and Keating in the S. F. Chronicle dated July 22, and reading their statements that they would not support Goldwater but would remain Republicans, one does not have to go far to understand what these people stand for and who they serve. They don't have enough guts to say yes or no. Their faces prove that.

A man of the caliber of Governor Hatfield of Oregon is by-passed and not even considered as the Republican standard bearer. It is time for the American people to have their say who the presidential candidates will be. Let's keep everything on top of the table and not in smoke-filled hotel rooms where the actual convention takes place.

The candidate who elects to help the majority of Americans if they want to help themselves gets my little vote. Let's get rid of hate and the stimulators of hate.

JANET TRUSDALE
San Rafael

(For the record, Senator Dirksen nominated Goldwater and is a vigorous supporter of the GOP candidate; nobody who knows him ever accused him of lack of guts. In the California primary election the people spoke; they voted for Goldwater.—Editor)

Traffic Deaths Are Compared

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Looking through some National Safety Council statistics, I noticed these:

Traffic Deaths in 1962 for California—4,104; Connecticut—320. Traffic Deaths in 1963 for California—4,318; Connecticut—335.

More people in California? Let's take a look at the death rates:

Per 100,000 Population — California—24.5; Connecticut—12.6.

More cars in California? That's true, now let's look at the vehicle mileage death rates:

Per 100,000,000 Vehicle Miles —California—5.0; Connecticut—2.8.

Comparisons are always odious. I hold no brief for Connecticut, but I have a few questions:

(1) What is Connecticut doing that we in California are not? (2) Should we try to find out? (3) If California achieved the same traffic death rate as Connecticut, wouldn't some 2,000 Californians a year be saved? (Since the Connecticut death rate is about one-half of California—any way you look at it.)

Two more easy-to-remember figures. The State of Connecticut collects $50,000 per day and the State of California collects $1,100,000 per day in gasoline taxes.

The above information may provide you with some basis for discussion with our highway safety engineers. (Or you may wish to prepare your own editorial or comment.)

L. F. CZUFIN
San Anselmo

(But the number of miles per year per auto is considerably less in Connecticut.—Editor)

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A FABLE FOR our times: A man lived by the side of a road selling hamburgers and weenies. He was hard of hearing, so he had no radio. He also had trouble with his eyes, so he read no newspapers. But his hamburgers and weenies were wonderful, so he did a landoffice business.

At the peak of the season, his son came home from college, and was shocked to hear that he had ordered a bigger stove and cash register to take care of his thriving business. "Pop," cried the son, "haven't you heard? The country is in a serious recession. Things are going to pot!"

The father reasoned, "My son is a senior at college. He reads the papers. He knows what the experts are saying. He must know what's what."

So he cancelled the order for the new equipment, took down his electric sign, and fired the cook. His business fell off 50 per cent in two weeks.

"You sure were correct," the father told his son. "We're in a recession all right. I never would have known it if you hadn't told me!"

AN OPINIONATED mother, when her son went off for his first day in school, sent along this note: "The opinions expressed by this child are not necessarily those of his mother's side of the family."

Supreme Court Opens Doors To Double Revolution In U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court has opened the doors to a double revolution in American life—and given it a new sense of justice — by stepping into a vacuum in race and politics.

The vacuum was created by the failure of the democratic process to wipe out two injustices which the ruling forces—white majorities and politicians—sought to ignore.

The court has angered many with its willingness to act where all held back. But the alternative was to let the democratic process decay, which would have been a confession of democratic failure and national impotence.

THE FIRST revolution began just over 10 years ago when the court on May 17, 1954, declared the principle of racial segregation unconstitutional by outlawing segregation in public schools.

The second revolution began with three decisions — one in 1962, two this year—that elections to state legislatures and the House in Congress must be made more democratic by trying to give all voters an equal voice.

The court has been accused of usurping power. If Congress thought so, it would have tried to curb the court. It did not. Instead, it accepted as law what the court did and has sought to conform to it.

THUS TO THE rest of the world, not entangled in American politics or its racial prejudices, the court stands as an expression of the national democratic conscience at the very moment this country seeks to be a democratic symbol.

While the Civil War freed the Negro, it never in practice made him equal to the white man. The Supreme Court blessed the inequality by making it an official part of American life with its separate-but-equal decision of 1896.

This said Negroes could be segregated so long as the treatment they got was equal to that given white people. The treatment became increasingly unequal, particularly in the South but in the North, too.

THE NATION had more than half a century then in which, through its democratic processes, to remove the injustice, but it sat back unwilling to move even though the rest of the world, with the colonial peoples freed, was rushing through one of the most revolutionary moments in all history.

It was the court, not Congress, which in 1954 finally said an end to unequal treatment of citizens. If the court had not acted, there was no indication Congress would have acted for another half century.

For the first 60 years of this century American politicians largely ignored that other priceless American possession: full enjoyment of all citizens of the democratic process, meaning equal representation.

WHY? BECAUSE these politicians would not yield power. In those 60 years there had been vast shifts in populations from cities to suburban areas.

Although state constitutions required reapportionment every 10 years or so to provide more or less equal voter representation, state politicians ignored their constitutions, did nothing.

Finally, the court stepped in and ordered states to redistrict according to population to give their citizens a more equal say in electing state senators and representatives and members of the House in Congress.

Without this action by the court, the voting inequality could have continued another half century.

Ethnic Group Vote May Go Goldwater

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is receiving blunt advice from Democratic Party leaders on one of his growing political problems —the defection of ethnic group voters to GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Aroused by private polls showing shifts of 10 to 20 per cent among Polish-American voters in the big Eastern and Midwestern cities, Sen. Thomas Dodd (D-Conn.), Speaker John McCormack (Mass.) and Chicago's Mayor Richard Daley have privately called on the president to take a tougher stand on the two major issues affecting these nationality groups.

THEY WARNED the president that he must publicly support a stronger stand against continued Communist expansion and control over the Eastern European satellites.

In one White House meeting, Senator Dodd, a long-time political ally, frankly told the president that if the administration's policy of seeking "accommodations" with the Soviet Union isn't shelved, it could cost him the election.

"Goldwater's charge that administration is seeking peace with Russia at the expense of the people in Eastern Europe is having as much impact on the nationality groups as the backlash from civil rights," reported Dodd.

"The polls are beginning to show this," agreed the president. "You have always been a strong anti-Communist. Nobody can accuse you of being soft. What do you recommend I do to counteract this development?"

"I would be just as tough on the Communists as Goldwater," replied Dodd. "And I would begin by shelving the policy of seeking accommodations with the Soviet Union. This could be done by inserting a strong plank in the platform opposing Communist aggression throughout the whole world."

"IF I DID THAT, would they accuse me of junking Kennedy's foreign policy?" asked the president. "Any major changes in policy would have all the liberals on my back."

"They don't want Goldwater elected," said Dodd.

"You go ahead and draft a strong plank, and I'll circulate it among my foreign policy advisers to see what happens," concluded the president.

Later, Speaker McCormack and Mayor Daley followed up Dodd's conference with meetings with the president in which they made the same foreign policy recommendations.

THE NEWLY-ERECTED memorial to Taras Shevchenko, 19th Century Ukrainian poet and freedom fighter, is becoming a major symbol of the growing differences between the Johnson administration and Republican leaders on policies dealing with Russia and Eastern Europe.

At the historic unveiling of the Shevchenko statue here, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower stirred a crowd of more than 80,000 with a speech that harked back to the "liberation" proposals of the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Highlight of the Eisenhower speech came when he told the leaders of the most influential groups of Ukrainians, Poles and Hungarians in America that:

"My hope is that your march from the shadow of the Washington Monument to the foot of the statue of Shevchenko will kindle a new world movement in the hearts, minds."

Big Day In Life Of Youngster Who Had Never Caught A Fish

RANDY ROBERTSON, 13, Sausalito, former Marin Cerebral Palsy Poster Boy, went fishing the other day at the Ondine Dock with his brothers, Mike and Jimmie, and a pal, John Pedersen. Randy, the story is, never caught a fish in his life.

John's dad, also fishing, asked Randy to hold his line and a stingray hit it. Randy didn't know it because the line went way out. Then all of a sudden he was going up in the air off the dock. John's dad grabbed the pole and, about 30 minutes later, together they hauled in the 80-pounder.

Traffic was stopped on Bridgeway, people got out of cars and took pictures and Randy got the award -- the four-inch barb of the stingray.

Then, the line was thrown out again, and Randy hooked a four-foot leopard shark. He reeled this one in, getting it on the dock, hand over hand with a little aid, and then he dove on the shark. "You would have thought he was Cassius Clay winning the championship," said John's dad.

THE FOUNTAIN was running green in Sausalito's Vina Del Mar Plaza last week. "It's that new water, called green water," said John Minton.

Peter Laufer, 14, editor of the Sausalito Sun, which was first published under some labor troubles at Bayside School, used American ingenuity to attend the GOP convention. He also used his own press card his father had printed for him, reading: "Sausalito Sun."

Before the convention he got past a Pinkerton guard with his card to hear Goldwater speak at the Hilton Hotel. There he got a badge which got him into the Cow Palace Monday. Tuesday he made it with aid of a San Mateo sheriff's deputy. Wednesday he missed the press bus but met Jean Cloutier, French correspondent for the Canadian Broadcasting Corp., who took him to the Cow Palace in a taxi and got him through the gate with a waving of arms and a torrent of French indicating he was going to interview Peter.

On the final day Peter got past the first guard but not the second. At this moment someone drove up who knew Laufer's sister, Suzy, and he had two passes.

"THE TOWN is really talking politics," said Mill Valley cabbie Bob Robertson. "About five out of seven are going to vote against him (Goldwater), and this is a Republican town," he said. Robertson added that the Negro maids are very sure of their vote.

The Duchess of Throckmorton Avenue, that is, Blanche Newby, had a big event last week. Her century plant bloomed, after an estimated 60 years. Rather unimpressed, the Duchess said, "It looks like a 20-foot stalk with hat racks."

You don't dare leave clothing on the line overnight at the Herb Acerets. The other night, according to Aceret, a racoon swiped a pair of green levis belonging to his son, Rich, 13, which had been pinned to the line.

A TIBURONER, who rescued four people when a boat exploded recently in Belvedere, broke his boat's screw in so doing. Applying to his insurance company for recompense, he was told, "Well, did you pick up any salvage?" He said, no, just the four people, one of them being the owner. Sorry, they said, we can't pay anything for that — only for salvage.

The story of the earless, tailless monster on Mount Tamalpais has picked up two new theories: George E. Holmboe, supervisor, Mount Tamalpais State Park, said someone advised him the monster may be a buffalo (American bison), which may have escaped from a herd at Nicasio.

Joe Zapella, Marin Municipal Water District man of the mountain, is sure that the two young men who were waiting at Rifle Camp for their ship to Australia were "so darned hungry that they had delusions." But there will probably be no more wild animal stories for awhile. "The two young men have left for Australia," said Joe.

Do We Make Household Pets Nervous Or Are We Victims?

WASHINGTON—We read the other day that a psychiatrist had just completed a study on pets in the home and had discovered that neurotic families had neurotic pets. That is to say, the pets became neurotic.

The psychiatrist said he had studied dogs, cats, parakeets, and other pets and he noticed that they all tended to take on the characteristics of their masters. If the dog was nervous, the master was nervous; if the mother screamed, the parrot screamed, and so forth.

As the father of a rabbit, two hamsters, and a canary, we were very interested in the report and we tried to fit it into our particular situation.

FOR EXAMPLE, the day after we read the report, we heard our wife screaming, "How many times do I have to ask you people to come to dinner?"

"Hush, mother," we said, "you're making the canary nervous."

"I don't care about the canary. I want everybody at the dinner table when dinner is ready."

The canary started flying back and forth across the cage.

"YOU SEE," we said, "you have made the canary neurotic."

"I haven't made the canary neurotic," she said. "That canary was neurotic when we got him."

"That's not true," we said. "According to a distinguished psychiatrist, household pets become neurotic only in neurotic homes."

Just then our 9-year-old daughter arrived with one of her hamsters.

"How many times have I told you not to bring your hamster to the table?" our wife said.

The hamster started to quiver.

"YOU SEE," we said, "the hamster is filled with anxieties."

"Are you trying to say I'm neurotic because I don't like to eat with a hamster?" our wife said.

"All I'm telling you is what the psychiatrist found out. There must be something to it. We have a canary who won't sing, two hamsters who quiver every time you get near them, and a rabbit who just sits in the corner all day and doesn't say anything."

Our 10-year-old son arrived at the table.

"Have you been playing with the rabbit?" our wife demanded.

He said, "Yes."

"Then go wash your hands. I've told you a million times."

THE CANARY started scratching on the cage.

"There," we said, "don't tell me that canary is happy."

"Has it ever occurred to your psychiatrist expert that household pets can make people neurotic?" our wife said.

"It isn't possible."

"Then why am I quivering?" she demanded.

"Do you think it's possible that you've taken on the characteristics of the children's pets?"

"I don't really know," she said, scratching her nose against the canary's cage.

"Mother," we cried, "you've made medical history."

OFFICE AND WAREHOUSE BUILDING COMPLETED

Now ready for leasing is the new redwood and exposed aggregate building of the D. M. Christensen Construction Co. at 4280 Redwood Highway opposite the Northgate Shopping Center. First occupant of the warehouse facility in the building was Carlson's Express Moving and Storage at the left. Front space will accommodate 12 suites suitable for business or professional offices. An important feature is the installation of a new type of heat pump allowing individual temperature control within each suite. Bushnell, Jessup, Murphy and Van de Weghe were the designers. Landscaping was by Royston, Hanamoto, Mayes and Beck. Redwood Realtors, San Rafael is the leasing agent.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Former Smith Building Filling Up; Pool, Linoleum Firm Installed

Former quarters of L. C. Smith Building Supplies vacated at Irwin Street and Woodland Avenue, San Rafael are filling up rapidly.

Diamond Pool Co., previously at 144 Woodland Avenue, has taken over at 427 Irwin, thereby gaining much more space for pool accessories. Strand Carpet and Linoleum Installation Service, previously at 914 Irwin, has moved into number 429. At the last check there was still a small corner of the building not yet occupied.

MARIN BOAT HOUSE, now at 345 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, hopes to get into its new location this week on the east service road along the Redwood Highway in Greenbrae—depending on whether George Bertram finishes the new building he is constructing there. Marin Boat House will have a dock on Corte Madera Creek, and probably a lunching ramp later.

COMMERCIAL WELDER John Frank Giari of Novato is having a new 4,000-square foot building erected adjoining his present shop at 878 Vallejo Avenue. Larry Vantrease is the contractor. Giari's quarters will occupy half of the building—still larger than what he has now—and the balance will be leased. It should be ready sometime next month.

A NEW PARTNERSHIP to mill and supply doors, sash and windows for large construction jobs like the Golden Gateway in San Francisco and others has been formed by three corporations—Snoqualamie Corp., Mar-Jay Corp. and the newly incorporated Clear Water Enterprises of Howard Collins, Greenbrae. It will be known as Milcon, and divorce the Hopac Corp. (doing business as Twin Cities Lumber Co., San Rafael—under Collins' management) from this operation.

Incidentally, Collins tells me that the Christmas tree farm on the Point Reyes Peninsula will definitely be absorbed in the Point Reyes National Seashore project. The government likes the idea of having all the Christmas trees on the property and would like to see more planted. But they'll never be harvested for the Yuletide now.

GEORGE DEXTER, San Rafael Rambler dealer and big game hunter is off on another trip—this time to the Yukon. He hopes to bring back a couple of prime specimens of big horn sheep to display in his showrooms when he returns in three or four weeks. Any more trophies here and he might as well make the place a museum—moving his cars across the street to Annex Motors. Or else move out the Alaskan bears.

Incidentally, we understand that Ronald Goode, who was sales manager here and recently departed, did so because he secured an American Motors dealership of his own in Alameda.

DAVID B. SHIPPEY of Kentfield, vice president and controller of Di Giorgio Fruit Corp., has been elected to the board of directors and appointed to the board's executive committee. Shippey is also a vice president and director of S&W Fine Foods, Inc., largest Di Giorgia subsidiary. He joined the parent firm as controller in 1959 and was elected a vice president last year. He was formerly with Price Waterhouse and Co.

DAVID B. SHIPPEY
Food company director

TWO MARIN advertising men who had their own agencies have merged to form one company. Oliver F. Smith of Sausalito and Byron Reynolds of Mill Valley will be known in the field hereafter as Smith*Reynolds Advertising, with offices at 44 Market Street, San Francisco. The new agency opens with a combined client list of 23 consumer, industrial and technical accounts, including such firms as City of Paris, A. Lietz Co., Whittlesey, Power and Cameron and Dohrmann Instruments Co.

Blue Chip Weakness Pulls Down Average

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed lower today as late weakness in blue chips pulled down the averages. Trading was moderately active.

The list was mixed for most of the session with selected issues showing strength.

Brokers set the weakness down to general profit-taking on the market's recent upthrust.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.3 million shares compared with 4.22 million on Friday.

Control Data, up nearly 4 points, responded to news of its 3-for-2 stock-split proposal and was pacing the list on volume.

Pure Oil, up a fraction, and Chrysler, unchanged, also were active.

Gains of a point or more were made by Lockheed, Richardson Merrell, United Biscuit, Universal Oil Products and Richfield Oil.

Both the common and preferred of Chicago and North Western were down a point or so while Chicago Great Western common gained a fraction and the preferred was up about a point.

Kennecott, up about a point, responded to settlement of its strike in Chile. Anaconda and Phelps Dodge were steady to a shade higher.

Sunshine Mining, Republic Steel, Du Pont and Jersey Standard were among fractional gainers. Eastman Kodak gained about a point following news of record profits.

Xerox slipped about 2, U.S. Smelting a fraction.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed; governments were unchanged.

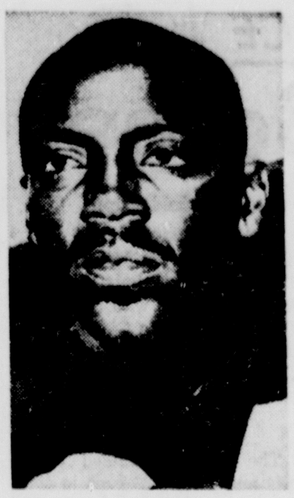
Two Chicago Bear Grid Stars Killed

WILLIE GALIMORE



JOHN FARRINGTON

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP)—The sports world was stunned today in the wake of a careening auto crash which killed Chicago Bears' star halfback Willie Galimore and his teammate, John Farrington.

Galimore, a seven-year veteran who was drafted from Florida A&M University in 1956, and Farrington, a 6-foot-3, 217-pound offensive spread end, were killed in the wreckage of Galimore's car late last night on a rural road.

State police said Galimore and Farrington apparently were returning to their living quarters at St. Joseph College when Galimore's car skidded out of control on a curve.

Police said the car went off the road and overturned, throwing the men from the vehicle. The car then ran over Galimore's body, police said, and came to rest on its wheels.

Farrington was killed instantly and Galimore died shortly after arrival at Jasper County Hospital.

Galimore and Farrington had been training with the Bears in preparation for the College All-Star football game Aug. 7. They had attended a players' meeting earlier in the evening.

The deaths were the third this year involving professionals from the Chicago teams.

Ken Hubbs, second baseman of the Chicago Cubs, was killed shortly before spring training when his private plane crashed in Utah.

The tragedy brought to an abrupt close what Bears' officials had expected to be a banner season for the speedy Galimore.

Galimore, 29, married and the father of three children, started slowly last year after off-season operations on both knees. But halfway through the campaign—climaxed by the Bears' championship National Football League victory over the New York Giants—Galimore was off and running.

He ended his seventh season with the Bears with 321 yards and a respectable 3.8 average.

"Willie was looking better than ever before since he's been with us," said Phil Handler, Bears' assistant coach. "He was going just wonderful."

Galimore, a 6-foot-1, 187-pounder from St. Augustine, Fla., had been living in Chicago.

Farrington, 28, last eason caught 21 passes good for 335 yards and two touchdowns.

Farrington, who was married just after the season ended last year, made vital receptions twice during the championship campaign.

The Prairie View College graduate, who was drafted in 1960, starred in the Bears' 52-14 victory over the Los Angeles Rams last season. The De Walt, Tex., product caught six passes for 76 yards and scored one touchdown.

Farrington, who had lived in Houston, Tex., set a team record in 1961 when he hauled down a Billy Wade pass good for 98 yards.

The tragedy recalled other recent accidental deaths of professional football players.

Terry Dillon, defensive halfback for the Minnesota Vikings, drowned in Montana a few months ago. Don Fleming, also a defensive back for the Cleveland Browns, was electrocuted during the off-season while working in Florida last year.

Tom Bloom, a former Purdue back who had been signed by the Browns, was killed in an auto accident a year ago before he played a game.

Giants Are Sad; Rely On 'Luck'

By JOHN J. CONNOLLY
The Bullpenner

There doesn't seem to be any reason for the Giants capturing the pennant unless you lean pretty heavily on the element of luck.

They are not outstanding in any manner, shape or form compared with other top contenders; they are slower by far; dumber than all get-out; lack coordination expected of a solid contender and strictly are an unpredictable aggregation of hot and cold performers.

Not even the manager, the owner or close associates will say why this state of affairs exists. Whoever you discuss the Giants with will argue they should be no less than 10 games ahead of any club in the league. And would be if they played heads up ball.

Injuries haven't hurt the club nearly as much as disappointments. The club had to swallow a bitter pill with the loss of pitcher Jack Sanford but he wasn't delivering anyhow, like he was expected to deliver. And if you think Billy O'Dell is disappointing, you can place him in the same category as Sanford.

LUCK ELEMENT

The luck element as applied to the Giants will have to come through a rejuvenation of Willie McCovey's bat; Orlando Cepeda hitting in the clinches; Willie Mays returning to his early season form; Tom Haller living up to his catching and hitting potential; and a strong comeback by pitchers Bob Shaw and Bob Hendley, both of whom are now blowing bubbles.

When you discount the failure of the above mentioned against the tremendous impetus of Jim Hart, Jesus Alou, Hal Lanier and pitchers Ron Herbel and Gaylord Perry, you begin to understand why the club just doesn't seem to boil for any length of time.

When the solid players of the club, tried and true veterans, fall by the wayside, not even the glorious feats of the kids can balance the budget.

Luck, as it applies to the Giants, means a return to form of so many factors that sometimes it seems hopeless. At this particular stage of the pennant fight it begins to look like Alvin Dark simply cannot get from his players what they owe the club.

LOOK SILLY

The monicker placed on the Giant hitters, at times, is justified. They are a power-packed group, on occasions, but when they are not hitting they look about as silly as all get-out.

A .300 average should mean something but if the hitter wearing it gets his hits when they don't count, I say he shouldn't be a rave-type hitter, regardless of his average.

Willie Mays seems to be the real spark plug. When he hits the rest of the gang seems to perk up, but let him waver and the bottom falls out of the Giant attack. And nobody, even the Say Hey Kid, should be expected to carry such a load in a pennant fight.

Tomorrow the scene shifts to Philadelphia for three games that could very well have a deadening silence on the Giants' flag hopes. After the Phils the Giants meet the Pirates for four games, then Cincy Reds and St. Louis before coming home to face the tiger-like Milwaukee Braves. It isn't a rosy picture for a power-packed club whose juice right now isn't strong enough to propel a 25 watt bulb.

Big Victory For The Giants

Mays, Hart Hand Koufax 5-2 Loss

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The San Francisco Giants, fresh from a comeback victory over their arch rival Los Angeles Dodgers, girded today for an even tougher adversary—the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies.

Both the Giants and the Phillies had an open date in which to prepare for their crucial three-game series starting Tuesday night.

The importance of the three games increased yesterday when the Giants beat the Dodgers 5-2 to climb within a half game of the Phillies, who dropped a doubleheader to St. Louis.

Manager Alvin Dark nominated lefthander Billy O'Dell, 3-3, to pitch the series opener for the Giants. Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch did not announce his Tuesday starter.

Juan Marichal is scheduled to pitch the second game for San Francisco with Bob Hendley as the starter in the series finale Thursday night.

The story of yesterday's game can be told in a fractured truism: Where there's a Wills there's a Mays.

Maury Wills staked the Dodgers' ace southpaw Sandy Koufax to a 2-0 lead in the second inning with a bases-loaded single.

WINNING RUN

But Willie Mays, held hitless in the first two games with Los Angeles, doubled home San Francisco's winning tally during a four-rung uprising in the ninth against Koufax.

Fast - balling Koufax started out in invincible fashion, fanning the first three Giants he faced. He also fanned the side in the second, but only after yielding a hit to Jimmy Hart and walks to Orlando Cepeda and Jesus Alou to load the bases with none out.

Giant starter Ron Herbel ran into the same predicament in the Dodger second, but did not escape unscathed.

Tommy Davis led off with an infield single. Then Herbel put Frank Howard on with a walk and third baseman Hart fumbled Dick Tracewski's dribbler for an error. Herbel struck out Doug Camilli and got Koufax on a shallow fly, the runners holding. Then Wills bounced a high hopper over Hart's head that scored two runs.

Hart's miscue ended a string of 36 consecutive errorless games by the rookie.

Koufax, who went on to strike out 10 batters for a record 59th time, pitched out of several dangerous situations until the next to last stanza.

Then Mays led off with a single, moved to third on Hart's second hit and streaked home on Cepeda's sacrifice fly to make it 2-1.

Jose Pagan touched off the winning Giants rally in the ninth when he led off with a bunt single and took second on Jim Gilliam's throwing error. Jim Davenport sacirificed Pagan to third then Maury Wills dropped Harvey Kuenn's popup in left field as Jose tallied the tying run.

Koufax got Hal Lanier to foul out, but Mays slammed a two-ball-two strike pitch to left center for a double.

Hart capped it all by lashing Koufax's next pitch into the left centerfield bleachers for his 15th homer.

Jim Duffalo, who pitched the seventh and eighth innings, got his first victory of the season while Koufax took his fifth loss. The Dodger lefthander was going for his 16th victory and 12th in a row.

Gonzales, Laver Win Pro Net Exhibitions

Rod Laver of Australia beat Alex Olmedo of Peru 7-5, 19-17 in another singles match. In doubles Laver and Rosewall defeated Gonzalez and Olmedo 6-2, 6-4.

RUSS SEEK REVENGE IN OLYMPICS

U.S. Celebrates Greatest Win

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—With two World records headed for the books, along with three American marks, the United States celebrated its most decisive victory and the Russians flew home for extra-intensive training for the Olympics Games.

Such was the wind-up of the sixth dual meet between the USA and USSR, whose track and field aggregations are regarded as the most powerful in the world.

A crowd of 55,924 turned out for the final show yesterday in Memorial Coliseum—50,519 watched Saturday—bringing the two-day total to 106,643.

The final scores: In men's events, the United States 139, Russia 97; in women's events, Russia 59, the United States 48; and over-all, the United States 187, Russia 156. It was the first time the United States won over-all.

The Russians on arrival from Moscow said their team was two months behind the Americans, because of the seasons, and with two months to go before the Tokyo Games, it could appear the Soviets will have a busy time in the immediate weeks ahead.

There were highlights for all and the crowd kept up a noisy rumble of approval each afternoon.

The big roar yesterday went to 27-year-old Jim Grelle for his victory in the 1,500-meter run, and Bob Schul as he and 30-year-old Bill Dellinger ran off with the 5,000 meters.

The day before the ovations went to 18-year-old Gerry Lindgren after his amazing triumph in the gruelling 10,000, and the two world record smashers, Fred Hansen, 17-4 in the pole vault, and Dallas Long, 67-10 in the shot put.

The main attraction yesterday was Russia's record holding high jumper, Valery Brumel. But Brumel managed 7-3½ and missed at 7-6 in an attempt to better his mark of 7-5¾.

"The jumping conditions were not real bad, just so-so. The take-off was too soft—just like cotton," said Brumel, who had criticized the jumping area and had it changed after one practice last week.

The American records were set by Ira Davis in the triple jump at 53-11, by Leah Ferris of Honolulu in the 800 meters in 2:08.8, and Willye White of Chicago in the broad jump, 21-6. Miss White placed second at 21-7¾ but it was wind aided and would not hold up as a national record.

There were several outstanding firsts for the Americans in this meet:

First victories in the 10,000 meters, Lindgren in 29:17.6; in the triple jump, Davis' 53-11; the 5,000, Schul's 13:50.2; the 3,000-meter steeplechase, by George Young, in 8:42.1.

It was also the finest showing by the women's team since the meet began in 1958.

There were disappointments for the Americans, too. Dyrol Burleson was unable to run in the 1,500 because of a severe virus attack yesterday morning.

Then Ralph Boston lost in the broad jump, Hal Connolly in the hammer-throw and Randy Matson's third place in the shot put.

1962 Dipsea King Picked For Olympics

Peter McArdle of New York, former winner of the Dipsea race in Mill Valley, and Billy Mills of the Camp Pendleton Marines were named to join the U.S. Olympic Games marathon runners in Tokyo after capturing first and second in the annual Western Hemisphere run.

McArdle, 34, won the famed Dipsea cross country test in 1962. He won the 26-mile, 385-yard Western Hemisphere run in 2:27.01. Mills, 26, a Sioux Indian descendant from South Dakota, placed second in 2:27.29.

Buddy Edelen, a South Dakota schoolteacher, qualified for the team earlier by winning the first trial in Yonkers, N.Y.

The alternates are John J. Kelley and James Green, both of the Boston Athletic Assn. Green finished third here in 2:30.36, and Kelley also qualified in Yonkers.

McArdle has also qualified for the final Olympic trials in the 10,000 meters.

Tiburon Wins Swimming Meet

Paced by Pete Banning with four first places, the Tiburon Peninsula Club swimmers defeated the Terra Linda swim team 178-137 in a dual meet Saturday.

Triple winners for Tiburon were Tom Pickett and Eric Rayner. Double winners were Diane Ring, Ann Boxill, Linda Locati, Dima Birich, Carol Clements, Chris Demont, Danny Airola and Bob Keller.

Double winners for Terra Linda were Barbie Whitbeck, Melissa Hansen, Pam Blair and Jeff Von Lehr.

Flash Elorde Retains His Title By TKO—Near Riot

TOKYO (AP)—Flash Elorde of the Philippines retained his world junior lightweight title today with a technical knockout of Japan's Teruo Kosaka in the 12th round, but the Japan Boxing Commission said it would investigate the fight.

The decision of Filipino referee Jose Padilla to stop the bout caused a near riot.

Many in the crowd of about 8,000 protested vigorously, throwing seat cushions into the ring. A score of Japanese police vaulted into the ring as a precautionary measure, and then escorted Elorde to his dressing room.

The knockout came at 1:45 of the 12th round.

Padilla called a halt after Elorde had floored Kosaka for a mandatory eight count with a hard left, and then staggered the Japanese boxer when he got back to his feet.

Kosaka was also bleeding from a cut over the left eye.

The Japanese boxer was leading in on two of the three cards when the fight was stopped.

Padilla said he stopped it because "Kosaka was in bad shape, and staggering around. The cut over his eye was so bad I thought if I let him go on he might get blind. I could have stopped it in the 10th when the cut opened up, but I wanted to be fair."

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE PENNANT RACE

Lefties Bewitch, Bother Phils

BY U. P. INTERNATIONAL

Johnny Keane, a manager in hot water, resorted to some left-handed tactics over the weekend to take the heat off.

The St. Louis skipper saw his Cardinals skid into an eighth-place tie Friday night when they lost their seventh game in 10 starts. He heard Cardinal owner August Busch call his team "sluggish" and listened to General Manager Bing Devine cite "a combination of failures" on the team.

Keane well might have felt his heave-ho was imminent. After all, he was guiding an eighth-place team which just a year ago chased the world champion Dodgers through September for the National League flag.

But Keane seized upon a glaring weakness of the league-leading Philadelphia Phillies, who quiver at the sight of a left-handed pitcher. He started three southpaws, including a rookie making his first major league start. The result was three straight St. Louis victories and the first peaceful night's sleep for Keane in weeks.

TWIN SWEEP

The Cardinals swept a twin bill from the Phillies yesterday 6-1 and 4-1 behind the pitching of 25-year-old rookie Gordon Richardson, called up from Jacksonville of the International League Friday, and maturing Ray Sadecki.

Richardson held the Phillies to six hits, fanned five and didn't allow a hit until the fifth inning of the opener. Curt Flood, who drove in four runs, Bill White and Tim McCarver each had three hits to support the Colquitt, Ga., southpaw.

Sadecki blanked the Phils until the ninth inning of the nightcap, and yielded only five hits in gaining his 11th victory, one more than his 1963 total. Ken Boyer, who had five hits for the day, was the hitting star.

The Giants took advantage of the Dodgers' porous infield to score four unearned runs in the ninth inning and snap Sandy Koufax' 11-game winning streak 5-2. The triumph left San Francisco only a half game behind the Phillies and marked the second time in three days that the fumbling Dodgers have lost because of infield errors.

The Milwaukee Braves won a slugfest from the Mets 11-7 and 15-10 with their bats and tried to start another with their fists; Pittsburgh lost to Cincinnati 7-2 then won 5-1, and the Chicago Cubs blanked Houston 3-0 in other National League action.

BRAVES EXPLODE

The Braves pounded out 33 hits and scored 26 runs in coming from behind twice in the late innings to down the hapless Mets. Hank Aaron had six hits, including two homers and six RBIs in the twin bill.

Mets' pitcher Frank Lary and Milwaukee's Lee Maye were involved in a beanball incident in the first inning of the second game which emptied both benches. Rico Carty, who had two homers, threw the only punch—at two Mets, but the umpires quickly restored order.

Bob Veale pitched a four-hitter and Willie Stargell clouted a three-run homer to give the Pirates the nightcap victory after Cincinnati captured the opener on Leo Cardenas' grand slam home run. Cardenas' blast helped Joey Jay end his personal losing streak at six games.

Larry Jackson shut out the Colts on five singles and Ernie Banks and Ron Santo supplied all the runs with homers. Banks' blast came with Billy Williams on base in the fourth, his 13th of the season, and Santo connected for his 20th in the eighth off loser Ken Johnson.

VENTURI HOME FOR VICTORY CELEBRATION

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—It was Ken Venturi Day today in San Francisco, home of the popular U.S. Open golf champion.

But before flying off to the city by the Golden Gate, the 33-year-old Venturi with the white cap had quite a day for himself yesterday in the Insurance City Open.

Picture it. There was the National Open king, heading for victory like a man out for a walk. All he had to do was par the 71st and 72nd holes. Suddenly his game collapsed.

Venturi got a bogey on the 71st and a double bogey for a six on the 72nd, amazing the crowd of more than 18,000 as well as himself. He was left with a 273 total, 11 under par.

That set it up for the cliff-hanging finale. Sam Carmichael, 25, a sophomore PGA tourist, and veteran Al Besselink, playing behind Venturi, knew what they had to do to win.

But Sam missed an 11-foot putt that he had to sink to win, and Bessy's bold pitch to the green and possible victory rolled to the apron, forcing him to take two more shots and a bogey five.

Besselink, Carmichael, Paul Bondeson, 25, and Jimmy Grant, a 22-year-old amateur from the home club—Wethersfield—had to settle for a four-way tie for runner-up, one stroke off the winning total.

Ironically, the only greens Venturi missed yesterday were the final two. "But I learned something out there," he said. "I played the 72nd too safe. I tried to make a par on a bogey. I'll never do it again."

While Venturi flew to the Pacific Coast for a parade in his honor and a brief vacation, his first since winning the National Open more than a month ago, most of the other pros headed for the Canadian Open that starts Thursday at St. Luc, Que.

Bobby Nichols, the PGA champion, shot a 279, worth $622. Slammin' Sam Snead fared better. His 277 earned him $1,300. Billy Casper, last year's ICO winner, pocketed $1,750 for his 276, but Julius Boros, Connecticut born and a big favorite, closed with a par-equalling 284, three strokes out of the money.

Cards Stay Put; Atlanta Still Shopping For A Team

ATLANTA (AP)—Atlanta didn't get the St. Louis Cardinals, so the disappointed city is resuming immediately its search to find a professional football tenant for its $18 million stadium.

"Now we'll just begin again and we'll start immediately," said Opie Shelton, executive director of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. "Atlanta has everything to offer."

"Naturally, we're disappointed," said Arthur L. Montgomery, chairman of the Atlanta-Fulton County Recreation Authority, which is leading the drive to build the stadium. "But we haven't given up. We still feel that we will get a good team."

Montgomery said Charles and Bill Bidwill, president and vice president of the Cardinals, called him yesterday to tell him the team would remain in St. Louis. The Bidwills had been considering the move for weeks and had held several discussions with Montgomery and Mayor Ivan Allen.

According to Montgomery, it was a near thing.

"They were set to come," he said. "Just 10 days ago the Cardinal office was preparing press releases to announce their move to Atlanta. The Bidwills had already received verbal approval from other owners in the league. And we in the authority had agreed to some minor changes in design of the stadium offices and dressing rooms to suit the new club.

"That's how close it was," he added.

Montgomery said he didn't know who the city would approach next about obtaining a team. "We plan to talk to some of the other national Football League owners," he said. "We're also investigating the American Football League."

McKINLEY UPSET AGAIN

Ralston Reaches His Peak

HAVERFORD, Pa. (AP)—"I guess this is the best I've ever played on grass," said Dennis Ralston, after winning the men's singles championship yesterday in the 65th Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis Tournament at the Merion Cricket Club.

In the women's division, Justina Bricka of St. Louis won the title by upsetting top-seeded Mrs. Clark Graebner of Shaker Heights, Ohio, 6-4, 18-16.

Ralston, ranked second in the nation, took 55 minutes to upset America's No. 1 tennis player, Chuck McKinley, -61, 7-5, 6-3.

The 21-year-old Southern California collegian served eight love games and lost only three points on his serve in the first set, three in the second and two in the third.

Ralston hasn't lost a set now in over two weeks of top flight competition. It was the second Sunday in succession that Ralston, of Bakersfield, Calif., upset McKinley, his Davis Cup teammate. He toppled McKinley 6-2, 6 2, 6-1 last week in Chicago for the U.S. Clay Court title.

McKinley had no alibis for the loss.

"I guarantee you, I tried everything," he said. "Maybe I should have punted."

McKinley's serve was broken five times.

"I'm tired and over-tennissed, I guess,' McKinley said. "I'm going to take a week off, see the World's Fair, then come back."

Eagle Is Finally Beaten

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Constellation, sailing with both a spare mast and a change of helmsmen, beat her America's Cup rival American Eagle yesterday for the first time.

The yachts, both new this year, finished 29 seconds apart after a 24-mile triangular race.

Two other 12 meter sloops participated, Boston's Nefertiti, which finished third, and Norsage, a British trial horse which was fourth and last.

Robert Bavier was at the helm of Constellation in place of her regular skipper, Eric Ridder who took over Bavier's role as tactician in the afterguard.

The duPont-financed American Eagle had been unbeaten this year, although Constellation was leading in a race last week which was called off midway due to fog. Bavier took the helm of Constellation that day, too.

Constellation broke her regular mast two days ago and raced yesterday with an aluminum spar hastily taken out of Nereus, an older American trial horse.

A fifth 12 meter sloop, Easterner of Boston, elected to race in a handicap class for larger yachts. She finished first and was expected to have saved enough time to be first also after the handicaps had been computed.

Ex-Giant Spencer A Hero In Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Daryl Spencer's 23rd home run of the season was just enough to keep the Hankyu Braves in first place in Japan's Pacific League yesterday as they split a doubleheader with the last-place Kintetsu Buffaloes.

Spencer, formerly with the San Francisco Giants and St. Louis Cardinals, hit the homer with one on base in the seventh inning and gave the Braves a 3-2 victory in the first game. Spencer also scored the tying run in the eighth inning of the nightcap, but the Buffaloes won out in the ninth 3-2.

Larkspur Kids Win Little League Title

Charles Flynn of the Larkspur Lumber team beat Rick LaFranchi of the Nicasio Red Sox in a pitchers' duel Saturday and with the victory went the championship of the California District 3 Team Champions Little League Tournament.

The Larkspur team, champ of the Larkspur-Corte Madera Twin-Cities Little League, nipped Nicasio 1-0 in the last inning of a thrill-packer game played on the Hamilton Air Force Base Little League diamond. Nicasio won the title of the San Geronimo Valley Little League.

After going through five scoreless innings, Larkspur's Phil Brooks led off the top of the sixth frame by getting on base via an error. He advanced to second on a passed ball and then moved to third on another passed ball.

Marty Hansen then followed with a grounder to shortstop and Brooks sped home with the lone run of the game.

Flynn allowed only one hit and struck out 14 batters. After Larkspur scored its winning run in the top of the last inning, Flynn protected it by pitching three straight outs in the bottom of the inning, two of the outs being his 13th and 14th whiffs.

LaFranchi also did a great job on the mound in a game that was tough to lose. He struck out 13 and allowed 5 scattered hits.

"You'll have to look a long time before you find a team that plays together as well as these kids," said winning manager John Tucker. He added that seven of the boys on the team have been playing together on that team for three seasons. It was their second straight league championship, but this time it was stretched to the championship of Marin County.

The Nicasio runner-up tournament team, managed by Will LaFranchi, made a fine showing in the first tournament entered by the Nicasio boys.

LaFranchi and Nick Kobseff, one of the most avid baseball buffs in Nicasio, and Marin for that matter, point out the fine job the kids did by going all the way to the finals.

The thinly populated Nicasio area doesn't have many boys to choose from. The fact of the matter is that "every Little League-aged boy in Nicasio is a member of the team," said LaFranchi. When tryouts were held, 15 tried out for the team and none was cut. That's a pretty remarkable feat, wouldn't you say?

Upset, Close Play Highlight Marin Tennis Tournament

Unseeded Steve McDonald upset fourth-seeded Mark Stephens in the boys 14 singles division of the Marin County Junior Tennis Tournament in one of the highlight matches over the weekend.

Fourth-seeded Janie Patton survived two close matches to remain in contention for girls 14 championship honors. She defeated Charlotte Richards 7-5, 8-6 on Saturday and then downed Margie Smetana 6-4, 6-8, 6-2 yesterday.

Second-seeded Sue DeBerry rallied from behind in both sets to defeat Lynn Reese 6-4, 7-5 in girls 16 singles, and second-seeded Kevin Brink edged Steve DeMartini 8-6, 7-5 in boys 10 singles play.

Longest match of the weekend was one involving Mike McPherson and John O'Mara in boys 12 singles. It started on Saturday and after each boy won a set, the match was called because of darkness. The two boys returned yesterday and O'Mara finally won the third set of the match which took nearly four hours of playing time to complete. He won 2-6, 11-9, 6-3.

The tournament will resume action next Thursday when the doubles competition starts. The tourney then will continue Friday and Saturday, finals scheduled on Saturday.

'Centrals' Top Marin Pony Title

Central Marin All-Stars combined great pitching with timely hitting to win the Pony Baseball Area Tournament championship over Southern and Northern Marin and Novato-Hamilton Air Force Base teams over the weekend at Petaluma.

The Central Marin team, composed of boys from Larkspur, Corte Madera, Ross, Kentfield and Greenbrae, return to Petaluma this week to battle All-Star aggregations from Sonoma, Sebastopol and Petaluma in the District Tournament starting Thursday.

In sweeping to three victories over Marin opponents last week, the Central Marin team's pitching staff allowed only one run. In the opening game on Thursday it was a nine-inning, 1-0 win over Southern Marin followed by a 3-1 edge over Novato-Hamilton on Saturday and another 1-0 victory over Northern Marin yesterday. The latter two games were in regulation seven innings.

THE HEROES

Yesterday's championship game heroes were pitcher Keith Valk who went the distance on the mound and Mark Davis whose last inning home run provided the winning margin.

Saturday Jim Peters went the distance on the mound against Novato-Hamilton.

In Thursday's extra inning affair Jim Peters' ninth inning homer broke up the scoreless deadlock. Winning pitcher was Ken Johnson in relief of starter Keith Valk.

Other boys on the Central Marin team are catchers Ray Biaginni and Bob Torrey, pitchers Larry Hoffman and Jeff Smith, first baseman Barry Ott, second baseman Herb Rowland, shortstop Duke Herrero, third baseman Bob Decker, utility infielder C. T. Edmundson and outfielders Jim Scoville, Jerry Handlos and Mike Hollis.

Manager is Charley Valk. Coaches are Gene Massena and Dick Simpson.

B-H BUILDERS WIN, NEAR SEMI-PRO TITLE

Rolling to their seventh straight Marin Semi-Pro Baseball League victory without yet tasting defeat, the Billings-Hutchison Builders bopped the Tiburon Sox 8-2 yesterday at Albert Park in San Rafael.

Superb on the mound for the Builders was Jerry DeRosa who notched his second league win, allowing only four scattered hits. DeRosa had a perfect game going until the fifth inning when Mike Walsh ended such thoughts with a double to right center.

The B-H nine led throughout the game and did most of its damage in the fifth inning, scoring five runs. Leading the Builder hitters were Mike Dunne and John Brookman, each with three safeties. Tom Reardon had a pair of singles.

Mike Walsh led the Tiburon attack with a single and double. Losing pitcher Skip Rush worked the entire game for Tiburon, allowing 11 hits and striking out six. Errors and walks also hurt the Tiburon nine.

With only three more games to play in the league, the Billings-Hutchison nine leads the pack by two and one-half games.

Mill Valley Rally Nips San Anselmo

A four-run uprising in the bottom of the ninth inning gave the Mill Valley Merchants a narrow 9-8 decision over the San Anselmo Merchants yesterday in Marin County Semi-Pro Baseball League action on the Project 17 diamond in Mill Valley.

A pinch hit single by Tom Austin tied things up and then a sacrifice fly by pitcher Keith Fraser gave the Mill Valley delegation the winning run and also his personal third victory without a defeat. Fraser was working in relief of starter Dave Perlis.

GREAT DAY

Sandy Slack had a great day at the plate for Mill Valley, rapping three singles in four trips to the plate. Losing pitcher Steve Miller and rightfielder Mike Telegin each collected three singles to lead the San Anselmo attack.

The win kept the slim title chances alive for Mill Valley which remains in second place two and one-half games behind the leading Billings-Hutchison Builders. The loss by San Anselmo snapped a three-game winning streak.

Novato Cops 15 To 13 Donnybrook

The Novak Builders of Novato tripped the baseballers of DeMaestri's Fairfax Garage 15-13 yesterday in a 10-inning donnybrook that lasted more than four hours on the Memorial Park diamond in San Anselmo.

Winning pitcher Ron Grayson went all the way, giving up nine hits.

Vince Pallavicini smashed a terrific grand slam homer and finished up the day with six runs batted in to highlight the Fairfax offense. Al Bovee had three singles and John Odetto had a home run for Fairfax.

Laddie Richardson was tagged for his third loss. Novato's entry in the Marin Semi-Pro League amassed a total of 17 safeties, led by Ron Rowell, Tom Corder and Bob Phillips, each with three hits. Phillips' hits consisted of two doubles and a single.

The Garagemen and Novak Builders are now tied for the bottom spot in the league with 2-5 records.

Fairfax Man 2nd In Harbor Swim

Bob Cunningham of San Francisco won and Norman Petersen of Fairfax was second in the 16th annual Yacht Harbor Swim put on by the South End Rowing and Swimming Club of San Francisco yesterday.

Cunningham completed the two-mile short line course from Crissey Field to the end of Aquatic Park in 36 minutes and 8 seconds and Petersen was clocked in 38:26. Nine swimmers competed.

Palmer Exhibition Match Cancelled

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP)—A benefit golf match featuring Arnold Palmer was canceled yesterday, Stan Dudas, head pro at the Princeton Country Club, said he understood the benefit was called off because of an 11th hour protest by sponsors of Insurance City Open in Hartford, Conn.

But Jim Gaguin, director of the ICO, said in Hartford that the ICO sponsors "played no role whatsoever" in the cancellation.

Dudas said he understood the sponsors of the ICO, which ended yesterday, quoted a Professional Golfers' Association rule forbidding members from appearing in any other tournament or exhibition within 200 miles of a PGA-sponsored tourney. Hartford is 192 miles from Princeton.

Andy Moffat Is Tennis Winner

Andy Moffat, 11-year-old Mill Valley youngster, won the boys 12 singles title in the fifth annual Redwood Junior Tennis Championships yesterday at Redwood City.

Woman Flier Stocks Lake With Salmon

LACONIA, N. H. (UPI) — The ladies have scored another first—the planting of landlocked salmon by airplane.

The State Fish and Game Department says Mrs. Shirley Mahn, who pilots her own plane and already is something of a living legend in New Hampshire, accomplished the feat in Lake Winnipesaukee.

Trout and some other fish have been stocked successfully since 1947, but the department said it was the first time salmon had been stocked from the air.

Mrs. Mahn, with Fish and Game official Robert Knowlton as co-pilot, dropped several thousand salmon into the lake from about 75 feet.

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION ABC

One in a series of messages to advertisers

No myths or mysteries, just the facts

The finest advertising doesn't have a chance unless it is seen or heard. The circulation of an advertisement is vital to its success. And, circulation is people ...not the number of advertisements printed or anticipated or projected.

No advertiser can afford expensive guessing. Positive proof of circulation should be demanded. Vague generalities should be discounted. Charts, formulas, and promises are not readers, and can lead your advertising off sales target.

The actual circulation figures...verified count...of this newspaper are available through the report of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

Exactly how many units of your advertising are delivered into the hands of paying customers? How much do they pay to see your advertising? Where and how is this advertising being delivered?

This is the type of circulation information that helps keep your advertising and advertising budget aimed in the right direction. No camouflage, just facts and figures.

Insist on circulation proof when you buy advertising—be ABC-sure.

Karen Ives Bride Of Miles Eisenman

Karen Ives became the bride of Miles Alan Eisenman Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church of Mill Valley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Edward Good of Mill Valley, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Eisenman of Tehachapi.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride recited her vows in ring rites performed by the Rev. Elton Vickers.

She wore a full length gown of ivory peau de soie with full skirt trimmed with appliques of seed pearls.

Maid of honor was her sister, Sharon Webb, and bridesmaids were Irene Ritson of Sausalito and Mrs. William Feeney and Paula Morgan of Mill Valley.

They were gowned in full length organza dresses with a frame skirts — the maid of honor in rose pink and the other attendants in lighter pink.

Best man was Edward Weber, and ushers were the bridegroom's brother, Ross Eisenman of Pasadena, and Charles Ryon and William Clark.

Reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the reception hall of the church. After a honeymoon at Anchor Bay the newly married pair will live in San Rafael.

Karen was graduated from Tamalpais High School and will continue in her second year at the College of Marin in the fall.

Her other brothers and sister are Frank Ives and Morrison Webb of Sacramento, Mrs. Tina Strand of San Francisco and Dennis, Kevin, Robin and Kirk Good of Mill Valley. Her grandmother is Mrs. Viola O'Neil of San Francisco.

Miles attended Techachapi High School, Bakersfield Junior College and Oklahoma State University. He is now attending the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary.

His sister is Avis Eisenman, who is with the Peace Corps in Nigeria, and another brother is Bruce Eisenman of Oklahoma.

Feminine Foot Sizes Vary The Most In California—

NEW YORK (UPI)—Any modern Prince Charming trying to trace his Cinderella with a glass slipper had better do some market research before stepping out.

If the slipper he has in hand happens to be an "A" in width, he's better off starting his search in Texas, Kansas, Nebraska or any midwestern state where most women rarely have feet wider than a "B."

IF THE SLIPPER is very wide, meanwhile, he's best advised to start in Minnesota, where the shoes that really fit come in great length and breadth.

The vast regional difference in feet and shoe size preferences has been collected for many years.

Paul Flynn, product manager of a shoe firm, has been keeping America's shoe sizes for 38 years. He said one shoe may come in as many as 112 sizes and widths from "AAAA" to "EEE."

DURING THE LAST several years, the most diverse call for size ranges comes from California.

Flynn said that's probably because persons from all over the nation have moved to California, bringing with them their own special ethnic characteristics.

ON THE OTHER HAND, the East is notorious for wide widths, going to "C," "D," and "E."

Feet have been changing slowly but surely over the past few generations. Flynn said women's feet have grown a full size in the past 20 years. They are getting narrower as they get longer. Size 7 is today's average size.

What's On Top That Counts

Apparently, or at least according to most women, it's what on top—and not what's up front—that counts.

Come what may, 86 out of 100 head for a session under the dryer on a regular basis leaving problems of nuclear peril, presidential primaries and school boycotts far behind. Be it feast or famine, a bullish or bear-like market, the ladies keep stepping up and the hairdresser will be with you in a moment.

The latest survey still confirms the fact that a woman's place is in the beauty salon as well as in the home. And if the sales figures for television dinners have been skyrocketing, it just well may be because much of the funds for the salon visit come out of the part of budget that is earmarked "house money."

WOMEN IN UPPER income groups tend to be the ones that turn house money into hair-do money, while those with husbands who have thinner paychecks often pay the beauty salon from their own salary. In any case, the man in the household isn't complaining. "My husband just wants me to keep my hair looking nice," said one as she came out of the dryer. "I just pay it; it's a necessity," shrugged another.

Eighty-five per cent of the women surveyed asked for a shampoo and set when they called to make their appointments. And when they waltzed out with a shining head of hair and a new outlook on life, they left behind an average of $3.53 in exchange.

Most women will also rush to the phone and call their beautician when fashion dictates an important new look and the neighborhood style-setter appears newly-coiffed. The newest hair-dos are sophisticated in feeling with large loopy tendrils, smooth, sleek lines, chignons, twists, and rolls.

In the summer, most women shear their crowning glory to make it easier to care for.

Almost two out of five modern-day Cleopatras think that a bit of a change in hair color may help. Almost one out of 10 women use hair coloring once a week, and two in 10 once or twice a month. The statistics show that the use of hair color goes up with age and the amount of cash in the bank.

But psychologists who are trying to chart the female logic will turn grey at some other revelations in the survey. A company which has been making hair preparations for 64 years now discovered that 77 per cent of the ladies avowed that they were satisfied with their present hair style.

Teen Players To Present Capek Comedy

The Teen Players, a branch of the Art and Garden Junior Theatre, will stage their second annual production, "The World We Live In" on Aug. 2 and 3, at 8:30 p.m. in the Barn at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross.

Under the direction of Marion Hayes Cain, more than 40 teenagers will perform in this comedy written by Josef and Karel Capek and originally produced at the National Theatre of Czechoslovakia. In past years the play has been popular with Marin County audiences, having been presented twice by the Mountain Players and at one time was the Ross Valley Players' summer vehicle.

A satirical fantasy, in which analogy is drawn between insect and human behavior, the play will be staged in the round, with sets and costumes designed and made by the Teen Players.

Heading the cast as the Vagrant is Bill Longenecker, along with Sue Mellerup, Nedra Ruiz, Claudia Chuche, Pam Myers, Aric Van den Akker, Cathie Bush and Margaret Tuck. Others appearing are Will Salomon, Ray Ramirez, Jim French, Peter McCoy, Madelon Walsh, Tracy Cavit, Reggie Ruggiero, Joan Breyer, Bob Foster, Sue Walsh, Chris Larkin, Ellie Eschen, Donelle Rathbone, Ted Herrmann, Joyce Hartwick, Donna Suthard, Geordie Arnold, Louise Nemschoff, Heidi Lerner, Marc Schmid, Tim Morgan, Linda Gue, Don Irey, Don Carroll, Alex Herrmann, Sherrill Swan, Marcia Lyon, Darlyn Dalka, Barbara Salomon, Debbie Zeller, Terry Weese, Liz Stevenson, Ann Sciaroni, Gilbert Leistner, Bob Herrmann and Carolyn Brockbank.

Co-chairmen for the summer activities of the Teen Players are Mrs. William Bush of Corte Madera and Mrs. Richard L. Foster of Greenbrae.

SNCC Friends Form In Marin

A new organization here is the Marin County Friends of SNCC, formed to aid the Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee civil rights work. The local group, primarily composed of women, is concentrating on fund-raising, and will collect clothing and books for civil rights workers in Mississippi.

The work by SNCC there is mainly voter registration. Costs of the Freedom Schools which are a part of this project, as well as costs of office space and the wages of SNCC field secretaries are some of the expenses which the money raised will help to meet.

Chairman is Mrs. Joseph Moore. Mrs. Donald Gillis is secretary-treasurer. Others on the board are Mrs. Paul Rosenthal, Mrs. Edward Radenzel, Mrs. Robert Greensfelder and Juanita Vincent, all of Mill Valley and Giovanna Kirby of Belvedere.

Make Instant Soap Pads For Traveling

Stow a bar of soap, a washcloth, and a strip of plastic in your purse or make-up case while traveling. When you stop for a meal or a rest, tuck the plastic into the neckline of your dress or blouse to protect it from moisture. Then lather up your face and neck, rinse off, apply fresh makeup — and you will feel like a new woman.

Here's how to make instant soap pads for travel, hikes, or picnics. Soak folded paper towels in a dense soap solution. Then dry these soaped-up towels over an outdoor line. They will pack compactly for the trip, and need only to be immersed in water to serve as pre-soaped washcloths.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

"This recipe came from that African explorer's book I'm reading, with veal substituted for missionary."

Be sneaky

Don't tell a soul, but there's a wonderful new place in Honolulu called the Kahala Hilton. A gorgeous estate, right on the beach. Bordered on three sides by the golf course and tennis courts of the Waialae Country Club. It's only 15 minutes from the bustle and bazazz of Waikiki, but hardly anybody's found out about it yet. So please keep it that way . . . just steal away from the crowd and be prepared for pampering. Fabulous food, sumptuous suites, superlative service. A wide sweep of coral-free beach. An enormous swimming pool. A lovely lagoon to sip cocktails by. And nobody to bother you.

The cost? Surprisingly low. From $12 a day per person for a double room that's twice as big as normal.

So don't breathe a word. Save it for when you get back and tell your friends what they've missed. They'll hate you.

Mrs. Norris Brill has been installed as the president of the Hamilton Air Force Base Officers Wives Club for 1964-65.

Mrs. Brill, wife of Lt. Col. Brill, director of administrative services with the 28th Air Division, said she felt very fortunate when her husband was transferred to Hamilton.

Assisting Mrs. Brooks are chairmen Mesdames Paul Gawthorp, bridge; Jack E. Umbaugh, bowling; William T. Roberts, golf; and Harold W. Grace, arts and craft; Mesdames William F. Wolfe, secretary, David S. Woods, assistant secretary; Rex Benjamin, treasurer; Nathan R. Blondin, first assistant treasurer and Robert E. Evans, second assistant treasurer.

Topless Hat

Leave it to the milliner Mr. Fred of John Frederics to get in on the topless act. Fred designed a wide, double-brimmed hat to go with the topless bathing suit. The under layer of the brim, of fabric, unfastens to come down over the chest, criss-cross and tie with narrow binding across the back. It was what the milliner called, "In case of raids, lower the shades—of your John Frederics hat."

BEWARE—PARIS MILLINERS

By LUCIE NOEL

PARIS (AP) — Paris milliners, faced with a hatless era, are straining to "lend the finishing touch" and "elongate the silhouette."

Top independents and those with ties to high fashion houses will show their creations, for every occasion, during the major Paris fashion showings that begin today.

"The hat stylists are geniuses. They have taken over," complained Germaine Legroux, hat designer for Balmain. "Today we have the toughest profession in the world. When a woman comes in and says, 'Make me a hat that does not look like a hat,' it is a challenge."

Mrs. Legroux said the day of the blocked hat, which sold 50 to 70 a day even in the darkest years, is over.

Vacuum Best Defense Against Moths

NEW YORK (UPI)—"Snug as a bug in a rug" may be a cozy thought. Applied to your household carpeting, it conjures a frightful prospect — moths.

Happily, the beasts chomp and fill their tummies in the dark woof and warp of your broadloom.

The right time to route the pests is the minute you suspect your carpet is inhabited. Declare war also immediately after finding a moth hole in upholstered furniture or in clothes.

The damage is done by the larva, a ravenous critter that looks like a tannish-bronze worm.

The best defense is the vacuum cleaner.

—FOR RUGS: This battleground should first be cleaned of spots, grime and dust. Moths love dirty wool. After vacuuming and shampooing, use the cleaner to give the moths a lethal spray of moth-proofing mist. Spray both sides.

—FOR CLOTHES: Here the area of attack is much smaller. Dry clean the clothes and put them inside the closet. Then fill the de-mothing attachment of the vacuum cleaner with moth crystals and put it on the closet floor with the switch on. Close the door and seal it with newspaper wadding. Plug in the vacuum and let it run for four hours. Remove the cleaner and reseal the closet at once. Leave it closed for 72 hours to complete the job.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, July 27, the 209th day of 1964 with 157 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Mars and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1777, the Marquis de Lafayette and other foreign officers offered their services to the Continental Congress.

In 1919, a race riot at a Chicago beach killed 38 persons.

In 1959, plans to form a third major baseball circuit to be known as the Continental League, was announced.

In 1963, a massive earthquake struck Skopje, Yugoslavia, killing more than 3,000 persons.

A thought for the day — American writer F. Scott Fitzgerald said: "Show me a hero and I will write you a tragedy."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

You Shouldn't Be Generous When Playing Your Trumps

Playing a certain kind of bridge hand is like stalling until the other fellow picks up the lunch tab.

The idea is to make him spend his money without spending any of your own. (I'm not naming any names, but certain friends of mine have a head start on learning this play.)

Opening lead — ◇ 10

When this hand was played, East won the first trick with the ace of diamonds and returned the king of clubs.

FIRST CLUB

Declarer thought about refusing the first club trick (which would have worked well in this case) but was afraid that West would ruff the second club.

At any rate, declarer won the first club trick with dummy's ace and led the queen of hearts from dummy. This play showed South's generosity but there was nothing else to recommend it.

West gladly captured the queen of hearts with his ace and returned his remaining club. East won and led a third club through South, and that was the end of declarer.

SETTING TRICK

West was sure to get the setting trick with a trump. If South ruffed low, West would overruff. If South stepped up with the king of hearts, West would discard; but then West would still have the ten and nine of trumps with dummy's jack as the only higher trump out.

South should make game and rubber by playing the trumps less generously.

After taking dummy's ace of clubs, South should get to his hand with a spade and lead a low trump toward dummy. The idea is to make West take his ace of hearts without getting anything for it.

HEART ACE

If West takes the ace of hearts, dummy plays low and saves both the queen and jack. West can lead his remaining club, but when the third club comes through, declarer can step up with the king of hearts and draw the rest of the trumps with dummy's queen and jack.

If West refuses the first trump trick, dummy wins with the jack, and declarer enters his hand once more with a spade to lead another low trump toward dummy.

West must take his ace this time and lead a club, but South is still able to step up with the king of trumps on the third round of clubs to lead a trump to dummy's queen and thus draw the last trump safely.

QUESTION

As dealer you hold:
♠ J 9 8 6 5 2
♥ 3
♦ A 4
♣ K Q J 10.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade.

You have 11 points in high cards and 3 points for distribution. This is enough for an opening bid, especially when you have a 6-card spade suit.

New Map Sought For Redistricting

A committee to draw up a map for proposed redistricting of Marin supervisorial districts has been appointed by the Marin County Farm Bureau.

Former supervisor James Marshall of Tomales, who will head the committee, said no action has yet been taken by the group.

The board of supervisors drew a stop-gap set of boundaries in January, and supervisors have indicated since they hope to adopt a new map before the November election. So far, however, they have not done so.

60 Are Taking Job Training

More than 60 persons are taking classes in Marin County which have been financed through the Federal Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962, Edwin W. Ayer, manager of the State Department of Employment in San Rafael, said today.

Classes for nurses' aides, secretaries and typist-clerks are being held and a new course for janitorial maintenance men has been approved and will start next Monday.

The current class of nurses' aides will be ready for employment Aug. 17 and the janitors will be available by the end of next month, Ayer said. A few clerk-typists who have completed the 20-week training course are still seeking employment.

Babcock Group Elects Aides

They succeed William A. Marcus of San Rafael, former president of the endowment, and Dr. M. F. Hazeltine of Ross.

Other members of the board include William Schwarzer of Mill Valley and A. Crawford Greene Jr., Doris Schmiedell and Mrs. Katharine Kirk III of Ross. A Crawford Greene Sr. of Ross in a director emeritus.

Members of the cast include Vaiice Harder of 489 Washington Court, Tiburon; Lynne Walline of 4 Harding Drive and Ninette Larson of 2378 Vineyard Road, Novato; Mike Knight of 67 Francis Avenue, Kentfield; Jan Overturf of 48 Morning Sun Avenue, Mill Valley; Jossett Sommers of 170 Tioga Lane, Greenbrae, and Judy Navas of 555 Heather Way, and Denny Turrentine of 125 Fair Hills Drive, San Rafael.

Atoms in white dwarf stars are so tightly packed that the stars may weigh 15 tons per cubic inch.

Permits For Gas Stations Due Planners

Permits for more gas stations in San Rafael, a hearing on an 84-unit apartment development, and discussion of a pesky sign will be among items considered by the San Rafael Planning Commission tomorrow.

The session begins in the city hall at 7:30 p.m.

Use permit for the apartment development with two offices and a gas station was asked by Charles Bell on land on Highway 101 frontage road between the Terra Linda interchange and Professional Center Parkway. Tomorrow's hearing will be the second and final on the application.

Approval of gas stations has been asked by Shell Oil Co. at Del Presidio Boulevard and Manuel Freitas Parkway, by Humble Oil Co. at Del Presidio Boulevard and Las Gallinas Avenue, and by Gulf Oil Corp. at Bellam and Francisco boulevards.

Also on tap is a request for architectural approval of a plastic sign already put up by Cascade Products Co. of San Francisco to advertise Direct Appliance Furniture at 70 Woodland Avenue.

Two weeks ago the commission split on a motion to order removal of the unsanctioned sign. Commissioners agreed, after the split vote, to put the matter off until tomorrow for action.

Master Plan Due Novato Commission

The continued hearing on Roberts and Aguirre's master plan for a 21-acre "planned community" single-family residence development adjacent to Pleasant Valley Unit 3 will be held by the Novato Planning Commission at its regular meeting at 8 p.m. today.

The plan, for houses with less than the minimum lot size but open areas on the hillsides for recreation, has drawn protests from residents of the area.

The commission will also continue its hearing on the John Novak and Alfred Bellucci request for rezoning of the proposed Dias Shopping Center and Novak Industrial Park.

This was continued two weeks ago for submission of plans showing where the proposed Highway 101 freeway would go through the property. The approximately 40 acres lie west of Highway 101, east of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, north of Novato Creek and south of Clausing Avenue. It is now zoned single family residential.

Albert P. Tognoli seeks rezoning from limited agriculture to roadside business and multiple family for just less than six acres on the east side of Highway 101 south of Hamilton Air Force Base.

Other items to be considered are: Gus Ravetz's tentative map of Redwood Gardens subdivision of 18 lots on five acres south of Cherry Street and north of Cerro Vista Unit 3; 50-lot subdivision on 14 acres in Gnoss Estates, submitted by Westwood Homes; architectural supervision for a doughnut shop at Second Street and Industrial Way to replace the present shop, requested by Jack Caristi, and Berkeley Farms' application for architectural supervision for a proposed dairy distribution center and office at Lamont Avenue and Highway 101.

San Anselmo City Council Due Maps

Final maps of the Franklin Latcham and Unit 5 of Oak Springs subdivisions will be presented to the San Anselmo City Council for approval at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Report on debris at 37 Canyon Road, request for zoning at 31 Lansdale Avenue to allow construction of a trip'ex and a request for an encroachment permit on Allyn Avenue will be discussed by the council.

Christmas Seal Design Contest Set

Entries in the Christmas Seal design contest for the 1966 Christmas Seal may be submitted to the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn., 1010 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, until Sept. 1.

The winning design will earn for its creator a $1,000 prize from the National Tuberculosis Assn.

Dairy Area Voters Ballot On School Districts Unity

Voters in the sprawling dairy region of west and northwest Marin County and southwest Sonoma County will go to the polls tomorrow to decide whether seven elementary school districts will unite into one.

In order to be successful, the election must carry by a simple majority in each of the districts. They are Tomales Bay Union, West Marin and Point Reyes in Marin County, and Bodega Bay, Watson, American Valley and Bloomfield in Sonoma County.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. at the Point Reyes school, the Point Reyes firehouse in Point Reyes Station, the Inverness firehouse in Inverness, the Marshall School and the Tomales Elementary School.

An eighth district, the Tomales Joint Union High School District, would also be effected by the election. If the union elementary district is approved, it will automatically merge with the Tomales High School District to become a unified district (kindergarten through high school).

It would accomplish a unification plan that has been turned down twice by the State Board of Education.

It would also necessitate another election on leveling bonds of the districts and naming a new school board to take over on July 1, 1965, the date the unification would become effective.

"This election is the natural outgrowth and a follow-up of the $175,000 bond issue passed by the voters in January," said Mrs. Kent Lawson of Dillon Beach, a member of the Citizens' Election Committee for Unionization. Voters then balloted 804 to 105 to authorize the bonds to rehabilitate buildings at Tomales High School.

After that election, the boards of all seven elementary districts voted in favor of the unionization election.

Principal opposition to the plan has developed in the West Marin School District, which is the largest district, having $5,277,000 of the total $12,929,480 assessed valuation in the proposed union district.

That district also has the largest number of registered voters, 856. The total registered voters in the seven districts is 1,791. The registration by districts is: Watson, 22; American Valley, 77; Bloomfield, 102; Bodega Bay, 290; Tomales Bay, 417 and Point Reyes, 26.

The Sonoma County Schools office has sent out one absentee ballot, the Marin County office, 28.

Opposition to the plan was spearheaded by the West Marin Taxpayers Committee Opposed to Untimely Unionization. Main "anti" argument is that the West Marin district is already superior to other schools in the proposed unionized district and is constantly being improved.

Bagley Due At Hearing On Appraiser

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) will appear before an Assembly interim committee in San Francisco next month to push his campaign to eliminate political patronage in the appointment of state inheritance tax appraisers.

Two weeks ago in Los Angeles, Bagley appeared before the interim committee on ways and means to present these two alternatives: (1) Put inheritance tax appraisers under state civil service, or (2) delegate inheritance tax appraisals to the assessor's office in each county.

Under existing law, the state controller appoints inheritance tax appraisers.

On Aug. 13, Aseemblyman Bagley is scheduled to appear before an interim committee on elections and reapportionment, which will meet in the State Building in San Francisco. State Controller Alan Cranston is scheduled to speak before the same committee.

A 30-horsepower outboard motor was stolen Friday or Saturday from a boat in a garage at Belle Avenue and Alice Street in San Rafael, the owner, Gerald F. Daly of 112 Belle Avenue, told police Saturday. Neither the garage nor the motor was locked, he said.

The teen-age girl is the least well-fed member of the family.

Tiburon Council, Planners Meeting Separately Tonight

Tiburon City Council and Planning Commission will meet at 8 p.m. today in separate rooms of the Del Mar School.

For the council, the meeting will be primarily devoted to discussion of a preliminary budget and of the contract with the county to provide basic services.

The contract, including planning, police, street maintenance and other services, will expire Aug. 15 and councilmen must decide which services they want to continue to contract and for what period.

Also on the council agenda in Room One of the school are the first bills to be paid by the city. The formerly empty treasury has been filled with up to $30,000 which councilmen agreed Wednesday to borrow at 3.25 per cent interest from the Tiburon National Bank.

A report on licensing of businesses will be presented by interim City Administrator Warren Schmid.

In the library of the school, the planning commission will be working on the budget which it has been asked to submit to the council by Aug. 10. The commission also will draw up a general statement of planning philosophy.
